I. NAME

The name of this Association shall be the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

II. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

The objectives and purposes of the Association shall be:

(1) To foster fellowship and unity of faith and practice.
(2) To give and receive assistance in achieving the purposes of the member churches.
(3) To engage in direct, cooperative mission activities which cannot be accomplished by a church acting alone.
(4) To further the spirit of cooperation with Baptist work as set forth by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

III. MEMBERSHIP

This Association shall be composed of messengers from Baptist churches which in their faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and which are actively participating in the support and programs of work of the Association.

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, on recommendation of the Church Extension Committee, following counsel with the church and full investigation by the Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity, and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter and/or messengers for three consecutive years, the Executive Committee may, upon failing to effect a resolution of the problem, recommend withdrawal of fellowship from the church. A two-thirds majority vote in annual session shall be required for this action.

All active pastors, who are members of their respective churches, will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each affiliating church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows: three messengers from each church for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one additional messenger from each church for each additional one hundred members or major fraction thereof, up to ten messengers. Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Annual Meeting of the Association. The courtesies of the floor may be extended to non messengers at the discretion of the body.

SECTION 2. Special Sessions. Special Sessions may be called by the Executive Committee as need arises. The Executive Committee shall determine the time, place and length of called meetings. Written notice of special sessions with a statement of the purpose ot the meeting must be sent to all pastors and the church-related member of the associational Executive Committee at least two (2) weeks before the session.

V. AUTHORITY

The Association shall be clothed with authority only to advise the churches touching all things pertaining to their interest, but shall in no case control or direct them with reference to their own government or internal policy.

In associational matters, the Association shall be the authority. Therefore, each officer, committee, organization, and employee shall seek to comply with the purposes and the specific instructions of the Association. The Association may delegate authority as it sees fit in associational matters.

SECTION 4. Institutional and Agency Representatives. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate one person for each denominational institution and agency which requests such a representative. Important dates, which were included in a handout, were highlighted.
19. Warnie C. Hay, pastor of the Galilee Baptist Church, brought a spiritual boost for the HERE'S HOPE effort from Mark 8:22-24. He suggested that there are those in our churches with distorted vision and that we need to pray for spiritual glasses so we can see the world as it is.
20. Carlton Mitchell, chairman, gave the report of the Associational Strategy Planning Committee, as presented in the Book of Reports. The committee has been enlarged and four subcommittees are now at work.

21. The financial report was given by Charles Walker, associational treasurer, as presented in the Book of Reports.

The emphasis of the State Convention from 1982-1985 is fourfold: (1) Reach people; (2) Disciple believers; (3) Strengthen families; (4) Affirm ministry. What are the commitments we must make in order to reach these goals? (1) We must make a commitment that we will give ourselves to prayer; (2) Commitment to seek out the lost and bring them to know the Savior; (3) Commitment to personal witnessing; (4) Commitment to disciple people that we reach.

29. Jim McDowell gave the Missions-Ministries reports, which included reports of the Christian Life Committee, Christian Social Ministries Committee, Missions Committee, Interracial Committee, and the Mission Center Committee. 43. The congregation was led in the singing of the hymn, "We Have a Gospel to Proclaim".

44. Glenn Murphy, chairman of the Nominating Committee, moved the acceptance of the report of the committee as listed in the Book of Reports. Motion seconded and approved.

45. The floor was opened for nominations for a new moderator for 1981-82. Steve Welborn, Antioch Baptist Church, nominated Bob Fowler, Lewisville Baptist Church, and Mr. Fowler subsequently was elected by acclamation.

46. Paul Riggs, Oaklawn Baptist Church, was nominated for the office of vice moderator and was elected by acclamation.

47. Steve Welborn, chairman of the Committee on Committees, moved the adoption of the report of the Committee on Committees as listed in the Book of Reports. The motion was seconded and approved.

Mrs. Elsie Jarvis, chairman, presented the following resolution for the Resolutions Committee: "Be it resolved that the ninety-sixth annual session of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association express its appreciation to the Lewisville Baptist Church for being host and making its facilities available for this meeting. Be it further resolved that appreciation be expressed to the office staff, the officers of the Association, and the program planning committee." This motion was seconded and approved.
51. Mrs. Elizabeth Heath, chairman of the Memorials Committee, led in a memorial service in memory of those who have died in the past year.
52. The moderator again opened the floor for miscellaneous business. None was presented.
53. John Fulcher, newly elected Music Director for the Association, directed the congregation in singing, "Reach Out and Touch".
54. Thurman Fox, Executive Director of Missions, made staff presentations, introducing his wife Minerva; Jim McDowell, Director of Missions-Ministries; and Secretaries Peggy Hall and Janice Messer. He also expressed appreciation to Irvin Grigg for his work on the Kernersville Project; to TroyHamrick for stepping in to finish the work of the Order of Business Committee; and to all officers and committees of the Association.
55. The Lewisville Church choir presented choral music, "Rejoice, the Lord is King".
56. Marion Rector, in the annual sermon, spoke to the theme of the annual meeting, "HERE'S HOPE: Looking In, Reaching Out". We were reminded of the need for self-examination, to take stock to see where we are and to be reminded what we are about as an Association. Isaiah 54:2 was used as the basis of our thinking on "reaching out". We were admonished to enlarge our tents, lengthen the cords, and strengthen the stakes as we work together. All of us coming together can do some things that we cannot do individually. When God has a job He wants done, He has already given us the resources to do it with. We already have the resources if we look around us and seek out those talented people who are available.
57. Marion Rector presented Bob Fowler as the new moderator of the Pilot Mountain Association. Following brief comments of challenge to move ahead in associational work, Mr. Fowler led in the prayer of benediction. With the benediction, the ninety-sixth session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association ended.

Respectfully submitted,
Marion Rector, Moderator
C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Highlights of Executive Committee Meetings

DECEMBER 15, 1980:

Mark Corts gave the report and recommendation of the Office Survey and Planning Committee: "The Office Survey and Planning Committee respectfully requests the Executive Committee to affirm and expand the responsibilities given to the Committee in 1971 Executive Committee action. That the responsibilities of the Committee be to conduct a study which would result in:

1. Justification to its own satisfaction of the need for constructing or purchasing an associational building.
2. Determining the size and type of building we shall need.
3. Locating a suitable site for an associational office building.
4. Recommending a method of financing."

This motion passed unanimously.

FEBRUARY 23, 1981:

Linda Fowler presented a recommendation from the WMU Council that the following policy: "Honoraria for associational meetings shall be given only for program participants from outside the membership of the churches of the Association" (adopted by the Executive Committee on 10-9-73) not apply to career missionaries.

Recommendation approved.

MARCH 16, 1981:

In a called meeting Dr. J. L. Wilson, chairman of the Personnel Committee made the following motion: "The Executive Director of Missions joins with the Personnel Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in recommending to the Executive Committee that we elect the Rev. James McDowell as Director of Missions-Ministries of the Association."

Motion passed unanimously.

APRIL 20, 1981:

Marion Rector of Crestwood Church made the following motion: "I move that the Executive Committee go on record as favoring the participating of our churches in the task of church development in West Virginia, and that funds for this work be received through the associational office and be distributed to approved projects in West Virginia. The associational Missions Committee and the Brotherhood Director will work together in selecting worthy projects in cooperation with the Division of Missions of the Baptist State Convention. I further move that the Missions Committee give particular attention to the request of the Capon Bridge Baptist Mission in northeast West Virginia to help them build a first unit building starting this June. Both money (at least $9000) and work crews will be needed for several weeks starting on June 21, 1981. Finally, I would include in this motion that our associational Finance Committee study the possibility of designating up to $1000 in associational funds to initiate the project."

The motion was approved.

AUGUST 24, 1981:

The Missions Committee recommends to the Executive Committee that the Association undertake the restoring of the Redwine house for use by a missionary-in-residence and to raise the necessary funds for restoration. And, if approved, to appoint a committee that would include both WMU and Brotherhood Directors to carry out the actions necessary to implement this recommendation.

The following recommendation was approved by the Executive Committee: That the chairman of the Executive Committee appoint a Centennial Celebration Steering Committee to begin formulating plans for the associational Centennial Celebration in 1985. That the Director of Missions serve as ex-officio member of the committee. That a subcommittee be appointed to be responsible for the writing of the history of the Association, and that this committee include Dr. J. Allen Easley, Walter Warfford, Lewis Ludlum, Mrs. Margaret Tocce, and Jimmie Underwood.

Mr. Fowler presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Phillip and Lois Ellington have responded to God's call and will be serving through our Foreign Mission Board in South Brazil;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Executive Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association:

THAT we as an Association show our support for them by our prayers, thoughts, and expressions of encouragement in this Bold Missions effort.

FURTHERMORE, let it be known that we as an Association are thankful for and appreciative of their work in their church and their participation in Associational, State and Convention activities. The Ellingtons served Konnoak Baptist Church, Winston-Salem.

FINALLY, let it be known that September 27th will be observed throughout our Association as a day of prayer and support for the Ellingtons, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the churches of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, to the Ellingtons, and to the Foreign Mission Board.

Resolution was accepted unanimously.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1981:

J. L. Wilson gave the Personnel Committee report and moved that the following recommendation be passed:

The Personnel Committee recommends that the next step in staff development of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association be the replacement of a Director of Church Development. The Committee recommends to the Finance Committee to include a salary for the Director of Church Development at $18,000 per year.

Motion passed.

Irvin Grigg of the Finance Committee presented and moved that the 1981-82 budget be approved for presentation to the Association in Annual Conference.

Motion passed unanimously.

Fred Chilton, on behalf of the Constitution Committee, presented the proposed constitutional changes and moved that they be approved by the Executive Committee for presentation to the Association in Annual Conference.

After being amended, the motion carried.

Grady Dickens brought recommendations from the Missions Committee pertaining to request for assistance from Main Street Baptist Church.

Troy Hamrick offered the following motion: The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association shall assist the Main Street Church, Kernersville, in the following manner:

(1) Irvin Grigg is appointed as liason between the Association and the church to work with the church's finances.
(2) Said liason is authorized to recruit and enlist a group of concerned people or churches to act with liason and associational staff to provide leadership to the church and solicit funds as necessary with the exclusion of borrowing money.
(3) The Association will, if necessary, accept responsibility for the church Day Care salaries through and including Friday, September 24, 1981.

Motion carried.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Since last year's meeting, the Personnel Committee has met nine times. The moderator and vice-moderator have been included in all meetings. In addition to the regular meetings, the chairman of the committee has had some fifteen conferences with those on the Association staff.

Following the announced intentions of last year, the committee drew up a job description for a Director of Missions-Ministries. The Executive Director conducted preliminary interviews with a number of people, culminating in the bringing of James McDowell, a native of Tennessee and a graduate of Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, to Winston-Salem for interviews with the committee. With the Executive Director's endorsement, the committee recommended to the Executive Committee on March 16 that Mr. McDowell be called as Director of Missions-Ministries. This recommendation was approved, and following negotiations with the Home Mission Board, Mr. McDowell moved with his family to Winston-Salem and began his work. The staff position is subsidized by the Home Mission Board and by the North Carolina Baptist Convention. The Executive Director of the Association is responsible for supervision of the Director of Missions-Ministries.

The Personnel Committee recommended to the September meeting of the Executive Committee that we proceed next year with filling the position of Director of Church Development in our Association. The recommendation was approved along with a job description for the position. A budget item is requested in the coming year's budget for the salary.

Whether the committee will be able to fulfill its intention is dependent upon three things: (1) the approval of the budget item covering the salary along with sufficient giving to make it possible; (2) the finding of a qualified person; and (3) the resolution of problems dealing with staff relationships.

In order to give an accurate report to the Association, it is necessary to comment on point number three. There are problems of relationships within the association staff which must be resolved in order for the work of this Association to be more effective. The Personnel Committee has been attempting to deal with these problems. We will continue to address them and give our best in seeking solutions. Obviously, these are serious concerns, and we covet your prayers.

ASSOCIATIONAL STRATEGY PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Strategy Planning Committee has met several times and has established a program for carrying out its mission of making "periodic over-all evaluations of associational programs and policies."

It was agreed that our first goal should be the collection of data and the publication of an associational self-study, using the "Guide for Associational Self-Study" published by the Southern Baptist Convention's Division of Associational Missions as our primary resource manual. The Rev. George Shore of our State Convention staff was invited to meet with us and gave valuable direction for our preparation.

Following the outlined suggestions, a meeting of a larger Steering Committee was held in June and assignments of some forty members have been made to sub-committees on the study of community physical facilities, community welfare and social service agencies, the courts and police, and church data and trends. Thurman Fox and Jim McDowell divided staff responsibilities for work with these committees, and instruction sessions were held.

The sub-committees are now at work collecting data for the publication of an "Associational Self-Study" similar to that published by other associations. It is anticipated that this self-study will be published early next year. Following the publication of the self-study, the Strategy Planning Committee hopes to sponsor a special retreat for the purpose of suggesting further steps to be taken. The retreat or planning conference is listed as "Step 5" in the nine-step program outlined in the "Associational Strategy Planning Guide" which the committee has been following. Step 6 includes the formal reporting from the planning conference; and Step 7 includes an "Awareness Conference" leading to Step 8, which is "implementation". The final step is evaluation of the entire process. It is our goal to move through these remaining steps during the coming year.

STUDENT AND YOUTH COMMITTEE

On Saturday, March 14, the Student and Youth Committee sponsored a concert by the singing group "Re'Generation" at Wait Chapel on the campus of Wake Forest University. The concert served as a climax to the Youth Week emphasis of our churches. A large percentage of our churches participated, as well as many churches from outside our Association. Attendance was approximated at 2000.

In order to better promote the concert, our committee enlisted the assistance of a youth from each of our churches to promote the concert among their respective churches and youth groups. They also assisted in collecting the offering which was taken at the concert. Our committee intends to use the group of youth representatives in planning and promoting any future activities.

The coordinated and combined efforts of our committee members, ample publicity, and the cooperative and enthusiastic response of our churches and the cooperative assistance of the associational staff made this effort a success. The good support this effort received has given our committee an optimistic outlook on any future endeavors.

Our committee also promoted a "College Day" which was sponsored by the Forsyth County School District at Hanes Mall on October 6. Our committee encouraged the pastors and youth ministers of our churches to encourage their youth to acquaint themselves with the Baptist colleges in our state. Our committee felt that many of our youth would not choose to attend a Baptist college simply because they would not know about them.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

The Christian Life Committee has spent this year in development of understanding of the ministry and organization of our committee. This was accomplished by a survey of community and church leaders and consultation with Doug Cole and the staff of the BSC Christian Life and Public Affairs Council to determine the areas which this committee should address, courses of action, and resources available to meet these needs.

This research led the committee to an awareness of needs in three areas. They are family life, citizenship, and substance abuse. The committee will respond to these areas of need in 1982 by providing awareness materials, educational conferences, and community resources to pastors and churches.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

Your CSM Committee found itself, at the onset of the 1980-81 church year, in a peculiar and somewhat awkward position. We had come together as an associational committee, ready and willing to do the work of our Lord, but at the same time wondering what we were supposed to do. It was immediately decided by the committee that its first task should be that of defining and clarifying the purpose and objectives of the CSM Committee. The committee then engaged in an extensive evaluation of its purpose, including a review of the objectives set forth in the Association's constitution. It was determined as a result of that evaluation that certain "overlaps" existed in our associational constitution's definition of the objectives of the CSM and Missions Committees. This committee participated in assisting the Constitution Committee in rewriting portions of the constitution to avoid further duplication, in addition to eliminating existing gaps in the constitution's definition of the CSM and Missions Committees.

The CSM Committee also spent time in familiarizing itself with the Association's new Director of Missions-Ministries, Mr. Jim McDowell. This process involved the task of defining the relationship to exist between the Director of Missions-Ministries and this committee.

In May, 1981, the committee put together a Missions-Ministries Survey form which was sent to all the churches of our Association. Forty-one churches responded by completing and returning the survey form. Comments regarding the survey were offered by many of those churches responding. Some were:

(1) "A good thing to do periodically to keep CSM as well as the church informed as to what is going on, and what are the possibilities for new ministries;"
(2) "excellent tool for evaluating mission work of the Association;"
(3) "thorough and touches a lot of areas of need that our church should be doing;" and
(4) "helpful and ministry (thought) provoking."

A survey summary has been compiled and a copy sent to those churches responding to the survey. Copies are available for others upon request at the associational office.

Other tasks engaged in by the CSM Committee this year include:

* Re-establishing and coordinating efforts to provide temporary activities for the residents and attendants of the Forsyth County Youth Center, designed to provide Christian fellowship and recreation that they may not receive from any other source. As one staff member at the Center commented regarding the various church groups participating in this ministry, "The groups are an asset and our kids look forward to them."

* Financial assistance was approved by the committee to the Forsyth Literacy Council for workshop material.

- * CSM Committee also approved financial assistance to the Migrant ministry at Union Grove.

The CSM Committee has submitted a budget, with some items based upon results from the Missions-Ministries Survey. We look forward to a challenging and rewarding year of helping you help others.

MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The Missions Committee has had a rather busy year. A number of requests and concerns have been dealt with during the year.

One of the concerns dealt with has been the Vietnamese refugee needs. The committee has talked with state, associational, and church leadership involved in ministry to refugees. We have discovered, at this point, a continuing need for some type of on-going ministry with the Vietnamese refugees. The committee will be reporting in the near future concerning recommendations.

Another concern which has been considered by the committee is the Redwine house, which was willed to the Baptist Foundation. The house was to be kept up and operated either by a church in the Pilot Mountain Association, or the Association itself, for a missionary-in-residence. The following recommendation was presented to the Executive Committee on August 24, 1981:

> "The Missions Committee recommends to the Executive Committee that the Association undertake the restoring of the Redwine house for use by a missionary-in-residence and to raise the necessary funds for restoration. And, if approved, to appoint a committee that would include both WMU and Brotherhood Directors to carry out the actions necessary to implement this recommendation."

This recommendation was adopted and action will be carried out, we hope, in the near future.

The Missions Committee also approved the recommendation that $1000 be given to the West Virginia Project for the Capon Bridge Mission. The Reverend Marion Rector, pastor of the Crestwood Baptist Church and Moderator of our Association, his family, and several other lay persons from our Association went to West Virginia to help the Capon Bridge Mission get started in its construction program. The work is well on its way.

Your Missions Committee is available to assist any church, in any way it can, upon request.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

During the past year, ASSIST (the Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team) has been very active. Thirty-eight of our churches have sought and received personal assistance from this team at one or more age levels or in general Sunday School work.

Quarterly fellowships for Sunday School Directors were opportunities to develop friendships and to receive inspiration from each other.

Last spring the ASSIST members taught the new Basic Sunday School Work series of books at TIC '81. There were also workshops offered in two smaller geographical areas of the Association.

Vacation Bible School Clinics were held at Brim's Grove and Becks churches, and both day and night clinics were available. There was also an "Early-Bird" VBS Clinic for pastors and VBS Directors; and there were a number of Mission VBS and Backyard Bible Club clinics held, beginning with an Association-wide one in late May and continuing through the summer as Beverly Church, our summer missionary, led training sessions for each individual church who wanted to be involved in Backyard Bible Clubs.

Approximately 50 Backyard Bible Clubs were held involving close to 1000 children. About 120 of our church members helped with these. A new opportunity was opened to us - we held Backyard Bible Clubs in schools which offered free lunch programs during the summer.

Again this year, the Sunday School sponsored a booth at the Dixie Classic Fair with puppet shows inviting everyone to Sunday School, Sunday School "take-home" literature given out, an opportunity to enroll in the Home Mission Board's Bible study course, and about 7500 cups of cold water served.

As the new year approached in our churches, ASSIST members had the opportunity to help with Sunday School Preparation Week.

We continually are looking for ways that the associational Sunday School program can be of help to the Sunday School program in our churches. Our hope is that we will all be used most effectively as we seek to reach 8.5 by '85.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

As we conclude another year of WMU work in our Association, it is apparent to us that a great deal of the effectiveness of this work depends upon our close relationship with WMU leaders in the churches of this Association. As we seek to plan and conduct programs, activities and projects which meet the needs of our churches, we are constantly in touch with those leaders and try to be sensitive to their desires. Taking into careful consideration those desires, each age level director on the associational WMU Council has attempted to plan and conduct the program most needed by her age level.

Mission Friends leaders were offered fellowship times where ideas were shared and enthusiasm grew. Our Mission Friends Director visited in a number of our churches where she had been invited to give personal assistance.

The GA program grew this year as the girls had opportunity to be a part of GA Overnights, a GA Banquet which had to be moved because more than twice as many as expected made reservations to come, and a GA Camp which we'll never forget. Our GAs also participated in the State's Regional GAtivity.

On the Acteens level, over 100 attended both an Acteens Rally during the winter and a Dessert Theater during the fall.

The BYWs celebrated their tenth birthday with a partylast winter and also enjoyed their annual banquet last fall with Nona Kay Bickerstaff, state BYW Director, as guest speaker. Mrs. Al Miller led the BYW Prayer Retreat in May.

The Baptist Women began their year with the Baptist Women World Day of Prayer, held some training sessions for specific activities during the year, made possible participation by working women in the Weeks of Prayer for Home and Foreign Missions, and had their annual dinner and retreat.

Leadership Conference was held at every age level with conferences offered in both Forsyth and Stokes counties this year.

Sharing times for WMU Directors were offered in each of the ten groups of churches in the associational organization.

Our Annual Associational WMU Meeting in April focused on volunteer involvement in missions and featured the work of members of our own churches in the areas of associational, home and foreign missions.

Members of our associational WMU Council were invited to give personal assistance to more than half of our churches, and they responded in a positive way.

We are grateful for a challenging and fulfilling year in this work.

CHURCH TRAINING

". . . your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions."

Regardless of the category in which we find ourselves, to envision every church in the Association with at least one active Church Training unit is quite a dream, indeed . . . but not an impossible reality!

Every church in the Association can and should provide training for its members; however, only 14 of our 76 member churches report any semblance of training.

The "vision" is every church in the Association with Church Training . . . the "dream" of 1981-82 is the Association helping to strengthen existing Church Training units and assisting in the beginning of at least five new units offering training opportunities for at least 100 members by providing supporting workshops and conferences for Church Training leaders.

Perhaps the word "training" causes many members to think, "If I am going to be TRAINED, then I am going to be asked to DO something!" But, Church Training is to enable the member to be PREPARED to, as Peter says, "be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you". Church Training informs, equips, and motivates Christians to serve Christ through the church.

Church Training provides leaders, and strengthens all other activities of the church:

... fellowship with Christian friends
... training in church membership
... husband and wife can meet together with other couples
... individual participation
... choose what you really want and need to study
... new church member orientation
... doctrine study
... leader training emphasis

The Association has a videotape player and tapes available for local church use. The Sunday School Board will provide up to $60 worth of literature free for the first quarter for a new Church Training program for each church.

If you want Church Training in your church, you must have Church Training in your heart:

> "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed . . . " (II Tim. 2:15)

The "dream" can be a present realistic happening -
The "vision" will be a great future accomplishment!

MINISTERS' WIVES

The Ministers' Wives of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association had an interesting and enjoyable year.

We started the year together with a dinner meeting at Knollwood Baptist Church so that the ladies who work could meet with us as a get acquainted time.

A mini-retreat was held in Becks Baptist Church gym. Mrs. Leroy Parker and her daughter, Sandra Adams, led in a discussion on "The Minister's Home and Family". A time of inspiration was led by missionary Marjorie Bennett, followed by recreation, food and fellowship.

Other meetings included a Christmas decorations showing at the home of Hattie Bell Allen, a Christmas party at the home of Louise Noffsinger, and information on home decorating and lunch at K & W Cafeteria. We always enjoy the Valentine Banquet with our husbands.

We learned a lot at our Fashion Show at the home of Phyllis Hewitt. We feel that it is important to look nice, yet to thrifty in our spending. Dr. and Mrs. W. K. McGee shared their ministry with us; this inspired us all. Our year ended with a lovely luncheon at the home of Martha Carr.

We were saddened this summer by the home going of our dear friend, Hattie Bell

Allen. We will miss her wit and great knowledge as she shared with us.

We look forward to another good year - come join us!

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met December 2, 1980, at the associational office for the purpose of auditing the associational financial records.

Auditing procedures for the expenditures consisted of reviewing all vouchers for proper authorization and a random sample of vouchers were compared with the associational books for accuracy in amounts, check numbers, categorization, and date.

The procedure for the receipts consisted of comparing receipts, selected at random, in the log with associational books to ascertain accuracy in recording the amounts and identity of donors.

Additionally, confirmation letters showing the contribution amount received were mailed to several churches. A favorable response was received from this mailing with all responses showing the confirmations to be correct.

Account balance confirmations for the associational checking and passbook savings account at Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and the investment account at Dean Witter Reynolds were obtained. All monies were present and accounted for.

The only significant finding by the Audit Committee was several vouchers without supporting documents or signed receipts. The Audit Committee recommends that all supporting documents and/or signed receipts be obtained prior to disbursing funds.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association as of October 31, 1980, and the changes in their financial position for the year then ended.

Dedication

These 1982 Minutes are dedicated to the following two pastors, who died last year while serving churches in Pilot Mountain Baptist Association:

TALMADGE V. WALL, JR.

Talmadge V. Wall, Jr., was a native of Winston-Salem, NC - born April 20, 1932 - and remained there for his high school and college education at Sedge Garden High School (1958) and Wake Forest University (1964). His graduation from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary was in 1969.

His pastoral ministry extended from 1962 until his death in 1982. Five years of his ministry were at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church at Ronda and two years, at Cherry Field Baptist Church at Brevard. The other thirteen years were in his native Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Early in life, his acceptance of and love for all types of people had become part and parcel of his disposition. His strong faith and love for the Scripture was usually expressed in traditional ways. His interest in and love for people was often expressed in innovative ways whenever and wherever that more effectively met the needs of people.

At the time of his death in 1982, his ministry included pastor of Unity Baptist Church, Winston-Salem; Yokefellow Prison ministry; and Cooperative Ministries Committee (with Black Baptists) of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

—Lewis E. Ludlum

CORBERT J. GORDON

(1930 - 1982)

Corbert J. Gordon, pastor of Sauratown Mountain Baptist Church, died February 9, 1982, of a massive heart attack. He grew up in Mount Olive Baptist Church, King, NC, where he served in various capacities until called into the gospel ministry.

While attending Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, he was licensed, ordained and called as associate pastor by Mount Olive. He graduated from Fruitland in 1976.

In 1978, he was called as pastor by Sauratown Mountain Baptist Church, King, NC, where he served for four years until his unexpected death.

Surviving are his widow, Thelma, and son, Jerry.

OF THE 1982 SESSIONS
OF THE
PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

October 19, 1982
Theme: "Churches United in Ministry"

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The ninety-seventh session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was held at First Baptist Church, Kernersville, North Carolina, on October 19, 1982, with David Morrow, Vice-Moderator, presiding. Preservice music was provided by David Moffitt, pianist, of Forest Hill Baptist Church. Mrs. Jean Cooper, Northwest Baptist Church, served as organist for the meeting.
2. The congregation was led in singing the hymn, "Crown Him with Many Crowns". Richard Ryan, Forest Hill Baptist Church, directed a ministers choir in the anthem, "Tell Me the Story of Jesus". Russell Wimmer, Northwest Baptist Church, led the prayer followed by a responsive reading led by W. Amis Daniel, Union Cross Baptist Church.
3. C. Irvin Grigg, associational clerk, moved that the 176 messengers already registered and those to be registered be seated and that they constitute the 97th annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The motion was seconded and passed.
4. Larry Freeman, College Park Baptist Church and acting chairman of the Order of Business Committee, moved that the program as printed in the Associational Annual Meeting bulletin be the order of business for the day. Motion seconded and passed.
5. Charles Stevens, host pastor, welcomed the messengers and visitors to First Baptist Church, Kernersville.
6. David Morrow, Vice-Moderator, responded.
7. Guests present were recognized - - a representative from Meredith College and the Rev. Roy Beals, a new resident of the North Carolina Baptist Home in Winston-Salem.
8. Burke Holland, Language Ministries and Chaplaincy Program of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, brought greetings from the Baptist family in Raleigh. He reported that the construction of the new facilities for the State Convention is on schedule and that by the first of the year, the move should be completed. He related that the challenge that the Convention staff is feeling is twofold: building stronger churches and reaching people. The 1980 census statistics revealed that we are behind, and getting further behind, in reaching the people in our state. During the 10-year period from 1970-1980, the Pilot Mountain Association grew a little over 40,000 people. It is predicted that the growth will be between 80,000-90,000 new residents in our Association during the next 10 years. We must take seriously the needs of ethnic groups in our area. Three Spanish missions are needed in our area now - - there is only one.
9. C. Irvin Grigg, associational clerk, presented the report of the Executive Committee as provided in the Book of Reports.
10. J. L. Wilson, chairman of the Personnel Committee, presented the report of the Committee as included in the Book of Reports. He reported that his committee has asked the Budget Committee to budget for a new Director of Missions and another staff person. Appreciation was expressed to Dr. W. R. Grigg for his leadership during this interim period. Special recognition and appreciation was expressed to Peggy Hall, associational secretary, for her Christian spirit, commitment to the Lord's work and commitment to this Association. She was presented a check for $1,000. A standing ovation and applause was the response of the messengers to this recognition of Mrs. Hall. Mrs. Hall responded with gratitude and introduced Ms. Helen Johnson, part-time secretary in the associational office. There was a motion that the report of the Personnel Committee be received. It was seconded and passed.

11. Paul Wonders, chairman, reported for the Search Committee. He expressed appreciation for the response to the survey to help his committee establish guidelines and direction in beginning the search for a new Director of Missions. This committee will meet on November 1, 1982, to begin looking at resumes' of more than 30 men who have indicated interest in being Director of Missions for our Association.
12. Dr. Clifton Allen, Winston-Salem First Baptist, led a special prayer for the work of the Search Committee in seeking out a new Director of Missions.
13. Cecil Cave, chairman of the Ordination Committee, reported that this committee has examined four candidates during the year and recommended to the requesting churches the ordination of these candidates. Another function of the committee is to offer help in planning ordination services. He reported that his committee has been impressed with pastors who have given counsel, time and encouragement to candidates for ordination; with congregations who have nurtured and encouraged candidates; with the ability of the candidates to grasp the tenets of the Christian faith in the Baptist tradition. Rev. Mr. Cave moved the adoption of the report of the Ordination Committee. Motion seconded and approved.
14. The floor was opened for miscellaneous business. There was no business presented.
15. Paul Dean, King First Baptist, directed the congregation in singing the hymn, "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling".
16. Richard Ryan, Forest Hill Baptist Church, sang a solo, "Jesus, You Are the Source of My Life". He also directed the ministers choir in the anthem, "I Stand Amazed in the Presence".
17. Charles Walker, Associational Treasurer, gave the financial report as presented in the Book of Reports, calling attention to the adjustment in the 10/31/81 balance. The +$6.95 represents money returned for materials that were ordered in the previous financial year and not available. The - $15.00 was for a returned check that was never collected.
18. The report of the Ministers Conference was presented by J. Wilson Harmon, president, as included in the Book of Reports. This report was received as information.
19. H. E. Barkley, Ardmore Baptist Church, reported for the Ministers of Education Conference that this group has reorganized and been strengthened during the past year. The purpose of the group is for fellowship, inspiration, growth, and support to those who are hurting. He noted that North Carolina is second in the Southern Baptist Convention in the number of Ministers of Education. He encouraged any staff member who works in the area of education to join with this group.
20. John Fulcher, Mineral Springs Baptist Church, reported that the Ministers of Music Conference meets quarterly (two daytime meetings and two evening meetings). A Music Council was formed in February to assist the associational Music Director. Plans include a Children's Choir Directors Seminar, a youth choir emphasis with the possibility of doing a musical, and an Adult Choir Festival.
21. Troy Hamrick, Chairman of the Office Survey and Planning Committee, reported for this committee. This report is included in the Book of Reports. There was a that this report be received, a second and the motion was approved.
22. The Youth Ministers Support Group was organized three years ago for the purpose of sharing professionally and for mutual support, as reported by John Fulcher. Programs have included: Planning and Tax Information for Ministers, Practical Advice on Completing Tax Forms, and Dealing with Conflict.

23. Mary Bullard, Associational Media Library Director, reported that the Media Library is designed to support the whole church program. She encouraged churches to participate in activities that are planned to help organize media libraries. Workshops are planned for November 6, 1982; January 8, 1983; and State Media Library Conference on April 29-30, 1983, in Charlotte; and the Church Library Conference at Ridgecrest on August 20-26, 1983. There was a motion that the report be adopted. A second was received and the motion approved.

24. The floor was again opened for miscellaneous business. Philip Wagoner, Associational Church Training Director, announced a Pastors Interpretation Dinner Meeting on October 26, 1982, at Kernersville First Baptist Church. The Rev. Johnson Gupton announced that he is no longer pastor of Stanleyville First Baptist Church and that he is available for interim or supply work.

25. Billy Orton, trombone soloist of Northwest Baptist Church, presented special music, "The Lord is My Light". John Fulcher accompanied at the piano.

26. Larry Freeman, College Park Baptist Church, briefly reviewed the history of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association from its beginning in 1885 to the present time. He also reviewed the purpose of the Association as stated in the Constitution. Some of the ways the Pilot Mountain Association seeks to fulfill its purpose were listed: Backyard Bible Clubs, summer mission tours, resort ministries, Bible teaching programs at Knollwood Hall, Crystal Towers, N.C. Baptist Home, Guardian Care, et al. A slide presentation depicting some of the work of our Association was shared. Three reports of specific mission ministries were given.

27. Wilburn Hendrix of the Forsyth Prison Ministry reported on the work that is being accomplished at the four institutions which are served by the prison ministry. He reported that 13,500 people go through these institutions each year. He introduced Glenn Pettiford as the second full time chaplain in the prison ministry. The chaplains provide worship experiences, educational opportunities, correspondence courses, counseling of all kinds, ministry to families of inmates and any other ways they can show Christian love and witness for our Lord. No tax monies are involved in this ministry. Rev. Mr. Hendrix thanked the churches for supporting the prison ministry.

28. Irvin Grigg, Administrator of Main Street Baptist Church, reported that the church is alive in the Lord and well. Average attendance has grown to 95 a week and new members have been added under the leadership of Homer Good. The church has fully supported itself financially during the past year and added $2,500 per month toward the debt retirement program. The church still owes a quarter of a million dollars and continues to need the help of the churches of the Association. Included in the Book of Reports is a more detailed report on the Main Street project.

29. Paul Wonders, Chairman of the Church Extension Committee, expressed wholehearted support for the Main Street Project and the Prison Chaplaincy Program. Mr. Wonders introduced Gary and C. T. Sprinkle to bring a first-hand report on the West Virginia project in Wheeling. Since our Association has agreed to be involved with the Wheeling, West Virginia, project during the next year, the Sprinkles visited the area to see the work that is going on there. They shared a slide presentation to present the challenge and the need for help in this area. There are 49,000 unchurched people in the immediate area of Wheeling and, until this project was begun, there was no Southern Baptist Church in the entire county. Help is needed in obtaining a church building which can become a center for spreading the Word.

30. David Morrow, Moderator, expressed thanks for the informative reports.

31. Billy Orton, Northwest Baptist Church, directed the congregation in singing the hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord".

32. James May, Center Grove Baptist Church, led the benediction. Messengers adjourned until the evening session.

EVENING SESSION

33. Preservice music was provided by the North Carolina Baptist Brass under the direction of Billy Orton. Richard Simmons and Richard Ryan sang a duet followed by the organ prelude by Jean Cooper, organist.

34. The choral call to worship, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung by the host church choir under the direction of Philip Wagoner. Fred Merkert, Westview Baptist Church, led the prayer followed by the congregational singing of the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation", directed by John Fulcher. Special music was again provided by the N.C. Baptist Brass and the Kernersville First Choir anthem, "My Eternal King".

35. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch Baptist Church, was recognized for attending the annual meeting 47 consecutive years. Visitors were welcomed by the Moderator.

36. New ministers in the Association since last annual meeting were introduced through a slide presentation narrated by Barry Carter, Old Town Baptist Church. They are: Ken Warner, Advance; Rick Allison, Mountain View; Charles Bobbitt, Pinnacle; Delmer Ray Pratt, Sauratown Mountain; Bill Edwards, Brown Mountain; Paul Hall, Dan River Mission; Russell Wimmer, Northwest; Fred Merkert, Westview; Eugene Sherrill, Forsyth Park; Richard Hicks, Edgewood; Amis Daniel, Union Cross; Herbert Caudle, Temple; James May, Center Grove. New staff members in addition to pastors were also recognized.

37. Two hundred fifty-six messengers and 51 visitors from 62 churches registered for the meeting.

38. Glenn Murphy, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, moved the acceptance of the report of the committee as listed in the Book of Reports. Motion seconded and approved.

39. The Chairman of the Committee on Committees, Stephen Welborn, moved the adoption of the committee's report as presented in the Book of Reports. Motion seconded and approved.

40. Larry Freeman moved that the invitation of the College Park Baptist Church for the 98th session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association on October 18, 1983, be accepted. The motion was seconded and approved.

41. Ike Worrell, Finance Committee Chairman, moved that the proposed budget for 1982-83 as presented in the Book of Reports, be adopted. There was a second and the floor was opened for questions and discussion. The salary figures included in the budget are made with the anticipation of the employment of a new Director of Missions. The amount in the budget for "Redwine Property Maintenance" is included because of the likely possibility of a new furnance being needed during the year. After discussion, there was a standing vote of approval.

42. David Morrow, Moderator, moved the adoption of the following resolution: "Be it resolved that the ninety-seventh annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association express its deepest gratitude to Kernersville First Baptist Church for the use of its facilities for this meeting". The motion was seconded and approved.

43. Mervin Garrison, Quaker Gap Baptist Church, presented the following resolution as a motion: "In recognition of the many years of devoted service to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association as Chairman of the Finance Committee, I move that the minutes of this associational meeting include an expression of appreciation to Ike Worrell. His many hours of time, his guidance and direction in the financial area of our work, and his commitment to the ministry of this Association has been immeasurable". Motion seconded and approved.

44. Rev. John M. Boyles, Colfax Baptist Church, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption: "Whereas David Morrow was the Moderator of the Executive Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and as he is serving as Moderator of this annual meeting and whereas this past year has been one of great stress on our Association and David Morrow has led us very effectively, be it therefore resolved that this Association go on record thanking him for the effective leadership he has given through these difficult times by extending to him the hand of Christian fellowship. The tie that binds us together is the love of Jesus Christ our Lord and David has held us together in that bond this past year through his Christian leadership". Many seconds were received and Rev. Mr. Boyles asked for those in favor of the resolution to so state by applause. It was obvious that the resolution was accepted enthusiastically and unanimously.

45. Ed Stines, Chairman of the Memorials Committee, led in a memorial service in memory of those who have died in the past year.

46. The floor was opened for miscellaneous business. None was presented.

47. Barry Carter, Old Town, directed the congregation in singing the hymn, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee".

48. Dr. W. R. Grigg, Interim Director of Missions, introduced the featured speaker for the annual meeting, Dr. Chevis Horne of Southeastern Seminary.

49. Dr. Horne spoke to the theme of the annual meeting, "CHURCHES UNITED IN MINISTRY", using II Corinthians 5:16-21 as his text. Dr. Horne declared that "we are made for each other. We are not made for isolation. Just as people need people, churches need churches. It is high time that we join hands in proclaiming the best news this world has ever heard. The dynamic of the idea of being united in ministry is that we, together, seek to discover human need, ask the question, 'What can we do for you?', and we do it together." We were reminded that to be a reconciler, one must be willing to go where there is conflict and hostility. The ministry to which we are called is that of reconciliation - - and that is a double reconciliation - - to God and to our fellowman. Dr. Horne further stated that the work is too big for Baptists alone. We must reach out and take the hands of God's children regardless of their label.

50. Dr. Grigg presented the new associational officers. H. E. Barkley, Ardmore Church, is the new moderator.

51. The ninety-seventh session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk
Shirley C. Walker, Assistant Clerk

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Highlights of Executive Committee Meetings

JANUARY 4, 1982:

Action was taken after a recommendation from the Personnel Committee to terminate the employment of the Director of Missions-Ministries, Jim McDowell.

FEBRUARY 15, 1982:

Linda Fowler, WMU Director, made note of the fact that through its various activities the WMU had reached over 600 members during the last month. Action was taken to enter into an agreement with the Baptist Foundation that would allow the Association to operate the Redwine house for use by missionaries - in - residence.

APRIL 19, 1982:

After a called meeting March 9, 1982, the Personnel Committee recommended that we accept the resignation of Thurman Fox as Director of Missions. Motion to accept the recommendation was made and passed.

JUNE 21, 1982:

Dr. W. R. Grigg was selected as Interim Director of Missions. A Search Committee of 15 people was elected to search for a permanent Director of Missions.

AUGUST 16, 1982:

Irvin Grigg, Administrator of Main Street Baptist Church, gave a report of Lewis Ludlum, chairman of Church Extension Subcommittee. (Mr. Ludlum was attending Home Missions Conference at Ridgecrest.) The report pointed out the fine work that is being done by the members of Main Street Church and many other associational churches who have contributed financially. It was reported that "this movement may very well be our finest example in recent years of being our 'brother's brother.' " The Subcommittee urged the continued support of this fine work. Carlton Mitchell reported for the Strategy Planning Committee and made recommendations for the proper administration of the Redwine house (for use of missionaries-in-residence). A motion was made and passed to accept the recommendation of the Committee.

OCTOBER 11, 1982:

A motion was made and passed that an expression of appreciation be made to Peggy Hall at the Annual Meeting of the Association.

C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee met fourteen times during the year. The year was not an easy one for the committee nor for the Association. Jim McDowell, Director of Missions - Ministries; Thurman Fox, Executive Director of Missions; and Janice Messer, Office Secretary; resigned during the year.

Following Mr. Fox's resignation the committee recommended to the Executive Board that Dr. W. R. Grigg be asked to assume the responsibility of Interim Director of Missions. The recommendation was approved unanimously, and Dr. Grigg began his work June 22, 1982. Dr. Grigg has proven to be very effective in his work as Interim Director of Missions. His professional background, his acquaintance with many people in the Association, and his loving and positive spirit have enabled him to make invaluable contributions to our work.

Peggy Hall has continued to serve the Association effectively. We are deeply indebted to her. The Personnel Committee authorized Mrs. Hall to employ part-time secretarial help as needed until such time as it is appropriate to fill the position left vacant by Mrs. Messer.

The Personnel Committee, in response to an inquiry from the Search Committee, agreed on the following expectations as to future staff development:

Director of Missions
Director of Church Development
Director of Missions-Ministries

These additions to the staff will be made in light of apparent needs and availability of funds.

The Personnel Committee is grateful for the support and prayers of the Association.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. Wilson, Chairman

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Ordination Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received requests from four of our member churches and conducted examinations of their candidates for the ministry during the 1981-82 associational year. The candidates are as follows: Edwin Poindexter of Becks Baptist Church on January 3, 1982; James R. Rhodes, Jr., of Mineral Springs Baptist Church on June 27, 1982; Steve Loftis of Peace Haven Baptist Church on August 29, 1982; and Reggie Rushing of Crestwood Baptist Church on September 9, 1982. In each of these cases, after an extensive and satisfactory examination, the candidate was recommended to his church for ordination and subsequently the church has ordained him for the Gospel Ministry.

Inasmuch as the Association had no stated policy to guide the Ordination Committee in its work for several years, after consultation with others, the Ordination Committee formulated a policy by which it conducts its examination of candidates. This policy statement is given below in order that the Association may know of the procedure the committee follows.

ORDINATION COMMITTEE
STATEMENT OF POLICY AND PROCEDURES

> The responsibility of the Ordination Committee is to assist the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in examining candidates for ordination to the ministry. Ordination into the Baptist ministry concerns both the church which ordains and her sister churches because a candidate ordained by one church will presumably serve other churches and enjoy the public recognition afforded Baptist ministers. It is to be clearly understood, however, that the ordaining church is only seeking the advice and counsel of her sister churches through the Ordination Committee and that the ordaining church retains sole authority in determining whether a candidate is to be ordained. The Committee's function is to make a RECOMMENDATION to the ordaining church. The other purpose of the committee, as the committee views its own work, is to offer brotherly counsel to those who are just beginning their ministry.

OFFICE SEARCH COMMITTEE

It has been said that instead of referring to a baldheaded man as losing his hair, just say he is gaining more face. As chairman of the Office Search Committee, I have probably lost some more hair in trying to find a suitable site or building for a permanent associational headquarters.

However, we feel that anything worth having is worth working and waiting for. We thought that surely we would have a recommendation to present to you at this time. However, due to various reasons, we are not in a position to do so. We have looked at a number of sites but nothing has materialized. As you know, the associational ministry is classified under a different zone by the governing board than that of a church.

We feel that we need a site on a main thoroughfare, easily accessible, and preferably near our three hospitals. Of course, ample parking is also necessary and located in an area that any of you would feel safe in attending a night meeting.

Our committee, as you know, represents 26 of our churches and is divided into three sub-committees. Our justification or type program sub-committee chairman, Dr. Mark Corts, has made an extensive study in this area. The Site Committee led by Mr. Ed Collette has been very active in trying to locate a desirable place. We have also visited several associational offices during the year. Mr. Tom Lambe, chairman of our Finance Committee is working tirelessly with Mr. Collette in trying to find the proper location for us to present to the entire committee and then on to you. But, at this time, we have nothing concrete to offer. However, just this past week, two possible sites have come to light and are being pursued. We are now greatly encouraged and feel that something desirable may fall in place shortly.

A few days ago we wrote to our committee asking them to keep on the lookout for a site or sites possibly farther north or northwest from where we have been concentrating our efforts.

Let me assure you that the objections of neighbors to our locating in certain areas was in no way a reflection on our Association, but was due to their fear it may result in further rezoning in their neighborhood.

Just as soon as our committee locates the site we will present it to you for your approval and, in due time, a plan for financing will be presented. I can visualize having the site approved by the time our Search Committee presents to us our new Director of Missions. We will then move into a building program that we will be equally proud of. However, enough study has been made so that if the building site is secured earlier, we can move forward with the assistance of our most capable Interim Director. Please pray for our committee as we try to complete the task that you have assigned to us to do.

Sincerely submitted:
Troy Hamrick, Chairman

MAIN STREET BAPTIST CHURCH

For a long time Main Street Baptist Church had been threatened with a financial crisis. But, it was not until the summer of 1981 that bankruptcy proceedings were considered by their creditors. Their principal creditors were the Northwestern Bank and local people who had bought bonds, some of which had become overdue.

This unfortunate situation came to the attention of leaders of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. After considerable informal conversation and expressions of concern, a movement was begun, largely under the direction of Rev. Thurman Fox, associational Director of Missions, to solicit financial assistance from other Baptist churches, the Baptist State Convention in Raleigh, and concerned individuals in the community.

Informally, Mr. Irvin Grigg, an associational leader, a retired business man, and a member of another Baptist church, registered his interest in devoting considerable time, if needed, to help develop the movement and provide leadership for operating the church's financial program.

Based on this expression of deep concern on the part of Mr. Grigg, the associational Executive Committee, on September 24, 1981, voted to elect Mr. Grigg "as liaison between the Association and the Church to work with the church's finances."

Soon afterwards the church voted to elect Mr. Grigg as their Director of Church Finances. He chose to work without compensation. His services have proven to be invaluable.

As a fitting expression of concern and because of their desire to have a personal part in the movement, three or four retired ministers in the community, for several Sundays, conducted the worship services without financial compensation.

In the meantime, Mr. Grigg and Rev. Mr. Fox, in consultation with the association Church Extension Committee, developed a plan and organization to encourage all of our churches to help with the movement (results listed near the end of this report). A comprehensive letter was sent to all pastors characterizing participation in the movement as an opportunity to have a part in a very significant mission cause.

Seventeen "interpreters" were enlisted, with Lewis Ludlum as chairman, to assist, as needed, in interpreting the movement in the churches.

The comprehensive letter sent to all pastors on November 5, 1981, characterized the need and the opportunity as follows:

> "Real need . . . 30,000 people in the area . . . property valued at $450,000 - $500,000 . . . they are now a working group - growing again, giving well - with a good spirit . . . they deserve our support as a mission project . . . running a fine Day Care Program that is paying its own way . . . all have an ethical responsibility to help a sister church that is down . . . Brother Irvin Grigg is giving full time and his wealth of knowledge to the church . . . Brother Homer Good is preaching and receiving no compensation . . . they owe $100,017 to the Bank and $111,700 in long term bonds . . . money borrowed and past due bills come to $56,400 . . . in these days of "Bold Mission Thrust" and the emphasis on new churches, we sincerely believe that saving an existing church is of equal importance."

AS "LABORERS TOGETHER" HERE'S A PART OF THE LAST YEAR'S STORY:

Receipts from:

1.	Church Offerings	$ 54,427.53
2.	PMBA Churches	26,056.97
3.	Individual Gifts	26,224.00
4.	PMBA Treasury	1,535.33
5.	Baptist State Convention
	(1) Debt Retirement	$2,500.00

(2) Pastoral Assistance	2,400.00
TOTAL	$113,143.83

NEXT YEAR'S STORY WILL NEED TO INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

1. $24,500 to Northwestern Bank (on $94,817.00 indebtedness)
2. $22,728 to retire bonds

Churches are earnestly requested to continue their support for another year.

TRUSTEES REPORT

There has been repair and maintenance work done at the Redwine Missionary Home at 202 Wicklow Road in Winston-Salem. The house is in good condition except possibly within two years there will be a need for a new oil furnace.

There has also been quite a bit of repair and insulation work done at the Dan River Mission. This work was a necessity because no repairs have been made there in several years. Just the most needed basics were repaired at this time.

We would like to inform our churches of the other land/real estate we own:

1. Camp Retreat in Stokes County - almost bounded on three sides by Hanging Rock State Park. There are 46 acres in this camp area, with some valuable timber and pulp wood.
2. Four acres of real estate property on Romara Drive, off Jonestown Road in Forsyth County.
3. Five acres of real estate property on Hastings Hill Road, off the Old Greensboro Road in Forsyth County.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

This year the Woman's Missionary Union studied THE HISTORY OF WMU. As we learned of the women who had a part in organizing the first WMU, and trained leaders to keep the organization growing, we accepted the challenge to train the leaders in our Association.

Mission Friends leaders had a study on UNDERSTANDING PRESCHOOLERS. They also attended a Mission Friends Potpourri on how to use Mission Friends materials. We have 35 churches who reported Mission Friends organizations; 27 of these churches were represented for training this year.

Our Girls in Action had two overnights. One of these will be remembered by the snow covering the ground the next morning! Over 100 girls attended the two overnights. The GA's also enjoyed an associational GA camp with 102 girls attending.

The Acteens Associational Officers and Planning Group and Studiact Training Session was attended by 50 of our Acteens.

Baptist Young Women attended a Leadership Conference. Our BYW Director is excited about the growing interest among our Baptist Young Women.

The Baptist Women Council taught the BW Manual. There were 125 women who received credit for the study. The Baptist Women World Day of Prayer was held in ten different areas of our Association. We had 332 women taking part in this event. In preparation for the Foreign and Home Missions Weeks of Prayer, opportunity was given for sharing ideas. Mrs. Laura Fry Allen was guest speaker at the Fellowship Dinner in March. She also led an Evangelism Workshop the following day. Baptist Women also had a Prayer Retreat.

We are thankful for everyone who had a part in this year's activities. The total attendance for all WMU activities was 1,225. The total number of churches involved was 313. The Lord has blessed us this year in WMU.

STRATEGY PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Strategy Planning Committee began the associational year by continuing its collection of data needed for the publication of an associational self-study resource book. Subcommittees of the larger Steering Committee appointed in 1981 provided a large collection of resource material for this resource book. This material is now ready for final editing.

In response to a request from the Executive Committee of the Association, the Strategy Planning Committee prepared and presented recommendations pertaining to the Redwine Missionary House. These recommendations were adopted by the Executive Committee at its meeting in September, 1982.

There is now the need for the Strategy Planning Committee to move ahead with the implementation of the self-study program which has involved many persons in hundreds of hours of work.

CHURCH-COMMUNITY MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

One important change in our committee is its name. We are no longer called the Christian Social Ministries Committee. We are now the Church-Community Ministries Committee. We are still doing the same job - only our name has been changed.

We have made good use of the Missions Ministries survey form which was sent to all churches in the 1980-81 church year. The response was excellent with more than fifty percent responding. We were able to assess the needs of our area and churches and we have been working on these needs in order of priority.

Our committee has cared for the Saturday evening programs at the Forsyth Youth Detention Center by asking our churches to participate in this program. We are working with Paul Mullen, Forsyth Memorial Hospital Chaplain, to provide Sunday afternoon worship services at the Whitaker Care Center. We are also working with our North Carolina Baptist Children's Home, Thomasville, N.C., to provide more foster care homes in this area.

Pray for us as we strive to care for God's creatures and their needs.

MISSION CENTER COMMITTEE

The Mission Center Committee met during the year for the purpose of selecting a minister and looking at the work of the Dan River Mission.

Paul Hall, who had been serving the Mission since the Fall of 1981, was approved as the minister of the Mission.

The work at the Mission is progressing both from the standpoint of attendance and finances. They are now in the process of beginning a new Sunday School class for children.

The ceiling of the sanctuary has been insulated along with other repairs to the building.

The volunteer chaplaincy program at the Hospital is still in operation but there is the need for more volunteers.

Paul and his wife, Peggy, are to be congratulated for the excellent work they are doing at the Mission and in the community; they have been well received by both.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The associational recreation program is growing both in participation and interest. In the Basketball program we had 5 teams in the Girls League, 10 teams in the High School Boys League, 10 teams in the Pioneer League, and 9 Crusader teams. The season began in December and concluded with a tournament in March. The tournament champs in their respective leagues were: College Park - Girls; Becks - High School Boys; Calvary - Pioneer; Oaklawn - Crusader. Thanks to the Becks Baptist Church for their cooperative and generous spirit in making their gym available.

The Softball program had good participation and excellent leadership from Everette Harris, the Softball Commissioner. The top teams in the League were: First place - Calvary; Second place - Union Grove.

This recreation program provides an excellent opportunity for church ministry and growth. I hope more churches will participate next year.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

The major thrust in evangelism this year was the Here's Hope Simultaneous Crusades. In preparation for the crusade the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association sponsored a People Search in January. Three WIN Schools were conducted in March. Our suggested crusade dates were April 4-18. Almost one half of the churches in the Association conducted revivals during one or the other of the two weeks. No accurate statistics are available on decisions made during the crusade, but some glowing reports have been received about successes in reaching people for Christ. The pastors and evangelists met for two inspiring Prayer Breakfasts during the crusades.

In 1982-83 we focus attention on church growth. The major event on our evangelism calendar will be a "Growing An Evangelistic Church" seminar scheduled for April 25-27, 1983. Frank Crumpler of the Home Mission Board will be assisting the N. C. Division of Evangelism staff in the five-hour seminar. Every pastor is encouraged to make plans to attend, along with others from the church.

MINISTER'S WIVES

The Minister's Wives of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association had a very good year.

Our first meeting of the 1981-82 year was in September, 1981 at Knollwood Baptist Church with a catered dinner and a time of fellowship.

In December we met with our husbands along with the Black Ministers and their wives for an annual joint meeting and luncheon. This was a most enjoyable meeting for a large number of ministers and wives.

In February, 1982 we enjoyed the Valentine Banquet in the Magnolia Room at Wake Forest University. We always look forward to this time of fun, fellowship, and feasting with our husbands.

Our other meetings throughout the year were varied and each one was very interesting and enjoyed by those who attended.

In May we always enjoy our covered dish luncheon at the home of Martha Carr. This brings to a close our meetings for the year, as we always have the summer months off.

These meetings are for all ministers' wives in our Association and our purpose is (1) to promote fellowship; (2) to provide opportunities for friendship, learning, and service; and (3) to share, listen, and encourage one another.

Officers for the 1982-83 year:

President - Martha Curlee, Glenn View
Vice-President - Margaret Guthrie, Union Hill
Secretary, Treasurer, & Historian - Kay Garrison, Quaker Gap

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The financial records of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the year beginning November 1, 1980, and ending October 31, 1981, were audited as required.

Auditing procedures for expenditures consisted of a review of a random sample of expense vouchers for proper authorization. These vouchers were then compared to the associational books for accuracy in amounts, categorization, and date.

A random sample of receipts from member churches was traced to the associational books to ascertain accuracy in recording amounts and identity of donors.

Account balances with Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and Dean Witter Reynolds were found to correspond with balances shown in the associational records.

The audit of the associational financial records found no significant problems in the areas examined or material weaknesses in overall internal control. It is the opinion of the committee that the financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association as of October 31, 1981, and the changes in their financial position for the year then ended.

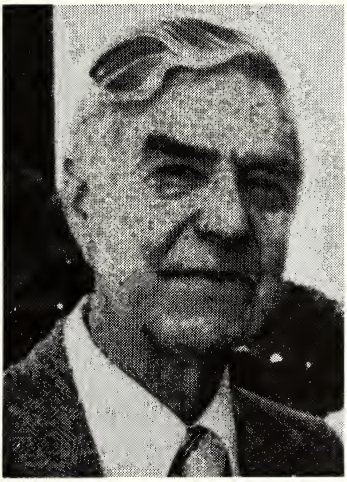
Dedication



DR. WILLIAM KAY McGEE

"William Kay McGee's lifestyle was straight out of the kingdom of God." So stated his pastor, Dr. Charles Edwards, at a memorial service held for Dr. McGee at College Park Baptist Church in Winston-Salem on Sunday, June 19, 1983. Dr. McGee had died the preceding Friday evening after a brief illness.

He was born January 11, 1900, in Anderson County, South Carolina, where he spent his early years. He graduated from Furman University and, after receiving his Th.M. and Ph.D. degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he came to North Carolina where he served as a "three-career minister."

For 15 years, he was a Baptist pastor serving at the Hocut Memorial Baptist Church in Burlington and later at the First Baptist Church in Thomasville. In both of these congregations and communities, he gained a reputation as an effective preacher/teacher, a caring pastor, and a dedicated denominational leader.

From 1946 until 1972 he was director of Denominational Relations at North Carolina Baptist Hospital. In this capacity, he traveled thousands of miles, delivered hundreds of addresses, and interrelated with numerous Baptist pastors and lay people in his efforts to gain support for the ministry of the hospital. He was affectionately known in Baptist circles across the state as "Mr. Baptist Hospital."

After retiring from the hospital staff in 1972, he devoted his energies to the chaplaincy ministry of the Forsyth County Prison System. From 1977 until his death he was president of the Forsyth Prison Chaplaincy Council. He was active in the Yokefellow Prison Ministry, and it was while fulfilling his duties in this role that he became ill just a few hours prior to his death.

During his years in Winston-Salem, Dr. McGee was active in Baptist churches where he held membership-first at Ardmore and later at College Park. He also served Pilot Mountain Association in many capacities, including that of interim director of Christian Social Ministries. He was a member of the Search Committee for a Director of Missions at the time of his death.

Dr. McGee is survived by his wife, Mrs. Velma Preslar McGee; four daughters; seven grandchildren; and five brothers.

Proceedings

of the 1983 Sessions

of the

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

October 18, 1983

Theme: "New Beginnings"

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The afternoon session of the 98th annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was convened at 3:00 p.m. at College Park Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina by the Moderator, H. E. Barkley.

2. Dan Pardue, Clemmons, First, directed the singing of the hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" followed by scripture reading by Mary Berridge, Bethania, Roy Little, Oak Grove, led the opening prayer.

3. C. Irvin Grigg, associational clerk, was recognized and moved that the 231 messengers already registered and those yet to be registered this afternoon and evening constitute this the 98th annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

4. Order of Business Committee Chairman, J. L. Wilson, moved that the printed program and any changes deemed necessary by the moderator be the program for this 98th session.

5. Charles Edwards, host church pastor, brought words of welcome to the group.

6. Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch Baptist Church, was recognized for her attendance at this meeting, making the 48th session at which she has been present. The moderator also recognized other special guests.

7. George Shore brought greetings and a report from the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and the convention staff. He pointed out that of all Bold Mission Thrust goals, only the goal for giving to associational missions had been reached. He also pointed out that in 1982 significant progress was made toward reaching these goals. He challenged our association to join with all other associations to promote a Sunday School enlargement campaign. For 20 years, he pointed out, we almost stopped starting new churches. This last year, however, 19 new churches were constituted in our state. We were reminded of the importance of reaching our North Carolina Missions offering goal. He asked for our continued and earnest prayer support.

8. Executive Committee Chairman, Boyce Wilson, brought the Executive Committee report as printed in the Book of Reports and moved its adoption.

9. Fred Merkert, Seminary Extension Director, presented his report as printed in the Book of Reports and moved its adoption.

10. Cecil Cave brought the report of the Ordination Committee as printed in the Book of Reports. In addition, he pointed out the importance of this committee and reported that this committee had examined five persons seeking ordination during the last year. He ended his report by reading scripture beginning with Acts 2:14.

11. Associational Historian, Lewis Ludlum, presented his report as given in the Book of Reports.

12. W. R. Grigg brought the report from the Memorials Committee. Tribute was paid to 228 members of Pilot Mountain Association churches who have gone to that "house not made with hands" since last year's annual meeting. Ten of these were deacons; six were ordained ministers, four of which were at one time pastors in this association: Charles Burchette, T. G. New, Jr.; O. E. Snow, and Herbert Caudle; Robert Gardner, pastor in the State, and Dr. W. K. McGee, pastor and denominational servant.

Special tribute was paid Dr. W. K. McGee. "How do you describe Dr. W. K. McGee, whom the Lord saw fit to remove from our ranks in recent days? The following phrase is an effort - a servant of God and a friend of mankind.' But Jesus did it perfectly when speaking of Nathaniel - 'a man in whom there is no guile.'

"Probably no person has meant more for righteousness to his family, to the communities where he lived, to the churches, to Christian institutions, for the welfare of people, or to the Kingdom of God than this good man. For him and his long life to God we all give thanks.

"In the pastorate, as church and denominational liason with Baptist Hospital, or with the Forsyth Prison Chaplaincy Council, or whatever other service he rendered he was constantly aware of Jesus' words, 'In as much as you have done it unto one of the least of these, you have done it to me.'

"His life will be an unending inspiration to us all from this time henceforth."

Dr. Grigg moved that the 1983 minutes be dedicated to Dr. McGee.

A period of silent prayer was observed followed by an audible prayer led by Dr. Grigg in memory of all who have died this year.

13. A motion was made and seconded that all the above reports be accepted. The motion passed. (Items 3, 4, 8, 9, 12 above)

14 Ed Stines came before the group to thank them for the spiritual and financial aid given during the past two years to Main Street Baptist Church in Kernersville. This has been one of the finest examples available showing associational missions and Christian caring at work.

15. Special music was provided by a quartet from the Ministers of Music Conference.

16. Three of our Baptist State Convention institutions are located in our association. They were recognized for reports.

(1) Henry Stokes, Wake Forest University Director of Denominational Relations, introduced the University's new president, Dr. Thomas K. Hearn, Jr. Dr. Hearn pointed out the excitement of serving Baptist and the University in this capacity.

Our Baptist heritage is central to the University, he stated. He pledged to continue the 150-year-old constructive relationship with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

(2) Bob Buchanan, in the absence of Calvin Knight who was attending another associational meeting, brought a report from North Carolina Baptist Hospital (See Book of Reports).

He pointed out that the current staff is very much aware of the original purpose of the hospital set forth by the Convention in 1923-that healing be influenced by the truly "Great Healer."

(3) Bill Poole brought a report from the North Carolina Baptist Homes (See Book of Reports). In addition, he expressed his sincere thanks for the support of Baptists and joined George Shore in urging dedicated financial support for the North Carolina Missions Offering. He further stated that the age group being served is the largest growing segment of our nation's population and that we Baptists cannot properly serve this growing group without increasing our support.

17. The messengers and visitors joined in singing, "For the Beauty of the Earth."

18. Charles Walker, associational treasurer, gave the financial report as presented in the Book of Reports.

19. Mary Bullard brought the Media Library report as presented in the Book of Reports. In addition she called attention to the many plans for the coming year.

20. Beth Anderson reported for Woman's Missionary Union as printed in the Book of Reports. She recognized those who work and are members of W.M.U. by having them stand. The number of people standing compared to those seated was indeed a graphic illustration of the involvement of W.M.U. in the work of our association. If we are to realize the goals of Bold Mission Thrust we must be responsive to all opportunities of missions.

21. Marion Rector reported for the Evangelism Committee. This report will be included in the 1983 Minutes. He pointed out that 11 churches have doubled baptisms from 1977 to 1982. He asked that representatives from these churches come forward to receive certificates from the Baptist State Convention. The churches are: Antioch, Becks, College Park, Fellowship, Konnoak, Kernersville, First, Oak Grove, Pilot Mountain, First, Quaker Gap, Red Bank and Stoney Ridge.

22. John Jones, pastor of the Spanish people, based at Union Grove Church, brought a report on this work. He showed slides of the various programs which have been provided for the migrants. Some of these are worship services, food fellowship, sports, food banks, clothes closet, and special activities like Fiesta, Vacation Bible School, Back Yard Bible studies, Day Camp, and Zoo Day.

With the crops harvested and most of the migrants having moved to other places, the focus of the work has shifted to the over 1,500 Spanish residents of our county. Efforts are underway to locate these people through census reports, phone books and city directories. Mr. Jones expressed his excitement about the high possibility of establishing the first Spanish Southern Bapitst Church in Forsyth County. He expressed his appreciation for the support of the association and encouraged that this support continue because of the great need to reach these people.

23. W.R. Grigg presented Egbert Davis to report on ACTS - a program of the Southern Baptist Convention Radio and TV Commission. Starting in 1984, 16 hours per day of wholesome TV programming via satellite will become available. If we are to have this service, a group of churches must have: (1) An awareness meeting (held October 10, 1983) with 10 churches in attendance. Another meeting is scheduled during early November. (2) An endeavor will be made, after a 90-day waiting period, to make arrangements with Summit Cable to carry this programming. If interested, please attend the November meeting which will be announced soon.

24. All those in attendance joined in singing the hymn, "A Charge to Keep I Have."

25. W.R. Grigg, speaking on the theme "New Beginnings: Where, When, and How" challenged the association as he reviewed the constitutional objectives and purposes of our association:

(1) To foster fellowship;
(2) To promote unity of faith and practice;
(3) To give and to receive assistance in achieving the purposes of the member churches;
(4) To engage in direct cooperative mission activities which cannot be accomplished by one church acting alone;
(5) To further the spirit of cooperation with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and with the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. Gregg pointed out that we do this through programs and committees. We need to continually stress our educational programs (teaching and training); moral, spiritual, and financial support for pastors and other staff members. We are far behind on our Christian Community Missions efforts. There is also need for a decided increase in gifts from the churches to adequately support the budget adopted at this annual meeting for 1983-84. There will be need for at least $25,000 more money for the new year than has been given during 1982-83.

Two areas of need, in addition to the above, require our immediate attention. These are the declining established churches and the areas that need new missions and/or new churches. Only four churches have been organized within the past 10-year period. The fruit of a church is another church.

26. The afternoon session was adjourned with the benediction pronounced by Ray Hamilton

EVENING SESSION

27. Preservice music was provided by the youth handbell choir from Clemmons, First. Jane Pardue, organist, opended the evening session with the prelude followed by the choral call to worship sung by the Clemmons First Chancel Choir. Dan Pardue directed the congregation in singing the hymn, "Praise to the Lord the Almighty." Robert Cantwell, Clemmons, First led the opening prayer.

28. New ministers in the association since last annual meeting were introducted by Boyce Wilson. They are: Mary Berridge, Bethania; Robert Cantwell, Clemmons, First; Ray Hamilton, Konnoak; Ed Stines, Main Street; Rick Allison, Mountain View; Roy Little, Oak Grove; Williams Yates, Pfafftown; Herman Kitchen, Stoney Ridge; Sydney Goldfinch, Walnut Cove, First. New staff members in the association were also recognized.

29. Chalres Whitley, an alumnus and trustee of Chowan College, spoke briefly concerning the need for continued support in encouraging youth to enroll at Chowan.

30. W.R. Grigg moved the election of the officers of the association as presented by the Nominating Committee in the Book of Reports. There was a second, and the motion was approved.

31. Neal Eller, chairman of the Committee on Committees, moved the acceptance of the report of this committee as given in the Book of Reports. There was a second and the motion was approved.

32. Mark Corts reported for the Office Survey and Planning Committee. He gave a brief overview of the work from its beginning in April 1971. In late 1980 this committee was reactived and the Executive Committee approved expanded responsibilities of the committee to be: (1) Justification of the need for an associational building; (2) determining type and size of building needed; (3) locating a suitable site; and (4) recommending a method of financing. Three subcommittees were appointed from the larger committee: Justification Subcommittee chaired by Mark Corts; Finance Subcommittee chaired by Tom Lambe; and the Location/Building Subcommittee chaired by Ed Collette. The Justification Subcommittee completed its work by August 3, 1981.

Ed Collette, chairman of the Location/Building Subcommittee, reported that his group began looking at sites immediately to accomodate the size of building recommended by the Justification Subcommittee. The looking continued until this summer when a lot located on Long Drive off University Parkway was located. This property contains a 2+ acres with 410 foot front and is presently zoned residental. In July the subcommittee voted unanimously to recommend to the entire committee that steps be taken to purchase this property at a cost of $35,000 if the rezoning request is granted. In August the full committee approved the subcommittee's recommendation and the Executive Committee at its August meeting approved the following: (1) that we enter into a contract to buy the property at $35,000; (2) that we employ an attorney to handle the rezoning request. D. Barrett Burge was subsequently employed to file the rezoning request; (3) that we employ an architect for a fee of $200.00 to prepare site and building plans necessary for filing petition for rezoning. J. Aubrey Kirby has been employed to handle this.

Mr. Burge filed the request for rezoning in September. However, a 60-day delay has occurred because of the possibility that Silas Creek Parkway might be extended through this property. This rezoning request will be pursued as expeditiously as possible.

Mr. Collette also reported that the Finance Subcommittee is considerating the financing of the project but no definite plans have been made at this time.

33. Finance Committe Chairman, Amis Daniel, moved the adoption of the 1983-84 proposed budget in the amount of $131,561.00. A second was received and the motion was approved. Mr. Daniel also expressed his concern that this association support the ministries represented by this budget. He challlenged those present to insure that their churches budget more money for associational ministries.

34. Carlton Mitchell, Stewardship Committee Chairman, presented available literature for stewardship promotion in the churches. He also presented certificates to churches as follows:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we the messengers of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association offer our full and hearty commendation to the members of the Search Committee for their faithful service.

36. C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk, reported a total of 281 messengers and 65 visitors from 62 churches had registered for the annual meeting.

37. Appreciation was expressed by the moderator to the office staff - Peggy Hall, Helen Johnson and Marjorie Turner.

38. The Chancel Choir from Clemmons, First presented special music, "God of Grace and God of Glory."

39. Boyce Wilson, chairman of the Executive Committee, brought an unanimous endorsement of the motion brought by the Search Committee to call James V. Hamblen as Director of Missions of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

40. Paul Wonders, chairman of the Search Committee, recognized and thanked the members of his committee. Special recognition was given to the late Dr. W.K. McGee, who served a year on this committee before his death. Mr. Wonders reported that on September 6, 1983 the Search Committee met with Mr. and Mrs. Hamblen and after that meeting the committee voted unanimously and enthusiastically that Mr. Hamblen be recommended to the Executive Committee as Director of Missions of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. On September 26, 1983 the Executive Committee voted unanimously that the call be extended to Mr. Hamblen. Mr. Wonders moved that James V. Hamblen be called as Director of Missions of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Mr. and Mrs. Hamblen were introduced to the annual meeting. Boyce Wilson noted that November 16, 1983 would be the effective date for his coming to work. A second was received and the vote of the messengers was unanimous.

41. Mr. Hamblen responded to the annual meeting by expressing thanks for the confidence placed in him. He also expressed appreciation to the Search Committee, W.R. Grigg, and Lewis Ludlum. Referring to II Chronicles 15:12 and II Corinthians 5:17, Mr. Hamblen spoke of entering into a covenant with this association. He covenanted to walk by faith commitment, instructed by His Word, empowered by His Spirit; to grow and try to mature as a person; to be open to correction, to be accountable, to remove barriers between us; to risk a loving relationship; to be responsible for successes and failures; to resist the temptation of false modesty and personal pride; to serve as a "servant-leader." He also expressed his dreams for the association.

42. George Shore of the Baptist State Convention staff brought the charge to the association. He called attention to the fact that as Christian people we are on the eve of our greatest opportunity to share Jesus Christ. As an association, we are on the eve of our greatest opportunity, our finest hour. It is a new beginning, a new day. The association is a primary unit for mission strategy. The Director of Missions is a mission strategist, a shepherd of the pastors and churches, the leader of the leaders. He urged that the association not let all the activities and ministries fall on the Director of Missions; but rather that we support him and pray for him. Now is the time and this is the place for us to take seriously as churches, as pastors, the Bold Mission Thrust.

43. W.R. Grigg presented the new associational officers as listed in the Book of Reports. J.L. Wilson led in a prayer of dedication.

44. The closing hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," was directed by Dan Pardue.

45. David Morrow made the motion to adjourn at 9:00 p.m. and Paul Wonders led in the benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk
Shirley Walker, Assistant Clerk

Executive Committee

Highlights of Committee Meetings

FEBRUARY 21, 1983

Action was taken to support the recommendation of the Church Extension Committee that the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association assume primary sponsorship of a mission to Spanish-speaking people in the Triad area. The committee accepted the motion presented by the Finance Committee to fund the Spanish Mission through the sale of a travel trailer owned by the association and through the unused portion of salaries for the Executive Director of Missions and the unspecified staff member.

APRIL 18, 1983

Action was taken to retain the Camp Retreat property until such time as the trustees, along with a committee appointed by the chairman, shall present to the Executive Committee a plan for development and cost thereof.

The following recommendations of the Associational Council were accepted for further action:

(1) That we proceed with the plan for writing a history of the Pilot Mountain Association as as outlined by Lewis Ludlum, Historian, and that the necessary people be enlisted to do the research for this history.

(2) That we exercise Option 6 in the legal agreement with the North Carolina Baptist Foundation regarding the Redwine missionary home. Option 6 states: "The party of the second part may terminate this contract and agreement at any time upon duly written notice to the party of the first part."

JUNE 20, 1983

The committee approved the following persons to serve on the Camp Retreat Property Ad Hoc Committee: Lewis Ludlum, Amis Daniel, Henry Lankford, Ira Tedder, and Wiley Jones.

Mr. Lewis Ludlum, Historian, reported that Mr. Allen Easley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warfford, Mrs. Tom Lawrence, Mrs. L.L. Tocce, and Rev Tom Carter have been enlisted to do the research and that his committee is working on getting someone to do the final writing of the History of the Pilot Mountain Association. The names of the researchers were officially accepted.

A period of silent prayer was observed in memory of Dr. W.K. McGee.

AUGUST 15, 1983

Approval was granted to the Office Survey and Planning Committee to purchase 2.05 acres on Long Drive and employ an attorney to handle all legal work and guide the association in its effort to have the property rezoned.

Upon the recommendations of the Associational Council, the committee took action to sponsor a Seminary Extension Center to be called the Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical Studies.

Action was taken to accept the proposed 1983-1984 budget as presented by the Finance Committee with final approval to be made at the annual meeting of the Association.

SEPTEMBER 26, 1983

The committee endorsed the recommendations of the Church Extension Committee to receive Union Baptist Church under watchcare for one year. The church, located on Northwest Boulevard, Winston-Salem, was chartered in 1922 and currently has 1,200 members. Formal approval will be sought at the annual meeting of the Association.

The Director of Missions Search Committee, after an extensive and exhaustive process, recommended that the Reverend James V. Hamblen of the Home Mission Board staff in Atlanta, Georgia, be called as the Director of Missions of the association. Reverend Mr. Hamblen spoke briefly and responded to questions. The Executive Committee unanimously endorsed Reverend Mr. Hamblen. Final approval will be made by the messengers at the annual meeting of the association.

DAN RIVER MISSION

Electric baseboard heat and ceiling insulation have been installed in the basement Sunday School rooms at Dan River Mission in Stokes County. The furnace was not adequate to heat both the basement and sanctuary.

REDWIND MISSIONARY HOME

The Redwine missionary home, located at 202 Wicklow Road in Forsyth County, Winston-Salem, has been returned to the Baptist State Foundation. This was voted on by the Executive Committee in its April 18 meeting. We were having problems finding missionaries on furlough to occupy the home at all times, which in turn created problems with our insurance, taxes, vandalism, repairs, etc. It was a lot of expense with all the upkeep. Money we originally invested in the home has been returned to the Pilot Mountain Association.

PROPERITIES, REAL ESTATE

Romara Drive: We have four acres of real estate property on Romara Drive, Winston-Salem, Forsyth County, North Carolina, off Jonestown Road. Hastings Hill Road: We also have five acres of real estate property on Hastings Hill Road, Winston-Salem, Forsyth County, North Carolina, off Old Greensboro Road. Camp Retreat: We have 46 acres of real estate property located in Stokes County, North Carolina, bounded on three sides by Hanging Rock State Park. After an inspection tour of Camp Retreat by the trustees, we recommended to the Executive Committee that we keep the property for the time being. We also recommended that we explore the idea of some type of redevelopment. The recommendation was approved by the Executive Committee in session and a committee was formed to look into the possibilities. This property is very valuable real estate. There have been quite a few people interested in buying it. We feel this property should be used in some way to our best advantage. The Camp Retreat Committee is made up of members Henry W. Lankford, Ira Tedder, Wiley Jones, Lewis Ludlum, and Amis Daniel.

Woman's Missionary Union

As Director of Woman's Missionary Union for this year, I have had the privilege of working with a deeply committed council of age level directors and assistants, as well as the dedicated leaders and members of our churches in our association. I am most thankful for their leadership, support, and cooperation.

Our theme for the year has been "Life-Changing Accountability." As this theme has been developed throughout the year, the leaders and members have been encouraged to examine their personal accountability for prayer support, stewardship, Bible study, mission action, and involvements in missions.

The basic aims for the associational W.M.U. program have centered around training for leaders and members, inspiration, fellowship, opportunities for cooperative mission action, and assistance to the churches as requested. Although "numbers" do not speak for the individual commitments which have been made, these are offered as a record of the willingness of our women and children to participate in activities offered by the association:

74 churches in the Association
60 churches have at least one W.M.U. organization
50 churches have participated in at least one activity
15 activities were sponsored by W.M.U. (B.W., B.Y.W., Acteens, G.A.s, Mission Friends)
1250 participants (approximately)

The new theme for 1983-84 is "Partnership in Prayer and Ministry." We, as members and leaders of Woman's Missionary Union, pledge to the churches our support as we seek to further the outreach of the church through missions. The associational W.M.U. Council is available to assist the churches.

Brotherhood

This past year marked the 75th anniversary of the Baptist Men's organization. We have been challenged to involve and motivate men and boys to organize new units and to become more active in mission study, mission action, and witnessing. A training film, entitled, "75th Anniversary," is available for Baptist Men. It can be obtained by writing or calling the Brotherhood Department, Baptist State Convention. Your association has self-help kits for organizing new units and training leadership in local churches. This year the W.M.U and Brotherhood will have joint seminars and training for leadership in the association.

Listed are some activities your associational Brotherhood leadership participated in during the past year.

November 13-14, 1982 - North Carolina Baptist Men's State Convention, Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina. The theme for the meeting was "How God Uses Men." Several prominent men gave their testimony. It was a time of inspiration and fellowship.

January 10, 1983 - We attended a meeting at First Baptist Church, Greensboro, sponsored by Piedmont Baptist Men's Fellowship. This was a study of mission emphases and group training for Baptist Men's program in the local church.

February 18-20, 1983 - Attended the North Carolina Baptist Men's Executive Committee semiannual meeting at Caraway. The leaders of our 14 State Ministries gave their reports. It should be of interest to our association that these ministries are available to our association by contacting the NCBM office.

March 14, 1983 - We attended a meeting for the Fifth Regional Council at Greensboro YMCA. We were challenged to help restore Camp Caswell and were assigned a building.

March 25-27, 1983 - The Pioneer Royal Ambassador Congress was held on the campus of Wake Forest University. Bobby Blakely of Crestwood Baptist Church presented a slide program on Mountain State 200. The previous year we helped in building a church at Capon Bridge, West Virginia. The Pioneers were active in this program.

May 9-11, 1983 - At Ridgecrest we received training for Key Leadership. The theme for this year's program was "Developing Believers."

August 5-6, 1983 - Caraway training for R.A.s and Baptist Men.

September 12, 1983 - A joint meeting with the W.M.U. and Baptist Men Leadership training.

September 30-October 8, 1983 - We helped the W.M.U. in manning our association's booth at the Forsyth County Fair.

Church Training

Church Training for this year saw an increase of activity, as the year began with an associational meeting of pastors and church training directors, or other interested persons. This meeting, led by state Church Training Department personnel, was well attended, and gave insight and encouragement to leadership.

A second big emphasis in Church Training was the Children's Bible Drills. Nine young people worked very hard to prepare themselves and qulaified in the Associational Bible Drill held at Calvary Baptist Church, making them eligible to go to the State Bible Drills in Asheboro, North Carolina. Of the seven from our association who did go to the State Bible Drill, five of these qualified as state winners of the Children's Bible Drill.

This year, also, six new Equipping Center modules have been purchased for use in our associational churches. These are available on a check out basis, and can be reserved through the associational office.

Our association has been challenged to begin four new church training organizations in associational churches. The State Convention has agreed to provide materials for the beginning quarter, and Materials Services in Nashville, Tennessee, will provide $60.00 credit toward church training literature for new church training organizations.

We look forward to another good year of church training growth and emphasis during 1983-1984.

Seminary Extension

This past year saw our association launch into a "new" field of theological education called Seminary Extension. Although introduced to the Southern Baptist Convention several years ago, 1983 became our entry time into this exciting world of religious education.

Earlier in this year the Executive Committee approved the beginning of Seminary Extension work with the appointment of Dr. Fred Merkert, pastor of Westview, to be the new director. The name "Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical Studies" was adopted. Target groups for primary involvement were selected. These groups were to be pastors and staff without seminary or a seminary degree, ministers' spouses, and those feeling called into Christian service. The Seminary Extension program has NOT been initially opened to laity at large. This we hope will come later, along with courses to be offered in our prison. Classes are to be scheduled on Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. and will meet at the Knollwood Church. Each course will be offered on a college-level, will cost approximately $35.00 and will be required to meet a minimum of 18 hours.

During the year the new director attended the Key Leadership Conference (for Seminary Extension) held at Ridgecrest and spoke to both the Ministers' Conference and Ministers' Spouses as regards to the new program.

Evangelism Committee

The seminar on "Growing an Evangelistic Church" was the major training event in the area of evangelism this year. The two-day course was taught by Frank Crumpler, who developed the program for the Home Mission Board, and Victor Cole of the State Evangelism Department. Ten churches were represented at the April 25-26 meeting held at Ardmore Baptist Church.

Next spring, the Evangelism Division of the Baptist State Convention will be assisting us in teaching the basics of how to have a good church revival. This "refresher course" should be helpful to pastors and laymen alike. The time and place have not been set.

We congratulate those churches in our association who experienced marked increases in baptisms this year. May their number increase.

Ordination Committee

The Ordination Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received requests from five of our member churches and conducted examinations of their candidates for the ministry during the 1982-83 associational year. The candidates are as follows: Timothy Wayne Cearley of the Lewisville Baptist Church on November 11, 1983; Zane Kevin Reavis of the Union Cross Baptist Church on November 18, 1982; Christopher Mark Ayers of the First Baptist Church of Clemmons on February 21, 1983; John Jones of the Union Grove Baptist Church on May 10, 1983; and Mary C. Berridge of the Bethania Baptist Church on September 8, 1983. In each of these cases, after an extensive and satisfactory examination, the candidate was recommended to his/her church for ordination and, subsequently, the church has ordained him/her for the Gospel Ministry.

Inasmuch as the association had no stated policy to guide the Ordination Committee in its work for several years, after consultation with others, the Ordination Committee formulated a policy by which it conducts its examination of candidates. This policy statement is given below in order that the association may know of the procedure the committee follows.

ORDINATION COMMITTEE
STATEMENT OF POLICY AND PROCEDURES

The responsibility of the Ordination Committee is to assist the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in examining candidates for ordination to the ministry. Ordination into the Baptist ministry concerns both the church which ordains and her sister churches because a candidate ordained by one church will presumably serve other churches and enjoy the public recognition afforded Baptist ministers. It is to be clearly understood, however, that the ordaining church is only seeking the advice and counsel of her sister churches through the Ordination Committee and that the ordaining church retains sole authority in determining whether a candidate is to be ordained. The Committee's function is to make a RECOMMENDATION to the ordaining church. The other purpose of the committee, as the committee views its own work, is to offer brotherly counsel to those who are just beginning their ministry.

Historian

Plans for writing a history of the first 100 years of the Pilot Mountain Baptist association were launched in 1981 when Thurman Fox invited seven or eight veteran associational leaders to his office for a reminiscing and brainstorming session. We talked mostly about some things we remembered and about what we thought the history should contain.

In the 1983 winter session of the associational Executive Committee Rev. Lewis Ludlum was elected historian. At the 1983 spring session the Historian presented a cooperative plan for producing the history, which involves enlistment of seven researchers and employment of someone to write the history.

At the autumn Executive Committee meeting Mr. Ludlum made the following progress report:

1. The following have been enlisted as researchers and given assignments arranging from 10-20 years: Dr. Allen Easley, Rev. Walter Warfford, Mrs. Hilda Warfford, Mrs. Tom Lawrence, Mrs. L.L. Tocce, Mrs. Helen Johnson, and Rev. Tom Carter.

2. Practically 2½ sets of associational minutes, in addition to the full set at the North Carolina Baptist History Collection, have been procured and placed at three convenient locations - the associational office, First Baptist Church, and Ardmore Baptist Church.

3. Guidance literature for writing Baptist history has been procured from the Southern Baptist Historical Commission in Nashville, Tennessee.

4. A tentative series of conferences has been agreed on for communication between the researchers and the writer.

5. A tentative production and completion schedule has been agreed on.

6. A tentative plan for financing the publication project has been agreed on involving income from three sources as follows: (1) 1983-1984 associational budget, (2) 1984-1985 associational budget, and (3) sale of printed histories.

7. A search is under way for a writer, to whom we propose to pay a modest honorarium.

Office Survey and Planning Committee

For several years the Office Survey and Planning committee has worked tirelessly searching for the office or site that you would appreciate. Now we are in the process of trying to secure the property that we are certain will please in every way.

We have an option on slightly over two acres with over 400 foot road frontage that is most desirable. An attorney has been secured and is preparing the proper approach to adjoining property owners and from there to the Planning Board.

The architect is planning the building and grounds with the assistance and advice of our three subcommittee chairmen.

You will be informed of plans as they develop. With your prayers, cooperation, and assistance we hope our dream of an associational home will become a reality in the not-too-distant future.

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship Committee sponsored a Bold Mission Stewardship Conference at Knollwood Baptist Church on April 7 in cooperation with the Stewardship Division of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Approximately 65 people representing a third of the churches in the association attended and heard an address by Talmadge Williams, director of Stewardship Development. Stewardship materials were distributed and plans for the future development of the Bold Misson Thrust were discussed. The chairman, Carlton Mitchell, attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May.

Eleven churches will receive certificates at this annual meeting of the association for reaching Bold Mission Phase I goals in the areas of church receipts and Cooperative Program giving.

Churches are encouraged to observe Cooperative Program Day on April 15, 1984 with appropriate programs enphasizing our mission at home and abroad. The 1984-85 Convention-wide stewardship and Cooperative Program theme is "Give Boldly: Demonstrating My Growing Commitment (II Cor. 8:1-5)."

It is anticipated that the Stewardship Committee will be much busier during the coming year as the denomination moves into a long-range program of stewardship development.

Personnel Committee

During the past year, the Personnel Committee has served as part of the Director of Missions Search Committee. This has involved many hours in meetings; however, it has been a meaningful and interesting opportunity for service. The committee has maintained contact with the present associational staff, and we are now in the process of making plans to assist the new Director of Missions.

We are grateful to Dr. W.R. Grigg for his leadership and assistance as Interim Director of Missions. He has worked faithfully with committees and organizational leaders in helping our association continue in ministry.

Peggy Hall, secretary in the associational office, continues to serve in her efficient manner, and the Personnel Committee is grateful for her assistance in the past year. Mrs. Hall has been able to secure part-time help in the associational office as needed.

The Personnel Committee is grateful for the opportunity to serve and for the support of the Association.

Church Extension Committee

Dr. James L. Jarrard, pastor of the Union Grove Church, was elected chairman of this committee for the year 1982-1983. About April 1, 1983 he was called by the Immanuel Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina to be its pastor and, therefore, left our association.

The Committee on Committees asked W.R. Grigg to serve as chairman of the committee until the end of the associational year.

During the year the committee has met six times. Dr. Ernest Upchurch, Consultant for Church and Associational Surveys, was asked to survey the Pilot Mountain Association to discover the needs for new churches and missions. It was discovered that we have need for at least eleven new churches and four missions within the geographical area of the association. Becks Church has been asked to look into one area.

The committee has cooperated with the Union Grove Church and the State Convention in giving assistance to stabilizing the Spanish work for the Triad area. It is hoped that eventually we will be able to organize a Spanish-speaking church in the area. Reverend John Jones now serves as pastor for this group.

The committee has also worked with the Main Street Church of Kernersville to secure continued pastoral assistance from the Church Extension Department of the Baptist State Convention.

The committee is also recommending that the Union Baptist Church of Winston-Salem be received under watchcare of the association. After one year the church will be accepted into full fellowship of the association.

Church-Community Ministries Committee

We have enjoyed another good year together as we have met monthly on the third Monday of each month at 12:00 noon, shared lunch and fellowship together, and carried out our task.

Our committee has cared for the Saturday evening programs at the Forsyth Youth Detention Center by asking our churches to participate in this meaningful program. We have sponsored Backyard Bible Clubs with Melanie Craven leading them. We helped to sponsor two students who worked as associate prison chaplains this summer, and we are working with a group of churches in King to care for the physical and spiritual needs of that area.

Pray for us as we continue to care for God's creation.

Cooperative Ministries Committee

Over the past many years there have been several attempts on the part of both the black pastors and the association to provide strong cooperative ministries in the areas served by the Rowan and Pilot Mountain Associations. At present only the summer youth workers sponsored by the Baptist State Convention and the Pilot Mountain Association in cooperation with the downtown black churches remains. The summer of 1984 will see the continuation of this worthwhile ministry.

Throughout this past year great strides have occurred toward a more constructive ministry. In its meetings this committee has committed itself to encouraging the PMBA Ministries Conference Program Committee to have a program that involves a black pastor from our area speaking on the subject of Baptist cooperation. This year the Program Committee has made an excellent choice in having Rev. Kelly Goodwin speak on October 10th.

Another commitment of the Cooperative Ministries Committee was to encourage the establishment of a viable committee of like kind in either the Black Baptist Ministers Fellowship or the Rowan Baptist Association. The latter has pledged to do such. They have pledged, as well, to work with the PMBA to have productive dialogue with our committee leading to productive ministries. The years ahead look bright for this committee.

Media Library

Our TACMO was busy this year as we planned and carried out training activities for our association. The year began with a workshop at First Baptist, Winston-Salem, on Saturday, November 6, 1982. The books, How To Administer and Promote and How To Classify and Catalog, were taught. A promotional workshop was held at Old Town Baptist on January 29, 1983. On April 29-30, 1983 nine local directors and workers attended the state library conference in Charlotte. These workshops were led by Mancil Ezell and James Rose.

Media Library Week at Ridgecrest was held in August this year and we had three attending from our Association. Our year of activities will end on October 25 when we have our potluck get acquainted dinner at Pfafftown Baptist. Our association has 44 active church media library directors.

Next year promises to be even better as we start off the year November 29 with a promotional workshop led by Mancil Ezell. Mr Ezell is from the Church Media Library Department in Nashville. He will be leading a morning session for pastors, education directors, church staff, and media library directors and workers; and afternoon and evening sessions for library workers and directors. This workshop will be held at Knollwood beginning at 11:00 a.m.

Media Library Director Mary Bullard attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May.

Student and Youth Committee

On May 7, the Student and Youth Committee sponsored "dinner on the grounds" and a concert by David Meece at Wait Chapel on the Wake Forest University campus. A large percentage of our churches participated. "Ice breakers," games and contests were the main attractions before the meal. Then David Meece shared his faith with us through song. It was an evening most of us will not forget.

Preparation began in January for the event. Our committee members called every church in the association to elicit support. The combined efforts of the committee, the cooperative and enthusiastic response of our churches, and the cooperative assistance of the associational staff made this effort a great success.

It is our goal to increase our youth activities for the coming year so that our young people may fellowship and grow with other church youth.

Ministers' Conference

The Ministers' Conference had 12 meetings during the 1982-83 session. The first meeting was a picnic for all ministers and their families at Tanglewood on Labor Day. A special breakfast meeting was held the last of September with Dr. Keith Parks, executive secretary, Foreign Mission Board, as our guest. The Valentine banquet in February at Wake Forest was another enjoyable time with the wives. Two meetings were joint worship services with the Baptist Ministers' Conference and Associates. The others were regular meetings held in different churches throughout the association with the ladies of the host church preparing delicious meals.

Programs were planned to provide information, inspiration, and fellowship for all who attended. Those leading the programs included J.L. Wilson, Rex Ferner, Mark Corts, Carlton Mitchell, Jerry Drayton, Glenn Hinson, Stan and Donna Heiser, Doug Cole, David and Sarah Catron, and Gene Puckett. Good attendance and warm fellowship have made this an enjoyable year. Our appreciation to everyone who shared with us during these times.

Ministers' Wives

The Ministers' Wives of the Pilot Mountain Association had another very good year.

We began the 1982-83 year with a brunch at the home of Cornelia Grigg in September. This was a delightful time for all who attended.

The monthly meetings throughout the year were varied and informative to all. The special meeting of the year is always in February when our husbands treat us to a Valentines Banquet. Again this year we met in the Magnolia Room at Wake Forest University.

During the year we had two breakfast meetings on Saturday morning to give those among us who work an opportunity to meet with us. These were enjoyed very much.

We changed our name this year from Ministers' Wives to Ministers' Spouses.

The purpose of our meetings is to promote sharing; to give encouragement to one another; to listen to each other; to promote fellowship; and to provide opportunities for friendship, learing, and service to one another.

Officers for the 1983-84 year are: President - Sara Stevens, Kernersville, First; Vice President - David Tamer, Wake Forest; Historian, Secretary, and Treasurer - Johnsie Liner, Knollwood; Devotions - Georgie Kitchen, Stoney Ridge; Programs - Martha Carr, Wake Forest, Mary Eva Knight, Knollwood.

Audit Committee

The financial records of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the year ended October 31, 1982 were audited as required.

Auditing procedures for expenditures consisted of a review of all expense vouchers for proper authorization. These vouchers were compared to the books for accuracy in amounts, distribution and dates.

A random sample of receipts from member churches was traced to the books to ascertain accuracy in recording and distribution of amounts and the identity of the donors.

Account balances with Wachovia Bank & Trust Company and Dean Witter Reynolds were reconciled to the books and agreed as reported.

It is the opinion of the committee that the financial report of October 31, 1982 presents fairly the financial position of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the year then ended.

Constitution

I. NAME

The name of this Association shall be the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

II. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

The objectives and purposes of the Association shall be:

(1) To foster fellowship and unity of faith and practice.

(2) To give and receive assistance in achieving the purposes of the member churches.

(3) To engage in direct, cooperative mission activities which cannot be accomplished by a church acting alone.

(4) To further the spirit of cooperation with Baptist work as set forth by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

III. MEMBERSHIP

This Association shall be composed of messengers from Baptist churches which in their faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and which are actively participating in the support and programs of work of the Association.

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, on recommendation of the Church Extension Committee, following counsel with the church and full investigation by the committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter and/or messengers for three consecutive years, the Executive Committee may, upon failing to effect a resolution of the problem, recommend withdrawal of fellowship from the church. A two-thirds majority vote in annual session shall be required for this action.

All active pastors, who are members of their respective churches, will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each affiliating church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows: three messengers from each church for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one additional messenger from each church for each additional one hundred members or major fraction thereof, up to ten messengers. Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the annual meeting of the Association. The courtesies of the floor may be extended to non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. Regular Sessions. The Association shall meet annually during the week before the fourth Sunday in October. The Order of Business Committee shall plan the program.

SECTION 2. Special Sessions. Special Sessions may be called by the Executive Committee as need arises. The Executive Committee shall determine the time, place, and length of called meetings. Written notice of special sessions with a statement of the purpose of the meeting must be sent to all pastors and the church-elected member of the associational Executive Committee at least two (2) weeks before the session.

V. AUTHORITY

The Association shall be clothed with authority only to advise the churches touching all things pertaining to their interest, but shall in no case control or direct them with reference to their own government or internal policy.

In associational matters, the Association shall be the authority. Therefore, each officer, committee, organization, and employee shall seek to comply with the purposes and the specific instructions of the Association. The Association may delegate authority as it sees fit in associational matters.

VI. ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. General Officers. The general officers of the Association shall be: a moderator, a vice moderator, a clerk, an assistant clerk, a treasurer, and a trustee chairman. General officers shall be elected annually with terms of office beginning at the conclusion of the annual meeting of the Association. The moderator and vice moderator may serve one year, after which they cannot be elected to the same office until they have been out of that office for two years. The vice moderator shall serve as chairman of the Executive Committee. The treasurer shall be bonded in the amount of at least $10,000.00. All employees responsible for handling money shall be likewise bonded.

Its function shall be that usually assigned to an Executive Committee. It shall provide counsel, support, and overall direction in formulating plans and promoting the work in general. Its actions are subject to the approval of the Association in its annual meeting.

SECTION 3. The Association shall elect three (3) trustees with nominations being made by the Nominating Committee. The regular term of office shall be for three years with one-third of the number elected each year. Having served as a trustee during the previous term or terms will not disqualify for re-election.

The trustees of the Association shall have power to hold title; to buy, sell, lease, convey and receive gifts of property, both real and personal, for the Association in accord with the instructions of the Association and/or the Executive Committee.

SECTION 4. Institutional and Agency Representatives. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate one person for each denominational institution and agency which requests such a representative. They shall serve for a period of one year. Their function shall be to help communicate the needs and opportunities of service for individuals and churches through the institution or agency they represent.

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association

October 23, 1984

THEME: "Our History . . . Our Trust"

AFTERNOON SESSION

1. The afternoon session of the 99th annual session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was convened at 3:00 p.m. at Mount Olive Baptist Church, King, North Carolina by the moderator, Boyce Wilson. Jim Bailiff, Winston-Salem First, served as pianist for the afternoon session.

2. Special introductions were made by the moderator, Mrs. Pearl Hauser, Union Hill, who has been attending associational meetings since 1914; and Mrs. Bertha Sneed, Antioch, attending the annual meeting for her 49th consecutive year.

3. Brent Helton, Ardmore, directed the singing of the hymn, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty." Following the hymn, Velma McGee led the group in prayer. Bill Priddy, King First, read the scripture from I Corinthians 13.

4. Shirley Walker, assistant clerk, moved that the messengers already registered and those yet to be registered this afternoon and evening be seated and that they constitute the 99th Annual Session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. After a second, the motion passed.

5. J.L. Wilson, Order of Business Committee chairman, moved the adoption of the printed program as the agenda for the meeting with any alterations deemed necessary by the moderator. There was a second and the motion was approved.

6. Bill Pope, host pastor, welcomed the messengers and guests to Mount Olive and offered his help in making everyone comfortable.

7. Boyce Wilson responded by reflecting on last year's theme, "New Beginnings," noting that people have begun to act on the new visions and the indifference and apathy of previous years has disappeared and people are looking to the future with new involvements and stronger commitments to the work of the association. He challenged those present to celebrate during our centennial year by rededicating themselves to Jesus Christ.

8. Jim Hamblen recognized guests Larry Sawyer of the Baptist Children's Homes and Seong Soo Kim, second year Southeastern Seminary student and pastor of the Korean Mission in Winston-Salem. He also noted that Dr. Warnie Hay, moderator of the Rowan Association, would join us later in the meeting.

9. Corbin Cooper, director of Cooperative Ministries and Seminary Extension of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, brought greetings from the State Convention and expressed appreciation for the revitalized relationship of the Pilot Mountain Association with the State Convention. He noted that this has been an eventful year in the State Convention. A Search Committee is actively seeking a successor to Dr. Cecil Ray as general secretary-treasurer of the State Convention. The Seminary Extension program is the largest school of theology in our state with 1,369 students participating in 2,425 courses during the last year. Prison inmates are also being reached with these Seminary Extension courses.

10. Paul Craven, chairman of the Church Extension Committee, moved that this 99th session of PMBA receive into its fellowship the Union Baptist Church. After a second was received, Mr. Craven noted that this church has been under watchcare of this association for the past year. The motion carried.

Mr. Craven also moved that we receive the Victory Baptist Church under watchcare of the PMBA for the next year. Following a second, the motion passed. Jim Hamblen acknowledged Bill Moreland, Peter's Creek Baptist Church, noting that it was through his leadership that Melvin Shelton responded to the call to preach and is now pastor of Victory Baptist Church.

Rev. B.F. Daniels and other representatives of Union Baptist Church were extended the right hand of fellowship.

Paul Craven led in a prayer of thanksgiving and dedication.

11. Dr. W.R. Grigg brought a message and challenge regarding cooperative ministries. He said, "There is no Christian reason for us not to be cooperative in the spreading of the gospel. The truth is we have been apart so long, we don't even know that we belong together." He urged that we go out of our way to become acquainted with black churches, that churches observe Race Relations Sunday, that pastors initiate pulpit exchanges and participate in joint ministers' conferences, and be mutually helpful in areas of Christian education.

Dr. Grigg introduced Dr. J.C. Harris of the General Baptist Convention and pastor of Stateville's First Baptist Church.

12. Special music was brought by soloist, Ms. Ola Mae Hunter, and accompanist, Ms. Lillian Bonner.

13. Dr. J.C. Harris preached a challenging message from Mark 2:3-4. His topic was, "Helping the Needy Get to Jesus." He pointed out that people all around us need help in getting to Jesus and we as church people are shaking with palsy. He asked the indicting questions, "How many times or how many persons have you ever prevented from getting to Jesus by your attitude, your disposition toward others, toward the church, or just toward the things of this world?" Or positively, "How many people have you helped to find the love of Jesus Christ?"

14. Reports from the following committees were received as presented in the Book of Reports:

Treasurer
Budget for 1985 from Finance Committee
Adoption of Calendar
Nominating Committee, with one addition - Homer Good of Kernersville
    First to be the ACTS Board representative
Committee on Committees
Ordination Committee

There was a motion that these reports and recommendations be approved. After a second, the motion was approved.

15. Don Bearden, Northwest, directed the singing of the hymn, "Who Is on the Lord's Side?"

16. Arthur L. Reid, pastor of Oak Grove Church for over 33 years and now retired, spoke on the theme "PMBA: What I Have Seen and Experienced." He recalled that his "roots" were in the Pilot Mountain Association having been reared in the Mineral Springs Church. He shared his call to the ministry and those men in PMBA who served on the Ordination Committee - R.E. Adams, J.M. Hayes, Lawson Allen, Charles Stevens and Luther Matthews. Other great men in the association who encouraged him by their example were Ralph Herring, W.R. Grigg, W.E. Pettit, T.C. Keaton, J.M. Johnson, J.A. Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. W.K. McGee. Associational leaders were a great help during those 33 plus years - Luell Smith, Ruth Williams, George Shore, Lawrence Childs, Thurman Fox and Walter Warfford, who encouraged and counseled him in the early years. Lewis Ludlum gave him encouragement to attend Fruitland Bible Institute and has continued to be his friend. He mentioned many other great men who have come to the association and blessed his life.

Mr. Reid told of the growth of Oak Grove Church during his ministry. The church sponsors a Sunday School ministry at a campground at Belews Lake; a migrant ministry with Mexicans; building of both a church building and a pastorium. He summed his message up by declaring that truly his experience in the Pilot Mountain Association has been a great inspiration and one for which he is thankful to God.

17. Bill Moreland, Peter's Creek, challenged churches to get involved in the things the PMBA is attempting to do. He shared scripture from John 11 and led in a memorial service remembering those who have died since last annual meeting. Following a prayer of benediction, the afternoon session was adjourned.

EVENING SESSION

18. The evening session opened with the organ prelude by Dale Boyles, Mount Olive. Don Bearden directed the hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory." Marshall Boyles, layman of Mount Olive Church, led the prayer.

19. Jim Hamblen recognized new pastors and full-time staff members in the association since last annual meeting. New pastors are: Roger Aycock, Union Grove; Jim Baldwin, Quaker Gap; Bruce Bedinger, Mount Tabor; Enoch Booth, Unity; Eddie Brackett, King First; Wesley Cook, Advance; William Fryar, Macedonia; Seong Soo Kim, Korean Mission; Mike Ledbetter, Stanleyville First; Melvin Shelton, Victory; Mike Willard, Griffith; and Roy Young, Robin Hood Road. Full-time staff members are: Clif Arnold, Bethany; Eric Bjork, Oaklawn; Ed Locke, Southside; Mike McKee, Calvary; Frank and Jill Newsome, King First; and Ben Vogler, Becks.

Mr. Hamblen also recognized Glenda Ward, volunteer in the associational office; Nancy Sebastian of the associational staff; Helen Johnson, Pfafftown secretary; and Anna Shull, Main Street secretary. These ladies attended the Church Secretaries Conference at Ridgecrest and received their certification by the Church Administration Department.

20. Featured speaker of the evening session on his experiences in the Pilot Mountain Association was Warren Carr, Wake Forest Church. While he did not come to PMBA to "shop around," he did look for things he needed. He came in search of a company of prophets in the Baptist world. He was looking for a Lewis Ludlum and he found him, a man open to God but stone dead to those who told him to stick to the gospel. Often in his involvement with integration and civil rights he had run alone; he expressed his gratitude because he was not alone any more. Black and white relationships were being formed without parallel from Manteo to Murphy. David Hedgley, Kelly Goodwin, Warnie Hay, Ben Daniels and Jerry Drayton are some of the stalwart black preachers who he declared are patient like steel that has been refined from suffering a long time. He was looking for men who would let him run with them even if he didn't run like them. "This is the only place I know like that," he declared. "We have an incredible fellowship, an incredible company of believers and the texture of our life together has been all the more rich because of the variety of color and tongue."

21. Troy Hamrick, chairman of the Office Survey and Planning Committee, brought a report and update on the work of his committee. The October 15, 1984 Executive Committee meeting approved the proposal of this committee that the association proceed immediately with plans to build an Associational Resource Center on the Long Drive property, according to the general plans drawn by J. Aubrey Kirby, architect, and:

1. That the building costs not exceed $340,000.
2. That the final interior design be approved by the Executive Committee.
3. That an Associational Building Committee be elected by the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Office Survey and Planning Committee.
4. That the Association enter into a two-year Centennial Fund Campaign with the churches to commit special gifts over a two-year period.
5. That the association sell the Hastings Hill Road and Romara Drive properties with the proceeds applied to construction cost of the Resource Center.
6. That the Executive Committee authorize the beginning of construction upon the commitment of cash or pledges equaling three-fourths of the construction costs, including the current building fund.
7. That to facilitate construction the Executive Committee be authorized to negotiate short-term (2-year) financing during the Centennial Fund Commitment period.

The annual meeting was asked to respond to a substitute motion which included the appointment by the moderator of an ad hoc Associational Building Steering Committee to which items 1-6 in the above proposal would be referred. There was a motion to accept the substitute motion and a second. During the discussion, Jack Noffsinger suggested that when the fund raising attempt is made that a brief but complete pamphlet be prepared showing the justification for the building and that we are not building just an office building but a resource center. Following discussion, the vote was taken and passed with no opposing votes.

22. The moderator announced the appointment of the ad hoc Building Steering Committee:

Fund Raising: Irvin Grigg, Coordinator
Mark Corts
Amis Daniel
Georgie Kitchen
David Morrow
J.L. Wilson
Construction: Troy Wood, Coordinator
Vonnie Wood
Warren Carr
Ed Collette
Marion Rector
Marjorie Turner

23. Carlton Mitchell, Stewardship Committee chairman, reported that the PGG (Planned Growth in Giving) program will be launched during the coming year. The Stewardship dinner in the spring will give emphasis to this program. He challenged the churches to look toward the future in terms of our outreach and sharing with others.

24. David Morrow, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolutions:

1. Appreciation to Host Church: WHEREAS, the Mount Olive Baptist Church is one of the oldest churches in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, having been organized in 1851:
   AND WHEREAS, the Mount Olive Church and their good pastor, William H. Pope, have graciously accommodated the messengers and visitors of the association meeting in its 99th annual session:
   BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we the messengers constituting the 99th annual meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association declare sincere gratitude for their thoughtful hospitality and for the use of their comfortable facilities.
   After a second, the resolution was approved.
2. Appreciation to Moderator: WHEREAS, Boyce Wilson, layman of the Knollwood Baptist Church, has served as moderator during the 1983-84 year;
   AND WHEREAS, he has been most thorough, both in equipping himself for the task and in the diligent execution of his duties;
   BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we the messengers seated in the 99th meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, heartily commend Boyce Wilson for his effective work in behalf of the association and for his commitment of stewardship to the Lord Jesus Christ which has drawn him to a role of service among us.
   There was a second and the resolution was passed.
3. Affirmation of Director of Missions: WHEREAS, the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in its 99th annual meeting did extend a call to James V. Hamblen to become Director of Missions with our association;
   AND WHEREAS, Mr. Hamblen did accept that call and moved from his post with the Southern Baptist Convention Home Mission Board to assume responsibilities with this association;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we the messengers to the 99th annual meeting of the association commend Mr. Hamblen for the excellent manner in which he has initiated his ministry among us;

26. Mark Corts, Calvary, moved that the moderator appoint, with the approval of the Executive Committee, a special committee to study the possibility of an association-wide missions project in Togo as part of the Togo/North Carolina Baptist partnership. After a second, Mr. Corts spoke to the motion, and the motion was approved.

27. Special music was provided by a quartet composed of Don Bearden, Northwest; Brent Helton, Ardmore; David Lane, College Park; and Charles Walker, Pfafftown; accompanied by Gloria Lawrence, Griffith.

28. Shirley Walker, assistant clerk, reported that 302 messengers and 48 visitors had egistered for this 99th annual session.

29. Marion Rector, chairman of the Evangelism Committee, gave a report on the SBC simultaneous crusade "Good News, America . . . God Loves You," to be held April 6-13, 1986. He urged churches to vote to participate and begin planning. A very mportant pre-crusade event will be the people search in October 1985. We will have almost six months to cultivate the prospects found in the people search. The Rowan Association has been asked to join with us in this crusade.

30. Mitzi Moore, associational Sunday School director, and members of the ASSISTeam, reported enthusiastically on work begun and plans in the making to bring a Sunday School revival to the Pilot Mountain Association. Members of the team, in addition to the director, are: Arnett Harris, Winston-Salem First, Outreach director; Bill Adkerson, Winston-Salem First, Teaching Improvement/January Bible Study; Linda Moore Lewis, Northwest, Teaching Improvement/Vacation Bible School; Adults - H.E. Barkley, Ardmore, leader; Stan Heiser, Clemmons First; Ty Talton, Union Grove; Youth - Larry Freeman, College Park, leader; Frank Newsome, King First; Kim Lee, Northwest; Bobby Touchton, Southside; Kathy Steen, Ardmore; Neil Maxey, Walnut Cove; Children - Georgie Kitchen, Stoney Ridge; Lois Rush, Bethany; Preschool - Irene Covington, Kernersville First; Melba Hawkins, Winston-Salem First; Judy Blackwell, Union Grove; and Janet Adkerson, Winston-Salem First.

31. Lewis Ludlum, historian, reviewed briefly the information reported in the Book of Reports, referring to 20 churches in the association observing significant anniversaries within the next five years. He challenged churches to preserve significant historical resources. Mr. Ludlum also recognized several individuals in the audience: Rev. Walter Warfford, Kathleen Sullivan, Naomi Lewis, Nell Badgett and Beverly Hamblen.

32. Stephen Welborn, chairman of the Centennial Celebration Committee, briefly reviewed the activities planned during next year's centennial celebration. The Pilot Mountain Association was constituted on October 17, 1885 at Red Bank Church with 20 churches listed as members. As he proclaimed the 1984-85 year the centennial year of the Pilot Mountain Association, he declared that we have a history worth celebrating. We have a rich heritage from the past, an exciting present and a promising future.

33. Brent Helton, Ardmore, directed the singing of the hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

REPORTS

Athletic Committee

The Pilot Mountain Youth Basketball League used two gymnasiums during this past season -- Winston-Salem First Baptist and Becks Baptist. We gave Becks $200 for utilities and paid Winston-Salem First $100 per Saturday.

These two gyms were used each Saturday from 8:30 until 4:30, starting the first week in December and going through the second week in March. There were 32 teams with about 300 participants.

An item of concern was the cost of renting one of the gyms. the committee will explore the possibility of using some other gym this coming season. The cost for officials is $18 and $20 a game, which is a big cost also.

The Youth Coed Softball League had 12 teams. The two fields at Central Park were used on Monday and Tuesday afternoons from 5:30 until 8:30 starting the last week in May. Some makeup games were played at Calvary's field. Tournament play was concluded the second week in August with Northwest beating Calvary Blue Team for the tournament champions. Calvary Blue won the regular season championship. Trophies were given to the regular season champions and second place runner-ups, as well as trophies awarded to the tournament champions and runner-ups.

In summary, the committee feels this was an outstanding fellowship year for the players, moms and dads, and everyone else involved.

Brotherhood

Brotherhood was fortunate to gain a new Royal Ambassador director, Edsel Carter. Edsel was instrumental in reopening Camp Retreat, near Hanging Rock Park, as a wilderness camp for men and boys. Much time and effort was spent in restoring the camp. RA's and their leaders and counselors provided most of the labor involved. It was opened in June for RA's use. Edsel has a slide presentation which is available to churches upon request.

We experienced a slight gain in enrollment this year in the Brotherhood. Three new Prayer Units were formed. Those who are interested in starting a Prayer Unit will find us available to help you.

The theme for Key Leadership May 14-16 at Ridgecrest was "Strengthening the Family." Information was given to motivate boys and girls, men and women, in the family to become involved in missions.

Our associational WMU and Brotherhood Training Leadership was a success. It was held September 10, 1984 at College Park Baptist Church. Sixty-four men were in attendance for Brotherhood conferences.

A regional Mission Action Conference emphasizing ministries was held September 20, 1985 at Winston-Salem First Baptist Church.

Homeland Projects opportunities are available. Please call us. We are grateful for your support and cooperation in the past year.

Camp Retreat

The PMBA revitalized Camp Retreat with a $5,000 grant from the Executive Committee (Feb. '84) for two-year start up expenses. The Royal Ambassadors under the leadership of D. Edsel Carter began the rehabilitation of this Stokes County site as a "wilderness" camp. The registration or use fee by each camper will cover the operating costs and will be supervised by the RA Council, which is a part of the Brotherhood program of the PMBA.

On June 15, 1984 the camp was "reopened" with a special RA conclave and overnight retreat. Over 200 were present for the evening activities.

For those interested in "wilderness" camping, Camp Retreat offers the following:

1. Four flowing streams
2. Walking bridge
3. Covered pavilion
4. Six new picnic tables
5. Newly roofed three-room building with screened-in-porch
6. Two night lights
7. Five wooded camp sites
8. Two rented portilets

Please contact Edsel Carter, PMBA RA director, for additional information.

Centennial Committee

The Centennial Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has met nine times, the latest meeting occurring October 16. In addition to the election of Carlton Mitchell as vice chairman and Florence Bowen and Gladys Poindexter as co-secretaries, the committee has planned a year-long series of events, beginning with the 99th annual meeting at Mount Olive Church and culminating with the 100th annual meeting on October 17, 1985. Wait Chapel on the campus of Wake Forest University has been procured for the centennial meeting. Dr. Walter Shurden, professor of church history at Mercer University, will be one of our primary speakers.

Subcommittees of the Centennial Committee are at work on varied forms of celebration during the centennial year. These subcommittees may utilize associational personnel to the degree they deem necessary. Events in preparation include a Youth Choir Christmas Concert on December 8, 1984; a one-day family fellowship celebration at Sandy Creek Church on June 22, 1985; a special Executive Committee meeting at Red Bank Church on August 19, 1985; an associational choir festival; and a cooperative meeting with the Missionary Baptist Fellowship on its 20-year anniversary. Historical Resource Kits will be made available in the association office for the churches. Centennial dramas and historical monologues are in preparation and will be presented throughout the centennial year.

A publications subcommittee chaired by Dr. Clifton Allen is at work on a history of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association to be published for the centennial year and made available at a nominal cost. Rev. M.M. Goss will author this history.

Our hopes and expectations are great. We desire your prayers and support that our 100th year be our best in the history of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Church-Community Ministries Committee

During the past year the Church-Community Ministries Committee experienced a most rewarding and enjoyable year as we met each month and shared lunch and fellowship while conducting the business at hand.

We express our gratitude to each individual and church for your participation in the Saturday evening program at Forsyth Youth Detention Center.

The summer mission program was especially good as Miss Dawn Bagwell spent nine weeks guiding some of our youth in Backyard Bible Clubs and coordinating weekend praise and worship programs at the camping area of Tanglewood Park.

Continue to pray that next year we will find even more care and love for our community.

Church Extension Committee

The Extension Committee has worked with several exciting matters during this associational year. First, we have sustained communication with the Union Baptist Church, which at present is under the watchcare of the Pilot Mountain Association. This congregation is being presented to the annual associational meeting with our anticipation that the association will extend to this fine church our hand of Christian fellowship.

Another item on our agenda has been a continuing review of the work of the Union Grove Mission for Spanish speaking. This mission congregation under the able leadership of mission pastor John Jones has been blessed with grand achievements and is now finalizing plans for construction of a building on their recently acquired property and projecting plans for a full-time pastorate.

A third accomplishment is the organization of our Korean congregation with Winston-Salem First Baptist Church as the mother church. The Korean Mission meets in the facility of First Baptist Church including morning worship in Reich Chapel. Seong Soo Kim is the mission pastor and this work appears to have a bright future.

A fourth item has been the exploration by the Becks Church of beginning a new work in the Highway 52 North/King area. The church is in the process of finalizing the procurement of a fine tract of land and will soon proceed with initial organizational plans.

Still another area of work for this committee has been a continuing communication with the Victory Baptist Church, which congregation will likely be received under the watchcare of PMBA at this annual meeting.

Our committee has addressed an assortment of concerns, among which has been the need for our association to extend its witness and ministry to the new developments in our association and to stay ahead of our area's growth trends. This involved extensive study, research and planning. We hope we can deliver effective leadership in this and other areas of church extension.

Church Training

Church Training saw as challenges for this year three major tasks: leadership training, children's Bible drills, and new work established.

In 1983, we as an association were challenged to begin four new training programs in our area. As of this year, new training work has been reported in several of our churches where, previously, work had not been reported on the Uniform Church Letter. This is due to increased use of the Doctrinal Study, New Member Training, and short-term training. We are excited about this beginning of new work.

Children's Bible Drills this year saw two of our churches in training for associational and state drills. One of these participants from Calvary was a third year participant. Participants this year were from Calvary and Becks Baptist churches. We are grateful to leadership who guide these children to study and learn the Bible, memorizing key passages and verses.

This year was climaxed with the Leadership Training Extravaganza. The Extravaganza was jointly sponsored by Church Training, Sunday School, and Church Music with repeat conferences held in three associational churches: Kernersville First, Clemmons First, and Walnut Cove First. Out of this time together, 77 persons received training credit for their area of ministry in their churches.

We look forward to another good year of training growth and awareness during 1985.

Constitution Committee

During 1984 the Constitution Committee has met many times for the purpose of evaluating revisions for the associational constitution. Our hope is that revisions offered will allow the constitution to be more of an organic document of the association, descriptive of and responsive to the needs and goals of the association as it seeks to assist churches on mission in their individual settings. This committee has been diligent in their task; we solicit your continued prayer support. We appreciate the continuing assistance of Jim Hamblen and Boyce Wilson and the early assistance of the Strategy Planning Committee.

Our proposed revisions to the constitution will be submitted to the association at the pring, 1985, meeting.

Cooperative Ministries Committee

For at least 40 years there has been a Cooperative Ministries Committee of the Pilot Mountain Association. This committee has been known by various and sundry names. However, the aims and goals have been essentially the same -- which may be summed up y one simple statement. The aim of the committee has been to break down barriers beween black and white Baptists and churches which hinder all from attaining their maximum in service and ministry to and with people within the given area. Since this goal is till far from being reached, the committee is still committed to labor to make this aim a eality.

The committee is now composed of nineteen (19) members: nine (9) from the Pilot Mountain and ten (10) from the Rowan associations. Two meetings have been held in February and May respectively. It is hoped that during the next year churches from both ssociations will do some, if not all, of the following things: 1. Observe Race Relations Sunday; 2. Have pulpit exchanges; 3. Urge pastors to participate in all joint Ministers' Conferences; 4. Seek out companion church from the opposite group and find ways of being mutually helpful; 5. Cooperate in the Centennial Celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Pilot Mountain Association; 6. More cooperation in Pastors' Schools and Seminary Extension work; 7. Seek cooperation through Sunday School, Church Training, Women's work, and Men's work by sharing mutually such information and leaderhip training opportunities and facilities which are available; 8. Look forward to a joint meeting of the two associations; 9. Make continuing efforts to get fully acquainted as persons and as Baptists; and 10. Plan for full participation of all churches in the nationwide evangelistic effort by Baptists in 1986.

Watch for and respond positively to any and all announcements of cooperative ndeavors that will be promoted by your committees.

Evangelism Committee

This year the Evangelism Committee has given itself primarily to the task of planning. The major concern has been preparation for the nationwide simultaneous evangelistic ervices planned for 1986. "Good News, America" will be an effort to bring our nation o Christ through the concerted efforts of all of our churches.

Churches in our association are asked to schedule simultaneous services during the week of April 6-13, 1986. The convention suggested date would have conflicted with Holy Week observances in some churches.

Associational participation in "Good News, America" will be directed by the Evangelism Committee, which will select others to assist. Please pray for those who will be leading in this great evangelistic effort on the local, state, and national levels.

Another event the Evangelism Committee has been working is the special session of our association in the spring of 1985. The committee has been asked to secure a speaker for this meeting who will help us see our role as missionaries and evangelists and to inspire us to get to work in these areas.

Regular meetings of the committee are planned for next year as we gear up for "Good News, America."

Executive Director of Missions

A year ago we met for the 98th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. During that session the messengers elected me as your "director" and invite me to lead and serve the various parts of our association in assisting the churches t fulfill the Father's will as they understand it. To the best of my ability and understanding I have done that.

You will recall, following the election, I offered a covenant which included my commitment to:

- Walk by Faith . . . instructed by His Word and empowered by His Spirit . . .
- grow and mature as a person . . .
- serve as minister among, with, and to you . . .
- hope, dream, and work toward a better future . . .

Let us pause for reflection and evaluation. During the past year I have learned much My first goal was to visit each congregation at least once. There are only a few churche where I have not been for worship and, with God's help, I will fulfill this goal by the en of 1984.

Helping the officers, committees and councils of PMBA was another goal. Of th committees that have met, I know of only two that I have not attended. I have witnesse great accomplishments by associational workers and leaders in several areas. May mention the following:

- The "hearing" process of preparing 1985 budget;
- The Training Clinic for Sunday School, Church Training, and Music Leadershi
- The establishment of Seminary Extension Workgroup and the diploma program
- The intensive planning for PMBA Centennial Celebration including the writin of our association's history;
- The purchase and rezoning of site for future "Resource Center";
- The identification of personnel needs for many years into the future;
- The beginning of the Korean Mission;
- The institution of new relationships and future plans with Rowan Baptist Association;
- The revitalization of the Associational Council and Associational Strategy Planning Committee;
- The leadership workshop, "The Baptist Association: Churches on Missio Together";
- The work of the Constitution Committee attempting to revise the PMBA Const tution, Bylaws, and Policies; and
- The presentation of three-year calendar for the benefit of churches in their lon range planning.

We have seen more than eight new ministers assume staff responsibilities among tl congregations. And we have said farewell to several friends and ministers who ha moved elsewhere. My greatest inadequacy is in dealing with over 200 ministers who ha eir biographical information in our active files and who believe the Father is leading em to this area to serve in a church in one capacity or another.

Finally, this past year has been a good year of "planting" for me and my family. We ave found new friends, new challenges, new opportunities, and new meaning to life. hank you for your support, patience, admonition, and love.

Historian

A great many things have happened this year in our churches that are historically significant. I have to limit this report to the few churches that celebrated a significant anniversary (those whose anniversary in 1984 is divisible by 25). A great deal of what God is doing for and with His people called Southern Baptists is revealed in anniversary observances.

RED BANK celebrated a 125th anniversary. The main event took place on August 26. Dr. Howard Dawkins, a former pastor, delivered the anniversary sermon and remained for the dinner-on-the-grounds fellowship meal.

PINNACLE celebrated their centennial year on September 9. One feature was three brief addresses by Rev. James Hamblen, Rev. M.M. Goss, and Rev. Lewis Ludlum. The congregation and visitors ate a picnic meal in the fellowship hall. Several women and girls (a few men also) wore heritage dress. An illustrated church history was presented to the congregation and visitors. Rev. Robert Blackburn, interim pastor, was the gracious host for the day.

KERNERSVILLE FIRST observed a centennial over a period of several weeks. On one or more of the special days, most of the living former pastors, interim pastors, church staff members, "our sons in the ministry, neighboring pastors whose church we had sponsored," neighboring pastors of other denominations, civic leaders, and denominational leaders were guests of the church for one or more services.

The celebration was highlighted August 26-30 when special services were held on Sunday morning and each of the weekday evenings Monday through Thursday. Dinner-on-the-grounds was observed on Sunday and a reception was held on the concluding night.

NORTHWEST observed its 75th anniversary over a period of several weeks in which four former pastors were invited back to preach the Sunday morning sermon. The observance was culminated on Sunday morning, October 7, with a message by Dr. William J. Furr and a picnic meal in the fellowship hall. An illustrated church history was presented to the congregation and visitors.

QUAKER GAP will celebrate a 75th anniversary on September 27 and 28. The Saturday observance will begin at 4:00 and will feature an address by Rev. James Hamblen nd a fellowship meal at the neighborhood Community House. The Sunday observance will feature High Attendance Day in Sunday School, a free-for-all discussion by "all whose ministries have helped shape Quaker Gap," and conclude with a fellowship meal t 1:00.

WESTVIEW has not set the date yet but will likely, sometime in late autumn, observe their 25th anniversary.

CHURCHES THAT WILL HAVE A SIGNIFICANT ANNIVERSARY (divisible by 25) 1985-1990: Fellowship (25th in 1986), Glenn View (75th in 1986), Mount Tabor (100th in 1986), Mountain View (75th in 1986), Old Town (25th in 1986), South Fork (50th in 1986), Union Grove (75th in 1986), New Bethel (50th in 1987), Unity (25th in 1987), Center Grove (75th in 1989), Goodwill (125th in 1989), Stoney Ridge (75th in 1989), Forest Hill (50th in 1990), Parkway (25th in 1990).

Media Library

The PMBA TACMO had a very good year under the capable leadership of Mary Bullard. We kicked off the year with a get-acquainted potluck supper at Pfafftown Baptist. Six of our churches were represented.

Our big training event for the year was held in November at Knollwood Baptist. Mancill Ezell, secretary, Media Library Department, BSSB, Nashville, was our leader. He presented an excellent explanation of TelNet to a group of church leaders that included pastors, associate pastors, ministers of education, media library directors and workers, as well as other interested individuals. The afternoon session was devoted to promotion for the Media Library. A total of 65 persons attended with 18 churches represented.

In May several from our association attended the NC State meeting at Camp Caraway. Two directors spent a week at Ridgecrest in intensive study and training. Our year ended with a planning meeting for the 1984-85 year.

Ministers' Conference

The Ministers' Conference composed of pastors and staff persons met 10 times during the 1983-84 year. Following the practice of recent years, the meetings were held in churches throughout the association: Brown Mountain, Northwest, Mineral Springs, Becks, Oaklawn, Konnoak, and Pilot Mountain and at our Baptist Retirement Home. A Valentine banquet with spouses was held in February on the Wake Forest campus. Two sessions were shared with the Baptist Ministers' Conference and associates of the Rowan Association. They were our guests in December and we joined them in May.

Program leaders included M.M. Goss, Kelly Goodwin, Bob Dale, W.C. Hay, W.R. Grigg, Barry Carter and the ministers of music of the association, H.E. Barkley, J.L. Wilson, Wiley Guthrie, Dan Pardue, and Thomas K. Hearn, Jr., The fellowship of the meetings and the information and inspiration of the programs provided made for an enjoyable and helpful year.

Mission Center

(Dan River Mission)

The Mission is having a very active and expanding ministry. This past year the Mis- on has started a regular choir rehearsal for music at the worship services; a youth inistry that meets once a month on Sunday afternoon at 5:30, led by Mr. and Mrs. avid Kivette; a Baptist Women's group for mission support; and a nursery during the orning worship service.

The Sunday School now has from 25 to 30 in regular attendance and the worship ser- ice, from 30-35.

The mission's roof was recovered and the electrical service was updated so that the lectrical baseboard heat would operate more efficiently and an air conditioner can be dded in the near future.

Rev. and Mrs. Hall have been so involved in recruiting others into their expanding inistry that the Methodists and Presbyterians decided that, since it was apparent that e dead indeed may rise, they had best claim the ones on their rolls and began a joint rvice this past summer (They were buried about three years ago).

Two members of the Missions Committee are excited about the work going on in anbury at the Dan River Mission and we trust that the other committees in associa- onal work are as excited about their work as we are about ours.

Music Conference

An organizational meeting was held January 9 at College Park Church for the pu pose of determining our direction for the year. A committee was appointed to nominat a slate of members for an Associational Music Council. Some tentative dates we discussed for activities during the year.

On March 5 the conference met at Forest Hill Church. At that time the following pe ple were nominated and elected to serve on the Associational Music Council: Jan Hooker, Forest Hill; Gloria Lawrence, Griffith; Neil Maxey, Walnut Cove First; Da Rickard, Konnoak; Charles Walker, Pfafftown; Dan Pardue, Clemmons First (PMB Associate Music Director); Brent Helton, Ardmore (PMBA Music Director). Dan Pa due then introduced Choir Chimes and their use in his position as minister of music Clemmons First.

May 7 was the time for the third meeting of the year. Discussion dealt with plannin and scheduling of future events. A picnic scheduled for July 7 had to be cancel because of weather and lack of participation.

Leadership training was led by Jim Bailiff and Don Bearden during the Training E travaganza on September 24, 25, and 27. October 16 was the date of the association Adult Choir Festival held at College Park Church. Charles Storey of the Baptist Sta Convention Music Department was director.

December 8 is the scheduled time for an associational Youth Choir Christmas Co cert to be held at Hanes Auditorium, Salem College. We hope many young people w participate in this significant event, which will be led by Fred Kelley of the Baptist Su day School Board in Nashville.

Office Survey and Planning Committee

Your Office Survey and Planning Committee is pleased to report that a very desirable ite has been purchased. Our attorney has successfully led in getting the site rezoned for ur use and taken care of all legal matters.

An architect was secured and preliminary plans have been drawn and presented to the ommittee.

A plan for financing the building has not been designed, but this will surely be resented at an early date. We pray that the building, known as the Pilot Mountain Bap-ist Association Resource Center, will become a reality in the very near future.

Ordination Committee

The Ordination Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received re-uests from six of our member churches and conducted examinations of their candi-lates for the ministry during the 1983-84 associational year. The candidates are as ollows: William D. Fryar of the Macedonia Baptist Church of Tobaccoville on anuary 12, 1984; Timothy L. Tucker of the Robin Hood Road Baptist Church on anuary 12, 1984; Daniel W. Redding, Jr. of the Lewisville Baptist Church on March 9, 1984; J. Melvin Shelton of the Peter's Creek Baptist Church on March 29, 1984; rik Bjork of the Oaklawn Baptist Church on August 7, 1984; and Glenn Davis of the rdmore Baptist Church on October 12, 1984. In each of these cases, after an extensive nd satisfactory examination, the candidate was recommended to his church for ordina-on and, subsequently, the church has ordained him for the gospel ministry.

Inasmuch as the association had no stated policy to guide the Ordination Committee its work for several years, after consultation with others, the Ordination Committee rmulated a policy by which it conducts its examination of candidates. This policy atement is given below in order that the association may know of the procedure the mmittee follows:

ORDINATION COMMITTEE
STATEMENT OF POLICY AND PROCEDURES

The responsibility of the Ordination Committee is to assist the churches of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in examining candidates for ordination to the ministry. Ordination into the Baptist ministry concerns both the church which ordains and her sister churches, because a candidate ordained by one church will presumably serve other churches and enjoy the public recogntion afforded Baptist ministers. It is to be clearly understood, however, that the ordaining church is only seeking the advice and counsel of her sister churches through the Ordination Committee and that the ordaining church retains sole authority in determining whether a candidate is to be ordained. The committee's function is to make a RECOMMENDATION to the ordaining church. The other purpose of the committee, as the commitee views its own work, is to offer brotherly counsel to those who are just beginning their ministry.

Personnel Committee

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association began the 1984 associational year with a ne
Director of Missions, Rev. Jim Hamblen. During this past year, Mr. Hamblen has pro vided capable leadership in our association. He has worked closely with pastors, churc leaders, committees, and commissions and individuals who have called for his service
The Personnel Committee has met regularly with Mr. Hamblen, the moderator, an vice moderator of our association. We have explored current and future staff needs, an we hope in the near future to have a Director of Church Development as a part of ou associational ministry. The Personnel Committee has strived to be a resource committe to all the associational staff.

During the Associational Leadership Orientation Meeting, November 21, 1983 a Ardmore Baptist Church, Dr. W.R. Grigg was recognized for his valuable service as In terim Director of Missions. The association presented Dr. and Mrs. Grigg with an o painting of Pilot Mountain as an expression of love and appreciation.

On January 17, 1984 at Knollwood Baptist Church, we shared an evening fellowship, celebration, and worship at the Commissioning Service for the Reverend Ji Hamblen. Among the speakers were Mayor Wayne Corpening, Winston-Salem; Ell Boyles, County Commissioner of Stokes County; Kelly O.P. Goodwin, from the Mini ters' Conference and Associates; Sara Ann Hobbs, from the Baptist State Conventio and the main address was given by Rev. Ronald Boswell of the Foreign Mission Boar Special music for the evening was presented by Brent and Merrillyn Helton, associ
tional music director. Mitzi Moore and Peggy Neal made arrangements for the recepti in the church dining room, following the service.

A new receptionist-bookkeeper joined the association staff during 1984. Nan Sebastian has been a valuable asset to our office and we appreciate the loyal a cooperative spirit she shows concerning the associational work.

We are indebted to Peggy Hall, administrative assistant, for the contribution she co tinues to make to the associational office, and the assistance and encouragement s gives fellow staff members.

The year 1984 has been an excellent year and your Personnel Committee thanks y for the opportunity to serve.

Strategy Planning Committee

During 1983-84, the Associational Strategy Planning Committee has primarily en phasized learning - learning more about planning in general, learning more about tl planning process for an association, and learning more about the history, purposes ar organizational structure of a typical Baptist association. Utilizing the immense resourc of our Director of Missions, Jim Hamblen, the planning process was discussed. Sever meetings were devoted to reviewing materials/booklets setting forth the recommende routine for planning the work of a Baptist association. Fortunately for the Strateg Planning Committee, Jim exposed the members to a wide array of planning alternative Some of the material outlined a very simple planning process while, on the other hand, more sophisticated and longer process was also explored.

After being exposed to the expertise of Jim Hamblen and to a lot of resour materials, the committee concluded that its first task would be to learn more about tl history and function of the Baptist association. As the committee discussed the need f its members to learn more about associationalism, it became clear to the committee th the learning process would probably be good for other committees. The Strategy Plan ing Committee asked Jim Hamblen to teach J.C. Bradley's book, "A Baptist Associ tion: Churches on Mission Together," on June 1, 1984 at Knollwood Baptist Churc More than 50 people attended. Jim presented very well an overview of the book. H discussed areas of the committee structure of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association whi might be changed to improve the work (ministry) of the association.

The charter of a Strategy Planning Committee, as set forth in Bradley's book, i cludes being functionally responsible for keeping up to date the Constitution and Byla of the association. Several joint meetings of the Strategy Planning and Constituti committees of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association were held. Jim Hamblen led bo committees through the procedures for planning the work of an association. The co mittees discussed the need for revising the constitution and for establishing bylaws f the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Once the meetings had fulfilled the origir need for meeting together, the committees decided to return to their individual task

On August 27, 1984 Jim Hamblen, Director of Missions, and I attended a meeting Cary, North Carolina, in the offices of the Baptist State Convention. We met with t Directors of Missions from the Central (High Point) and Piedmont (Greensboı associations; George Shore, State Convention; and George Bullard, Home Missi Board office in Atlanta, Georgia. The group was introduced to the Mega Focus Cit planning process. The meeting exposed Jim and me to specific details pertaining to t planning for meeting the spiritual and related physical needs within the Pilot Mount Baptist Association by linking arms with the other two associations of the Triad planning purposes. The Mega Focus Cities planning process is designed to meet t needs of the individual association. It is a "bottom up" planning process. It is no "canned" program. On September 13, 1984 the Strategy Planning Committee met hear Jim and me discuss the Mega Focus Cities planning process and what the Strat Committee and/or the association would need to do to respond to the State Conventi and the Home Mission Board. The committee endorsed the concept and empowered to take a recommendation to the Executive Committee for approval of the Pilot Mo tain Baptist Association to join hands with the Central and Piedmont Associations, State Convention and the Home Mission Board for Mega Focus Cities planning. On tober 15, 1984 the Executive Committee approved our involvement in the planning p cess of the Mega Focus Cities for the Triad area.

The learning/work experience of the committee during 1983-1984 has been a time of anting and the harvest should be realized in future years. The committee has been thful and patient to its task.

Student and Youth Committee

In an effort to meet the needs in three areas of youth life, the Student and Youth mmittee planned and carried out events in April, May and September. On April -28, Dr. Stephen Glenn led a seminar on "Developing Capable Young People" at ollwood Baptist Church. The seminar focused on helping adults, parents and chers to develop young people so that they will be capable of making right and good oices in the future. Many parents from our churches participated, as well as others m outside our association.

Youth from all churches in our association were invited to a Western Round-up on ay 5 at Northwest Baptist Church. The afternoon began with fun games designed so at young people from the churches could meet each other. A barbecue and baked ans dinner followed and a square dance ended the evening. A good time was had by who attended.

Our final event of the year was held September 22 at Mineral Springs Baptist Church. enn Davenport, president of North Carolina Youth Ministers, led a seminar for all uth teachers focusing on best methods of teaching young people. Though the attendce was small, the seminar was excellent and worthwhile.

Prayer and ministry - partnerships. These two Christian functions have necessarily en the thrust of the work of Woman's Missionary Union for the year 1983-84. rough the work of the associational program, the leaders of WMU have sought to ide the women in the churches to grow and lead out in prayer and missions ministries. the 75 churches in PMBA, 63 have reported at least one WMU organization; new organizations were reported in at least eight of the churches. Contact was made with of the churches.

Thirteen activities were sponsored by the associational WMU. Baptist Women pa ticipated in the World Day of Prayer, a prayer retreat, and a fellowship. Baptist You Women experienced a workshop on personal witnessing, while the Acteens join together for a ministry retreat. The Girls in Action participated in a banquet, an ov night fellowship and study, and a three-day camp. Mission Friends leaders were invit to participate in an inspirational event. The entire WMU leadership participated in partnership dinner with pastors and staff; a mission action ministry fair; a study of t Biblical Basis of Missions; leadership training, and inspiration. The goals of activities i clude providing opportunities for the women in the churches to experience fellowshi inspiration, and training. In keeping with the theme, we have sought to lead the wom to discover their personal ministries in missions.

Sincere appreciation is extended to the following ladies who have given of themsel in numerous hours of prayer and effort and energy. Without their sincere efforts, t work of WMU in the association would not have been as effective: Marjorie Turn Sue Tesh, Joyce Love, Georgie Kitchen, in Baptist Women; Nancy Sebastian, in Bap Young Women; Frances McDaniel, in Acteens and Mission Action; Selwyn Matthe and Jean Foster, in Girls in Action; Connie Dickens in Mission Friends; Thel Ragsdale, as assistant WMU director; and Anna Shull, as WMU secretary.

Constitution

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this body shall be the "Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated" according to the laws and statutes of the State of North Carolina, and is hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association is to glorify GOD through interchurch fellowship; through assisting and being assisted by churches in realizing their purpose; and through fostering a unity in faith and practice.

B. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Association shall be:

1. To foster fellowship and unity of faith and practice among the congregations;
2. To give and receive assistance in achieving the purposes of the member congregations;
3. To engage in direct, cooperative mission activities which may not be accomplished by a single congregation acting alone; and
4. To further the work of Christ throughout the world in cooperation with other Baptist bodies.

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

While the Association is autonomous under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, it claims no authority over any other Baptist body.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

A. COMPOSITION

The Association shall be composed of Baptist churches which in their faith, polity and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and are actively participating in the support and work of the Association.

B. AFFILIATION

Any constituted Baptist church may be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches, upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association.

C. MESSENGERS

Messengers from the member churches shall constitute the session of the Association. Messengers shall be elected by the churches they represent. The pastors of member churches will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows:

> Three (3) messengers from each church for the first one hundred (100) members or fraction thereof, and one (1) messenger for each additional one hundred (100) members or major fraction thereof, up to a total of ten (10) messengers.

Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the Association.

The courtesies of the floor (report, discussion or debate) may be extended by non-messengers at the discretion of the body.

D. DISMISSAL

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter and/or messengers for three (3) consecutive years, the Executive Board may, upon failing to effect a resolution to the problem, recommend a withdrawal of fellowship from that church. A two-thirds majority vote of the Association in session shall be required for this action.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

A. REGULAR MEETINGS

The Association shall meet semiannually during the months of April and October.

B. SPECIAL MEETINGS

The Executive Board may call special sessions of the Association as the need arises. The Executive Board shall determine the time and place of called meetings. Written notices of special sessions with a statement of purpose for the meeting must be sent to all pastors and church-elected members of the Executive Board at least thirty (30) days before the session.

ARTICLE VI. ORGANIZATION

A. GENERAL OFFICERS

The general officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice-moderator, clerk, assistant clerk, treasurer, and assistant treasurer. The general officers shall be the trustees of and the legal agent of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Incorporated. They shall have power to hold title; to buy, sell, lease, convey and receive gifts of property, both real and personal for the Association; in accord with the instructions of the Association in session or the Executive Board. The moderator shall sign as president; the vice-moderator as vice-president; the clerk or assistant clerk as secretary; and the treasurer or assistant treasurer as treasurer of the corporation. The signatures of any two of the officers named above shall be binding upon the corporation.

B. ASSOCIATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES

The Association shall provide a representative for each requesting denominational institution, agency or board.

C. EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board shall act as the Association ad interim, except as limited by the constitution and bylaws of the Association.

D. COUNCILS

1. Fellowship Council

   The Association shall have a Fellowship Council whose purpose shall be to provide deliberate means of strengthening fellowship and to enhance mutual care among the churches.

2. Coordinating Council

   The Association shall have a Coordinating Council whose function shall be to coordinate the overall purpose and objectives of the Association as stated in Article II.

3. Mission Performance Councils

   The Association shall have Mission Performance Councils designed to accomplish the Association's purpose and objectives by assisting the churches in the various areas of program development (such as Sunday School, Church Training, Music Ministry, Brotherhood, WMU, Evangelism, Missions Development, Stewardship, etc.).

E. COMMITTEES

1. Standing Committees

The Association shall have standing committees whose purposes and functions shall be to perform appropriate administrative services for the Association as an organizational entity.

2. Special Committees

Proceedings

1985 Spring Meeting

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
April 28, 1985
6:30 P.M.

1. Pre-session music was provided by an associational choir directed by Brent Helton, Ardmore, and accompanied at the organ by Jim Bailiff, Winston-Salem First, and at the piano by Maleeta Spach, Ardmore.

2. Mrs. Velma McGee, moderator, convened the meeting and C. Irvin Grigg, clerk, moved that those already registered and those yet to register be seated as messengers o this spring meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. After a second, the motion was approved. Mr. Grigg reminded everyone of the registration procedure and requested that all those present register either as a messenger or guest.

3. J.L. Wilson, Order of Business Committee chairman, moved that the printed program be the order of business for this session with any changes deemed necessary by the moderator. There was a second and the motion was approved.

4. Rev. Walter Warfford, Ardmore, gave the invocation. Rev. Arnett Harris, Winston-Salem First associate pastor, welcomed the spring meeting to First Baptist Church on behalf of the church staff and the entire congregation.

5. Brent Helton led the congregation in singing "To God Be the Glory."

6. Leon Lasley, chairman of the Nominating Committee, gave one addition to the Committee on Committees report - Tim Wilkins, Fellowship, will fill the unexpired term on the Stewardship Committee. He then moved that both the report of the Nominating Committee and the Committee on Committees be adopted as printed with the one addition. There was a second and the motion was approved.

7. Paul Wonders, Becks, challenged all churches to get involved in the Planned Growth in Giving program. This program will be emphasized in Southern Baptist churches for the next 15 years as a means of deepening commitment and stewardship in individual lives and in our churches.

8. H.E. Barkley, Ardmore, reported the ASSISTeam has been involved in helping over half of the churches in our association with meeting their training needs. The team is anticipating super-September, which will be the culmination of the 8.5 by '85 emphasis. This will involve participating in People Search, reaching out to personally invite people to get involved in Bible study.

9. The associational choir sang, "It Is Well With My Soul." The congregation joined in the singing of the hymn, "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine."

10. Stephen Welborn, chairman of the Centennial Committee, gave a progress report on activities planned in celebrating the centennial of our association. These are included in his written report to the spring meeting. To whet our appetite, Mr. Welborn shared excerpts of the history being written by M.M. Goss. Peggy Neal portrayed Mrs. J.J. Roddick, who was WMU Director for 35 years in our association; and Ed Christman portrayed J.M. Johnson, long time pastor of Walnut Cove Baptist Church and moderator of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in the early fifties. Lewis Ludlum, associational historian, shared additional information about the dramas and monologues that are available to the churches for use in centennial celebration.

11. Irvin Grigg, chairman of the Fund Raising Subcommittee of the Resource Center Building Committee, presented the challenge of the Resource Center, noting that this spring meeting marks the official beginning of the fund raising campaign to build our own Resource Center. The need for this Resource Center has been well established by the Justification Subcommittee of the Office Survey and Planning Committee. Property has been acquired for the building and the challenge is to move ahead with making this Resource Center a reality. Current plans include breaking ground by the spring of 1986.

12. J.L. Wilson gave the offering challenge and announced that the offering would be given to the Resource Center fund. Ed Collette, a member of Winston-Salem First and of the Resource Center Construction Subcommittee, led in a prayer of thanksgiving and dedication of the offering, followed by the receiving of the offering.

13. Jim Hamblen, director of missions, made brief remarks about the planning for this spring meeting and how the Lord had led the committee in asking Mark Corts to preach. Billy Moreland of Peter's Creek Church was introduced by Mr. Hamblen. Mr. Moreland gave testimony of what God is doing in Peter's Creek Church. Spiritual growth has come through the MasterLife program from the Church Training Department. He noted that MasterLife has helped in Bible study, involved the church in prayer, affected the finances and made a great difference in the commitment of the members.

14. The anthem, "Victory in Jesus," was sung by the associational choir.

15. Mark Corts preached from the gospel of John, chapter 4, noting that Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman was a striking model for witnessing for all ages. Seeing the world through the eyes of Jesus Christ will cause Christians to be about the reaping of the fields that are white unto harvest. He said that we need to restructure our thinking processes, rethink our priorities, reassess our potential and begin to reap the harvest. An invitation to commitment to evangelism was extended and during the singing of the closing hymn, "Lord, Speak to Me, That I May Speak," many responded to the invitation committing themselves anew to the reaching of people for Jesus Christ.

16. Jack Noffsinger, Knollwood, led in a prayer of dedication and benediction. The meeting adjourned at 8:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Irvin Grigg, Clerk
Shirley C. Walker, Assistant Clerk

42. Dr. Walter Shurden addressed the group using a text from Matthew 11:16ff. He posed the question, "Is the church of Jesus Christ a buyer's market?" He noted that there are values to be affirmed and dangers to be avoided in saying that the church is a buyer's market. Part of our heritage as Baptists is to affirm the church to be a buyer's market. Baptists have stressed freedom of religion, and insisted on freedom "from" religion. If you don't want it, you don't have to have it. If you don't want it, you can't have it. We must continue to affirm the church as a buyer's market. Baptist heritage allows each individual and church to be autonomous in our beliefs as long as we don't negotiate on the principle that "Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior." Because of this common characteristic, we Baptists can and do work together with all our differences. We cannot always "have it our way" in Baptist churches, associations or conventions. We cannot have the gospel on our terms. We need to seek God's terms. We cannot fool ourselves by thinking we can have a gospel that does not cost us.

43. Jim Hamblen delivered the following charge to close this centennial meeting:

In just a few moments the 100th Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association will be history. Thus, our first century will be ended. And as we stand on the threshold of our next 100 years, let us pause and reflect on all that has been said today . . . and all that has taken place and been accomplished during this Centennial Year. It is my privilege to deliver this "charge" to all of us who make up the family of Baptists called the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

I charge you to: Remember our past . . . as we plan for our future . . . in order that we may meet the challenge and opportunities in the present. Let us build on that heritage with a careful stewardship so clearly described in Mack Goss' history of PMBA, Our History . . . Our Trust.

I charge you to: Join with all the leaders of PMBA in the commitment to assist the congregations to become what they believe God wants them to be, to faithfully follow His will to the best of their abilities, and to honor His Son, Jesus Christ, in all they attempt.

I charge you to: Join with me during this time of dedication to recommit yourself to the Father's Holy Purpose for our world. Let us dream new dreams for the future. Let us dare to reach for new heights in God's Kingdom work. Let us hold nothing back . . . but risk it all . . . that we may be able to say:

"To God be the Glory . . .
Great things He hath done!"

44. The meeting was adjourned at 9:10 p.m. with a prayer of dedication and benediction led by Stephen Welborn. Over 400 messengers and visitors registered.

Centennial Committee Presentation

Thursday evening - Centennial Annual Meeting
October 17, 1985

Organized at Red Bank Baptist Church on October 17, 1885, the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, originally consisting of 20 churches, has grown to 76 churches in Forsyth and Stokes counties comprising the third largest Baptist association in the state.

Such growth could not have occurred without the vision and leadership of certain key individuals. Dr. H.A. Brown, of the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, played not only a major role in the formation of the association but also in its subsequent development. Fred N. Day, Baptist layman, served as moderator for 25 years. J.M. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Walnut Cove, lent support and leadership from Stokes County. Mrs. J.J. Roddick was superintendent of the associational Woman's Missionary Union for 35 years. Lewis E. Ludlum's formative impact on the association has extended far beyond the 22 years he served as director of missions.

The past hasn't been without its share of frictions and difficulties. Anyone knowing anything about Baptist life knows the congregational rule of order can be much like a spiritual town meeting--democracy in its rawest form. Over the years the Pilot Mountain Association has witnessed spirited discussions over a wide gamut of issues: the name of the association, the role of missions and education, the teaching of evolution, separation of church and state, and even the playing of football at the old Wake Forest College.

Yet God's presence continued to give fruitfulness in souls won, churches planted, and ministries enlarged and extended.

What made the difference in terms of the vitality and purpose of the first one hundred years of the association? One finds, upon examination of the records, that the early leaders, despite their differences, shared certain common beliefs. They held a calm conviction in the full authority of the Bible as God's Word. On December 13, 1922 when the North Carolina Baptist State Convention met at Salem Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, Dr. William L. Poteat, president of Wake Forest College, held aloft a New Testament and proclaimed, "This is my faith and I affirm it!" They trusted that the future could actually be changed for the better if God's will was followed. They took God at His word when He commanded the gospel to be preached and ministered to all people. Most of all, as Manuel Cunnup has aptly stated, "they believed God . . .," truly believed that their loved ones and acquaintances were lost and doomed eternally unless they accepted Christ as Saviour.

However, as we commemorate the first 100 years of our association, God's Word contains a warning for this special time. The warning is implicit in the reaction of some of the Israelites to the laying of the foundation of the Temple of Zerubbabel after the return of the remnant from Babylonian bondage. In Ezra 3:10-13a the event and reactions are recorded: "and when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of A'saph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel. And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noice of the weeping of the people . . . ."

The problem of weeping at a celebration event is clarified by the prophet Haggai in chapter 2, verse 3: "Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do you see it now? is it not in your eyes in the comparison of it as nothing?" The weeping was being done by those who had seen the Solomonic temple and now wept at the smallness and diminutiveness of the Zerubbabel temple. The indictment is not against old age but against an attitude that can afflict any age. It is an attitude that we pastors must confront, sometimes in our own minds and in the minds of our parishioners.

It is the attitude that the past is invariably better than the present. It is the feeling that God cannot bless us now as He has in the past. It is the belief that the best is completely behind us, that the future can only be diminishment.

Haggai stated God's message to the weepers: ". . . the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory . . . The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former" (2:7-9).

The little temple of Zerubbabel would centuries later form the structural nucleus of the better-known Herodian temple. And the Herodian temple would be filled with the glory of the personal presence of the Lord Jesus Christ in his Triumphal Entry.

In the afternoon session I wore black since that was the accepted color of worship attire in 1885. Tonight I am wearing white in anticipation of the future, the unwritten page, the unmarred slate. As we celebrate and thank God for our past, we must examine our present and anticipate our future.

In counting our present assets let me begin by stating that God gave us Jim Hamblen. This is not apple-polishing but simply a frank recognition of the sovereignty of God in our association. Those of you who served on the Search Committee will testify how God shut doors and opened this one. Jim is truly a servant of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us affirm that we have an association rich in willing people and blessed of God with material resources to provide and carry out ministries. We are one of the largest associations in North Carolina. We have the potential to be one of the greatest associations in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Let us also reaffirm the promise of Hebrews 13:5, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever."

Like the temple of Zerubbabel, our association will find the glory of God not so much in the times or the size of structures but in the presence of Jesus Christ.

May God bless the next one hundred years of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The following is a major portion of two addresses made by Mack Goss at "Back to Red Bank Day (August 19, 1985) and the 100th Annual Meeting of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association (October 17, 1985). It is included for its historical value to the observance of our centennial.

Faith of Our Fathers: Our History, Our Trust

The oldest body of cooperating Baptist churches is the association. As the 50 tiny Baptist churches in England—threatened, perhaps angry, but determined—drew close together for fellowship, instruction and protection, an association came into being. No exact date can be assigned to the actual beginning of the association, but it was about 1650.

It is just about as difficult to say from whence the name association came. Some historians think the name was borrowed from Cromwell's Revolutionary army. Those military people did have associations, and there were many Baptists in the Cromwell forces. Also, some authorities think the mere fact that representatives of the little church met - associated - gave rise to associations. They associated; hence, associations.

Suffice it to say, associations are more than 1½ centuries older than the oldest convention. In 1814, prodded by Luther Rice, 33 messengers from 11 states and the District of Columbia, met at Philadelphia to organize the "General Missionary Convention of the Baptist Denomination in the United States of America for Foreign Missions." Because the name was so long and because that convention met every three years, it is commonly called the "Triennial Convention." "The Triennial Convention was organized," said William Bullein Johnson (pastor of the Baptist Church of Savannah, Georgia), "to elicit, combine and direct the energies of the whole denomination in one sacred effort, for the propagation of the Gospel." The immediate need met by that convention was support for Dr. and Mrs. Adoniram Judson in Burma. The story is well known. The Judsons, Rice, Samuel Nott, Gordon Hall, and Samuel Newell were appointed missionaries to India in 1812 by Congregationalists. Rice and the Judsons had converted to the Baptist position and so resigned from the American Board of Commissioners, the Congregational Board. The overall objective of the Triennial Convention was to foster all missions. However, the immediate purpose was to support the Judsons

Keep in mind that from 1650 until 1814, associations had done missions. For instance, in 1792 William Carey, speaking at the association meeting at Nottingham, inspired Baptists to begin the Modern Missionary Movement. Always the aim of organized Baptist work has been to "elicit, combine and direct the energies of the denomination, for the propagation of the Gospel."

It is tempting in this setting to devote too much time to our beginnings and not leave enough time to tell of the intervening years in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association By now, surely most of us know that this association was organized at the Red Bank Baptist Church on October 17, 1885. It was composed of 20 churches, 15 of which had belonged to the Beulah and five to the Yadkin Associations. Those two associations had previously served about one-fifth of North Carolina. Only slight reflection suggests the need for a smaller area. Whereas the Beulah had served nine counties, now the Pilo Mountain served four (Stokes, Rockingham, Surry, Forsyth). In 1903 the Surry Association was formed and in 1947 the Dan Valley came into being. Today, the PMBA primarily serves Stokes and Forsyth.

Previously we have recognized Dr. Henry Alfred Brown, 40 years pastor of the Firs Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, as the "star player" on the "Baptist team." Today, want to focus upon some people who were exceedingly useful team members.

S.F. CONRAD

Attention is called to the "pre-session" meeting of August 1885 at the Lewisville Baptist Church, where S.F. Conrad was pastor. Both at the pre-session and the organization meeting Conrad manifested characteristics that cause us to sense his genuineness. For instance, he was nominated as a member of the Executive Committee, but withdrew in favor of C.R. Orrender, superintendent of the Sunday School at Macedonia, one of the four churches he was serving as pastor. In addition to Lewisville and Macedonia, Conrad also served as pastor at Red Bank and West Bend. Knowing how things work, I can imagine that Conrad and some of the brethren had conferred about a new organization. Imagine with me: Conrad proposed that an ad hoc committee meet at his (Lewisville) church to plan for the organizational meeting. During that meeting what would be more normal than for the same Conrad to invite the group to meet at Red Bank, another church where he was pastor, for the formal organization?

If Dr. Brown may be compared to the quarterback, or player-coach, I visualize S.F. Conrad as a utility player. He fitted in, playing, so to say, many positions. He often did what no one else remembered to do. He made motions to authorize the treasurer to pay bills, or he would introduce a resolution to thank host churches for hospitality, etc. Conrad led in erecting a building for the Baptist Church at Walnut Cove, and was carrying the debt personally. The association raised some money to pay part of the debt.

Conrad had been a minister 60 years when he died in Charlotte August 11, 1932, at age 86. He had served as pastor of 26 churches; built 14 churches, and helped build 200 others. Some of the churches he served were Walnut Cove, Shiloh (Pinnacle), Mt. Tabor, Mocksville, Greensboro, Lexington, Red Bank, Waughtown, Brown Memorial, Abbott's Creek, — on and on.

For a great many years this versatile and modest minister had been pastor in Charlotte. When he died in 1932 his funeral was conducted by W.L. Griggs, his successor at the Ninth Avenue Baptist Church; assisted by C.W. Durden, St. John's Baptist; W.H. Williams,, Pritchard Memorial; Luther Little, First Baptist; and L.R. Pruett, a former pastor of the Ninth Avenue Church. He was buried in the family plot in the Salem Cemetery in Winston-Salem.

COLUMBUS DURHAM

C. Durham, the 19th Corresponding Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, made a vital contribution to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. He was no doubt a brilliant man. He had common sense and deep commitment to the Christian mission as embodied by Baptists. He died as a young man, having served only seven years as Corresponding Secretary.

Word reached Durham that the Baptist Church of Greensboro wanted to call W.R. Gwaltney away from Winston. Durham knew that the Greensboro Church had made little progress for the 20 or more years of its life. Indeed, that congregation had greatly depended upon the State Mission Board to keep going. Gwaltney was coming to be known as one of the outstanding young ministers in North Carolina. Now Greensboro wanted him. Said Columbus Durham, "Greensboro wants a whale and doesn't have enough water to float a minnow!" They called Gwaltney, nonetheless, and in a few years they more than doubled the membership and quadrupled their gifts. Greensboro has been a leader in gifts through all the years.

W.M. POTEAT

Dr. Poteat attended 11 sessions of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The impact of this bright, warm, human, Christian gentleman on the association can only be imagined. He was connected with Wake Forest College 54 years as student, teacher and president. Perhaps no other person ever exerted a greater influence on the college or, for that matter, on North Carolina Baptist life.

He was to speak at a session of the State Baptist Convention in Winston-Salem December 12, 1922. Poteat was under fire because he saw no conflict between science and faith. During that convention he stayed in the home with Dr. and Mrs. W.A. Newell, long-time friends. Newell was Presiding Elder of the Winston-Salem District of the Methodist Church.

Newell knew of Poteat's enemies, and gave him a New Testament in which he had inscribed, "This is my faith and I affirm it." Dr. Poteat read that affirmation before the convention when he stood to give his address. That temporarily silenced the opposition.

Allen Easley relates a story which W.R. Cullom told him. Cullom said that he attended that convention and was sitting on the front pew beside a man who had in hand a resolution he was waiting to read to the convention asking the convention to petition the Wake Forest trustees to fire President Poteat. But after Poteat held aloft the New Testament declaring, "This is my faith and I affirm it" the brother folded his papers, stuffed them into his pocket and mumbled, "Nobody could pass anything after that performance!"

SEPARATE AND REGULAR BAPTISTS

When Shubal Stearns and 15 other Separate Baptists settled at Sandy Creek, Randolph County, in 1755, the Baptist Zion was changed, never to be the same again. So much has been said and written about the effects of the Separates on all Southern Baptist life, I will not say more here, except to quote G.W. Paschal: "Separate Baptists have proved to be the most remarkable body of Christians America has known. Their fervent missionary and evangelizing zeal prompted them to leave New England homes not knowing where they went, only knowing they were led by the Spirit of the Lord." (Paschal, History of N.C. Baptists, Vol. 1, pp. 140-141, General Board, N.C. Baptist Convention). Separate Baptists left a heritage to be reckoned with. However, the Philadelphia-Charleston tradition also had a great influence in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. The Philadelphia Association was organized in 1707 and the Charleston in 1751. The English influence was much felt in the Philadelphia Association and, subsequently, in the Charleston Association. In these associations there was no less commitment to the priesthood of the believer, autonomy of local churches, and separation of church and state, and other major Baptist beliefs.

Separate Baptists, heirs of the Great Awakening, were very evangelistic and missionary. Descendants of Philadelphia-Charleston placed more emphasis on education, culture and refinement than Separates did. Separate Baptists gave us ardor while Philadelphia-Charleston gave us order. Furman, Mercer and Wake Forest, et al, were products primarily of the Philadelphia-Charleston wing. Wake Forest College exerted tremendous influence on the PMBA and, while Separates' influence spilled over into all Southern Baptist life, the Charleston influence was felt here very much. Indeed, it still is.

A brief word about the headwaters of the Philadelphia-Charleston spirit. Oliver Hart, a product of the Philadelphia Association, whose model came from England, became pastor of the Charleston Baptist Church in 1750 and then in 1751 led in organizing the Charleston Association, the oldest in the South. Now, American Baptists were linked together in spirit and practices. Hart started a program of education for ministers in 1754. It could not be said that this was the beginning of Furman University. However, programs grow and expand. Eventually Baptist colleges and theological seminaries were brought into being. Wake Forest sprang up in that milieu. This is a capsule version of a ong and significant chapter in Baptist life.

Although the spirit of the Philadelphia and Charleston Associations impinged upon us here in Piedmont North Carolina and, although the Separate Baptists influenced us as it has all Southern Baptists, we must not overlook the fact that many diverse forces have left their mark on us. We cannot list all those forces. For one thing, we cannot identify them all. It is important for us to remember that we are inevitably influenced by what has gone before us and what is going on around us. In other words, "Today is a child of yesterday, and today will be the parent of tomorrow." The principle of continuity is observed here. Hence, we should remember who were our ecclesiastical and theological forebears. In the family of Baptists we see some who resemble the Separates more; some bear the marks of Philadelphia-Charleston; and some look more like landmarkers; some, the primitives, etc. These family "genes" persist in different proportions, and show up sometimes in surprising places.

F.M. Jordan, whom M.A. Huggins called "the Prince of State Missionaries" came to Winston in 1871 hoping to start a Baptist church. Moravians came to the area almost 120 years before. They were well established. Said one Moravian brother: "I doubt that Baptists can make it, for they have only factory hands, washer women and yard men!" Possibly Baptists are not impartial judges as to whether we "made it." That brother had not reckoned with F.M. Jordan who secured the use of the courthouse and later a schoolhouse where he held services for a while. It was reported that one Sunday they had communion and the congregation sat in the jury box!

Jordan led the church to secure a lot near the present county jail and city hall in Winston-Salem, where they started to build. However, Jordan felt that he must move on, so he went elsewhere. W.R. Gwaltney was called and came as pastor of the Winston Church in 1874 and stayed three years. That was long enough to complete the building that had been started under Jordan's leadership. From Winston, Gwaltney moved to the Greensboro Baptist Church, as has been seen.

Older people tell of Pastor H.A. Brown, Gwaltney's successor, making his rounds, calling on people in their homes. He walked almost everywhere and, although there may not have been a cloud in the sky, he might be seen wearing rubbers, and carrying an umbrella. Gilbert Stephenson, Brown's biographer, called him "The Pastor Beloved." Dr. Brown's unique leadership is an inspiring part of our history. We commend Stephenson's biography to you.

One pastor, whom for obvious reasons we do not identify, was known as a great money raiser. So famous was he that he attracted much attention for getting money from people who were not in the habit of giving money to churches. An apocryphal story about this gentleman was told, which we summarize here:

A wee laddie swallowed a coin, which became stuck in his throat. The frantic family had a difficult time locating a doctor to extricate the coin. Some buffoon observed, "They should have called Rev.   , who would have talked that money right out of him!"

W.R. Grigg was discouraged with things generally and called Marshall Mott of Ardmore to ask if he might come to talk. "Come on," said Mott. W.R. said, "I know you can't do a thing, but it will help me to talk it out." Then he told his story, after which he asked Pastor Mott, "What would you do?" Said Mott, "You can't do what I'd do. I would tell the whole crowd where to go and resign!" He said again, "You can't do that because you don't have two weeks of groceries laid up!"

R.E. Adams, 22 years pastor at Mineral Springs, was in the narthex of the building at the end of a Sunday morning worship service greeting the people as they hurried past him to get in line at the cafeteria, when there came pushing into the crowd against the flow of traffic, a bewhiskered brother. The man pushed and shoved his way up to Adams and, taking him by the lapels of the coat, said, "Brother Lewd-Lum sent me to you." Then he explained why. The man had gone to see Lewis Ludlum earlier in the day to solicit his agreement to sponsor the bearded one's favorite evangelist in an association-wide revival. Ludlum had sent him to R.E. Adams, chairman of the Committee on Evangelism.

Brother Adams got rid of the man as soon as possible by saying, "Monday morning our pastors meet. I'll mention this to the ministers." At the time for general business in the pastor's meeting, Adams told of the bearded one and his promise to mention the request to the ministers. "Now," said Adams, "I have mentioned it, and I suggest that we think no more of it!" The pastors all laughed, and for a long time some of them addressed Lewis Ludlum as "Brother Lewd-Lum."

FRED DAY

Fred Day had the distinction of holding the office of moderator longer than any other. In fact, he was moderator 25 years, one-fourth of our history. His tenure extended from 1912 to 1936. He was an ordained minister, but more, he was a successful jewelry store operator in Winston-Salem.

Day conducted 522 revivals in his lifetime and they resulted in 9,514 baptisms. He kept careful records of everything, including the honoraria from all his revivals. These offerings amounted to $28,527, and he gave every cent of that money to religious education or other benevolent causes.

Mr. Day enjoyed telling of influences in his life which nudged him toward the ministry. Let this one memory suffice. The famous Elias Dodson, a missionary for the Beulah Association and N.C. Baptist Convention, visited Day's home when he was a lad, as did other preachers. Memories of those visits remained with Fred Day. He especially remembered how Elias Dodson would say to people, "Give me a dollar for Indian missions!" One day a merchant gave Dodson a nice suit of clothes. He looked at it and said, "Too fine, Brother, too fine. Give me a cheaper suit and give me the difference for Indian missions." Such an obsession impressed Day and challenged him all his life.

PATTERSON AVENUE MINISTRY

Clarence Everhart, second pastor of the Patterson Avenue Mission, related a story to the writer we think you may be interested in.

A woman came to Sunday School and worship every Sunday, but left in the middle of the service. Fearing that something was wrong, Everhart mentioned his concern. It developed that she left early to prepare her husband's lunch, for if lunch was late, he beat her. The minister suggested that he talk with the man. She begged him to say nothing, for her husband was so mean he would beat her more than ever. Still, the pastor was troubled. He learned all he could about the man. One day, with all the courage he could muster, he called upon the man. As Everhart expected, the man was rude and stormed out: "Who sent you here?" The pastor calmly said, "I hear you like to fish." Then he wondered out loud if the man would take him fishing. Soon Mr.

Everhart left. But in a few days he visited again—then again and again. Each time the man was calmer, and came to be cordial. Ere long he came to church with his wife and before many weeks the two made professions of faith.

The writer, knowing that people joining the church united with the First Baptist Church on Fifth Street, asked if they followed through to church membership. Everhart said, "She did." "And what about the man?" asked the writer. "No, for you see, the next week the man died."

MRS. J.J. RODDICK

The associational WMU was begun in 1898. For almost a quarter century, women wrote their reports for the association but men read and discussed "women's work." Now and then a pastor such as R.E. White, pastor at Leaksville (1912-17), read reports and spoke "for the sisters." His address to the association at the 1914 session reflects an attitude which was much ahead of his time! He said many good things about the place of women in the work of the church. If he spoke thus at a Southern Baptist Convention in 1985, he just might be booed off the stage.

Basing his remarks on the spirit and teachings of the Master, he referred interestingly to women touched by Jesus, and their subsequent influence. Some of those people's names are recorded: Mary, Martha, Dorcas, Joanna, Susanna, and, of course, Lydia. White said, "When Baptist history is written, one of the brightest spots is the work of Baptist women. The achievements of women is cause for pride." White leads us to pause and ask what would be the status of mission work among Southern Baptists had it not been for the knowledge, commitment and leadership of women in this endeavor. "If every Baptist were to give as do the women," said White, "our gifts would more than double."

Mrs. J.J. Roddick has been brought to the attention of this group on several occasions, and with justification. She did more than serve as Superintendent of the Woman's Missionary Union for 35 years. She led in raising funds to furnish nurses home and hospital rooms at the Baptist Hospital. In token of appreciation for this magnificent lady, the association minutes of 1950 were dedicated to her. On page 7 of those minutes is a photograph of Mrs. Roddick with an appropriate expression of appreciation for her.

The number of noble people who have rendered extraordinary service to kingdom enterprises is beyond counting. We cannot name them all. But I feel that I must mention Mrs. W.K. McGee. Not only has she served as vice moderator of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, she is completing her term of service as moderator at this Centennial Session of the association. Moreover, she has served twice as Superintendent of the WMU Associational Organization. Beyond this, she served five years as president of the State WMU. More yet, Mrs. McGee has been vice president of the National WMU and on the Executive Committee ten years. Mrs. McGee has demonstrated repeatedly unusual ability and leadership.

EDUCATION

The church is the mother of education and arts. Although the church "mothered" education, the public sector helped "rear" some educational institutions. Baptists have generally advocated a broadbased education, requiring public support. The University of North Carolina is a chain of 16 campuses covering the state. There are 30 non-public colleges in the state, including Campbell, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest University, and Wingate. Also, N.C. Baptists own Chowan Junior College.

Secondary education in the public sector was at a low level in 1885. Let us focus briefly on two academies which met needs for a season. When public schools made Baptist academies obsolete, they either closed or converted to other uses. Fruitland and Mars Hill are two of several illustrations we might cite.

Fruitland Institute, founded in 1896 at Hendersonville, functioned as a high school for more than 30 years. A story of rare sacrifice to save Fruitland is recalled. W.F. Powell, a recent graduate of Wake Forest, arrived at Fruitland in 1898 to become principal. Robert Freeman, the man Powell was to deal with, told Powell there was no money so school could not open. During their initial conversation, Freeman mentioned a possible sale of Chimney Rock, which the Freemans owned. "The Rock" was sold for $3,000 to a man who wished to convert it into a tourist attraction. All that money was given to Fruitland and the school was saved. Today Fruitland Bible Institute is located at the spot where once stood the academy. The Bible Institute is operated by the Baptist State Convention to train pastors who go into the ministry late in life, and who lack college training.

French Broad Baptist Institute opened in 1856. This school became Mars Hill. The school building was about to be sold by foreclosure. To secure the building J.W. Anderson, secretary of the trustees, put up a slave named Joe, as security. The debt was paid and Joe was returned to Anderson. Joe Anderson's body is buried on the Mars Hill campus in recognition of his role in the school's history.

There is more to the story. Miss Oralene Graves, of Asheville, the great-great-granddaughter of Joe Anderson, was the first black student to enroll at Mars Hill. That was in 1961. In 1985, Mrs. Oralene Graves Simmons works in the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of Asheville.

In accepting the assignment to write the history of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, we determined to focus on the people aspect of the story. It is hoped that we have not neglected organizations, institutions and churches. It is obvious that some of the people in this story walk out of these pages and become your warm friends.

Let me thank, with a special word of thanks, Calvin Knight, W.E. Pettit, and W.R. Grigg. They did stories on the Baptist Hospital, Baptist Homes, and Lewis E. Ludlum for the history. Their perspective and insights have made an invaluable contribution to the story of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Further, there are almost countless people I have talked with, who have been patient with my questions and careful with their answers.

To Mrs. Florence Bowen and a couple of noble friends who request anonymity, thank you for your help with grammar, spelling and composition. My indebtedness knows no limits.

And now, at the end of 100 years, let us all welcome heartily the second century. Hats off to the past; and coats off to the future!

REPORTS

Audit Committee

Following is the report of Ronald P. Collins, CPA, that was presented and accepted at the Executive Committee meeting February 18, 1985. The Audit Committee was responsible for securing this outside audit for the association. We anticipate that an outside audit will be made annually.

Submitted by:
Ike Worrell, Chairman

RONALD P. COLLINS, CPA

I have examined the statement of revenues, expenditures and changes in fund balances of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the period November 1, 1983 through December 31, 1984. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the association's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the financial statements referred to above are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the revenues collected and expenditures made and changes in fund balances of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for the period November 1, 1983 through December 31, 1984 on the basis of accounting described in Note 1 to the financial statements, which basis has been applied in a consistent manner.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 1984
PILOT MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
Exhibit B

Note 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

(a) Basis of Accounting.

The Pilot Mountain Baptist Association uses the cash basis of accounting in reporting cash receipts and disbursements. Consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

Note 2. REPORTING PERIOD:

The Association changed its reporting year end from October 31 to Decembe 31. Therefore, the financial statements presented are for a fourteen month period beginning November 1, 1983 and ending December 31, 1984.

Brotherhood

This has been a good year for the Brotherhood in many ways. We have been fortunate in forming a Brotherhood Council consisting of your Brotherhood Director, Odell Childress; Baptist Men's President, Marion Rector; Mission Activity Leader, Harol Southern; and Mission Study Leader, Jimmy Underwood.

Fifty men attended our 1985 Brotherhood Training Seminar at College Park Baptis September 9. We thank the pastor, Charles Edwards, and his associate, Larry Freeman, for allowing us the use of their church for the past three years.

Men and boys of many of the churches in our association have been involved an have distinguished themselves in the West Virginia Covenant, Caswell Project and Tog Mission. We are proud of them for the commitment they have shown.

We have enjoyed working with the WMU through their leader, Marjorie Turner.

We were privileged in visiting the following churches last year: Quaker Gap, West Side, Macedonia, Forsyth Park, and Lewisville. Some began new Brotherhood organizations in their churches. For others it was a time of fellowship and inspiration. We are truly grateful for the revival of interest in involving men and boys in missions.

The Brotherhood and Baptist Men Council are ready and willing to serve your needs. Your associational Brotherhood thanks you for encouragement and support in the past year.

Centennial Committee

On October 17, 1885, Dr. H.A. Brown preached the introductory sermon from Isaiah 25:1-2: "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things: thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth . . . ."

Over the 100 years of its existence the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has found by experience that God's plans formed of old are indeed faithful and true. The Centennial Committee has met formally nine times during the past associational year to structure various ways of celebrating our 100 years and God's abiding presence and leadership during that time.

Events of our centennial year have included a Youth Choir Christmas Concert, a one-day family fellowship at Sandy Creek Church, an associational choir festival and a special Executive Committee meeting at Red Bank Church on August 19, 1985 in which the Rev. M.M. Goss delivered the address "Faith of Our Fathers, Part I." Centennial dramas and historical monologues have been prepared and made available for church presentations.

The 100th annual meeting is scheduled for October 17, 1985 at Wait Chapel on the Wake Forest University campus. In addition to the address, "Faith of Our Fathers, Part II," Dr. Walter Shurden, professor of church history at Mercer University, will be a primary speaker.

A key feature of this year of celebration has been the publication of A History of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, by M.M. Goss. Dr. Clifton Allen has contributed invaluably to this work as chairman of the publications subcommittee.

Of special aid to this committee has been the imagination, zeal, and drive of Lewis Ludlum, without whom many of the celebratory events would never have been conceived.

The Centennial Committee acknowledges with deep gratefulness all the individuals and churches who have aided in giving this centennial year its proper perspective in the light of history and its bright hopes toward the future lit by the God who is ever the great "I Am."

Church-Community Ministries Committee

The Church-Community Ministries Committee has met monthly during the past year at the associational office, sharing lunch, and making plans which concerned our committee. We have been very busy and have carried out many worthwhile events.

In April we sponsored our first Adult Handicapped Retreat, which was very successful with 78 persons in attendance. We have already been asked to do this again next year. Much planning and preparation went into this with Nell Gilmer being instrumental in helping with the event.

We sponsored a booth at the Council for Older Adults Seminar, which represented our association well. We sponsored and employed a summer missionary, Mary Agner, who carried out the Backyard Bible Clubs during her 10 weeks of employment this summer.

Plans are being made at this time to sponsor a workshop to inform our area about the needs of the poor and hungry and the resources available to them. We have considered being supportive to the Habitat for Humanity which has just begun in Winston-Salem. Decisions concerning this will be forthcoming during the next year. We have supported other community events; such as CROP WALK and the King Outreach Ministry.

Please continue to pray that next year we will find God's will for our committee as we seek ways to help those who need us in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association area.

Church Extension Committee

The Church Extension Committee has experienced a fruitful year with several significant achievements to be reported.

The Victory Baptist Church has been under watchcare of the association and will be received into full fellowship during our annual meeting.

Becks' Satellite Mission plans are continuing to develop. An excellent site has been purchased east of Highway 52 near Rural Hall. Immediate plans called for a VBS to be conducted this summer by the Becks congregation.

Dan River Mission is progressing well. During the year they have averaged 30-35 in worship. The congregation is in stable condition financially and will request watchcare status at the annual association meeting.

The Korean Mission is in its second year of work. This congregation meets in Reich Chapel of the First Baptist Church, the sponsoring church, and is under the able pastoral leadership of Seong Soo Kim. One outstanding event this year has been the merging of the Korean congregation in Winston-Salem with the Korean congregation in High Point. The combined congregation meets in Winston-Salem. This merger has increased the numbers and greatly strengthened the work.

The Spanish Mission is continuing to flourish. This year has seen a change of pastors. John Jones resigned to continue his seminary training and he is succeeded by Carlos Oliveros.

Church Secretaries Conference

This year saw the reorganization of a much needed conference for church secretaries. Twenty secretaries and one guest were present for the first meeting on March 14. Jim Hamblen, PMBA director of missions, challenged those present with an inspiring message on "Pegs to Hang on To."

Sandy Tatum, a member of Calvary Baptist Church, spoke on "How to Deal with Stress" at our meeting on May 16.

At the July meeting, Mike Bradshaw of Crisis Control Ministry and member of Ardmore shared information and guidelines on "How to Deal with People in Crisis Situations."

At the September meeting the secretaries were joined by the PMBA Ministers Conference for an associational Tax Seminar. This was led by Mr. Leon Rumley, a member of Winston-Salem First.

The purpose of this organization is to encourage individual growth and professional excellence; to provide support and fellowship for its members; to develop a better understanding of the church secretary's duties and responsibilities and to offer continuing education opportunities pertaining to her specific work; and to encourage, assist, and support one another in our unique field, thereby deepening the spiritual enrichment of its members.

The conference meets bimonthly on a Thursday at 12:00 noon in January, March, May, July, September and November. Exceptions to these dates and times may be made when necessary with adequate notices to members.

Leaders for this year have been: president, Joyce Love, West Side; vice-president, Helen Johnson, Pfafftown; secretary-treasurer, Clara Johnston, Konnoak. Program Committee: Joyce Simmons, King First; Judi Crouse, Northwest; Nancy Sebastian, Bethany. Publicity: Peggy Hall, associational office; Anna Shull, Main Street; and Pat Koontz, Edgewood.

Church Training

Church Training continues to see marked growth as we continue to upgrade materials at the associational office Resource Center. Pilot Mountain Association had two churches to participate in the Children's Bible Drill, one church to participate in the Youth Bible Drill, and now ranks in the top ten associations in North Carolina for church training growth - churches reporting a church training program. In addition, several new equipping centers have been purchased, making a total of 25 equipping centers available for loan to associational churches.

Our plans for 1985-86 include further upgrading of equipment, as a joint effort with the Media Library Committee. A church training growth seminar with Mrs. Ruth Prince, church training growth consultant of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, is planned in area churches in May 1986. We also hope to schedule an interpretation training in the fall of 1986.

The Church Training team is available to help answer questions, or give input at any time. The team includes Rev. Mike Willard, Mrs. Natalie Birdsong, Mrs. Earline Brett, and Mr. Jake Gray. We are grateful for the privilege of serving our association.

Committee on Committees

Our committee has worked diligently to match people and positions to provide strong, balanced leadership for our association. This year we have worked closely with the Nominating Committee in an effort to coordinate our work and in preparation for our anticipated constitutional revision. We have filled 150 positions with: 59 churches represented (41 - Forsyth and 18 - Stokes); 108 men and 42 women; 69 ministers and 81 laypersons. We have also sought to build a leadership file of personal preferences for associational involvement. We encourage every pastor, staff member, and interested lay person to complete a "preference form" to be kept on file in the Resource Center. It is our hope that our association will continue to move forward because of our efforts.

Constitution Committee

Since January 19, 1984, this committee has engaged in evaluating proposed revisions to the constitution of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association upon its determination that there was a broadly held opinion in the association that revisions were in order. The committee adopted as a guiding principle that revisions offered as the result of our evaluations would "allow the constitution to be more of an organic document of the association, descriptive of and responsive to the needs and goals of the association as it seeks to assist churches on mission in their individual settings," and that such proposed revisions would be submitted to the association in accordance with stipulations of the present constitution. The committee solicited suggestions for revisions from the association at large and considered the proposals of respondents.

The revised constitution which is submitted to the association departs from the current constitution in some major characteristics. It is not a single document; rather, it is a three-part set of documents based on current associational design and the need for operational flexibility within the limits of generally fixed organizational design. This structure provides for a brief, general charter document (i.e., the Constitution), a set of Bylaws which describe functionally the association's organizational structure, and an Operations Manual, which will include policies and procedures of specific workgroups. The Operations Manual provided by this structure must be generated by the individual workgroups of the association and be tested by use in the organization.

The committee believes this three-part structure engenders a healthy balance in associational documentation while allowing such documentation to be dynamically responsive to the needs and goals of the association.

This committee has worked earnestly in their task, and is grateful for the prayer support we have received. We are also grateful to the Strategy Planning Committee for their early definitive support, and to those persons and workgroups who have provided definitions and information, as well as proposed revisions. We thank Boyce Wilson, Jim Hamblen, and the associational staff for continued assistance.

Cooperative Ministries Committee

Continuing the four decades of relationships among the leadership of black and white churches in this area has been the focus of attention of this committee during this past year. The joint committee composed of representatives from Rowan Baptist Association and Pilot Mountain Baptist Association have met twice exploring the possibilities of working together during the "Good News America" simultaneous revivals.

Although it was agreed not to proceed in this type of cooperative evangelistic campaign, the members continued to search for concrete ways to remove the barriers which hinder the work of "God's Kingdom" in this area. Many of the following suggestions which were offered in last year's annual report are still valid as goals to be reached in this joint effort:

1. Observe Race Relations Day in most of the churches in both associations
2. Pulpit exchanges between black and white congregations
3. Participation in joint ministers' conferences
4. Companion churches for joint project within the community
5. Improved cooperation in Pastors' Schools and Seminary Extension work
6. Provide opportunities for leadership development in the areas of Sunday School, Church Training, women's work, men's work, youth activities and community ministries
7. Some type of joint meeting between the two associations
8. Continuing efforts to get fully acquainted as persons and leaders in our Lord's work.

While we may have come a long way in relationships, there is a long way to go. Our Director of Missions has represented us well in the Baptist Ministers and Associates Conference as well as the Rowan Baptist Association. He has been accepted as a member of both organizations.

Please continue to pray for and support cooperative endeavors in this area of work.

Evangelism Committee

The Evangelism Committee focused on two major concerns during the 1984-85 associational year. The first was our spring session of the associational meeting in which evangelism through the local church was emphasized. An inspiring service of music was provided by a choir made up of choir members from churches in the association under the direction of Brent Helton, associational music director, and Don Bearden, associate. Personal testimonies concerning evangelism in some of our churches were given and Mark Corts, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, delivered the sermon which emphasized local church evangelism. The service was concluded with a challenge for all present to become more committed to evangelism in the local church and community. To further emphasize the role of the local church in evangelism, we held this session of our associational meeting in historic First Baptist Church, downtown Winston-Salem.

The second focus of attention for the Evangelism Committee was organizing and planning a strategy for the "Good News America" campaign scheduled for April 6-13, 1986. Ray Hamilton, pastor of Konnoak Baptist Church, was selected to serve as chairman of the Good News America Committee. Plans for Scripture distribution and People Search have been set and publicized for the week of October 20-26. The Evangelism Committee is pleased and excited with the response of the churches in the PMBA in choosing to participate in this evangelistic thrust.

Executive Director of Missions

This past year has been one of the most significant years in my ministry. From the way many of you have worked during this Centennial Year, we can assume you have experienced a similar commitment and dedication to mission through the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

The fellowship among the "family" of 77 Baptist congregations continues to grow and the mutual support given to these congregations and individuals from those congregations are apparent at each gathering. The spring meeting of the association which focused on evangelism is a good example. Almost a thousand attended this event held at the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem on Sunday, April 28.

The "Return to Red Bank" celebration in August saw almost 300 in attendance. As we looked to our heritage we prepare to dream about the next century. Between these two stack-poles, our past and our future, we have the opportunity to meet the outstanding challenge of the present.

While the "Centennial Events" such as: The spring evangelistic rally; The Sandy Creek Festival; The "Back to Red Bank" Celebration; The writing and publishing of the PMBA history, A History of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association by Mack Goss; The fund-raising drive for the Lewis Ludlum Baptist Resource Center which will house the associational offices and meeting rooms; have consumed much of our attention, much has been taking place without fanfare. One of the most significant accomplishments has been the completion of the revision of our Constitution and Bylaws. This will enable the conferences, councils, and committees to assist the congregations to attempt to do that which the Father intends them to accomplish.

Visiting each congregation, especially on significant occasions, has provided the rich opportunity to see the magnificent diversity in God's Kingdom Work. To assist those congregations in difficult times has been as fulfilling as joining in their joys and celebrations.

The next few years will give us opportunity to address the opportunities and challenges and meet those needs that are all around us. The planning process will reveal our objectives, goals and action plans. Please plan to offer suggestions and correction to our decision-making process.

Finally, "thank you" for allowing me to serve with you to attempt to fulfill GOD'S Will more authentically, effectively and efficiently to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In His Name,
Jim Hamblen, Executive Director

Ministers Conference

The Ministers Conference is composed of pastors, church staff persons, retired ministers, and staff from local Baptist institutions: Baptist Hospital, Baptist Retirement Homes and Wake Forest University. The conference met nine times during the year in churches throughout the association: Union Grove, Griffith, Knollwood, Antioch, King First, Calvary, College Park, Fellowship and Winston-Salem First.

Fellowship is a major objective of the conference and is encouraged through a fellowship hour prior to the meeting and lunch together in the host church following the session. A Valentine banquet for ministers and spouses was held at Calvary. On two occasions during the year joint sessions were also held with ministers from the Rowan Baptist Association. They were our guests for a meeting and meal in December. We joined the meeting of the Baptist Ministers' Conference and Associates in May and were their guests for lunch.

Programs in the 1984-85 year addressed a wide range of topics and issues: Ministering to the Poor, Staff Relations, Coping with Depression, the Minister's Spiritual Growth, Ministerial Leadership Styles, Avoiding Stagnation in the Pastorate, and Conflict in the Church. Guest program leaders from outside our association were Dr. Robert Dale of Southeastern Seminary and Dr. Maham Siler, pastor of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church in Raleigh.

Ministers' Mates

This past year the name of our group was changed from "Ministers' Spouses" to "Ministers' Mates." Our theme for the year was "Getting to Know You." We enjoyed sharing our handmade crafts, food tastes, humorous experiences, and what color can do for your total look.

In order for our working members to join us, we had two breakfast meetings on Saturday mornings, a covered dish dinner at night, and a Valentine's banquet with our mates. Closing out our year with a covered dish luncheon put the finishing touch to a great year of fellowship.

Many of our members contributed some of their favorite recipes which were made into our first cookbook. This cookbook was then available to the members.

Friendship, fellowship, and support were our main emphases. We hope other ministers' mates will join us in our endeavors this year.

Officers for the coming year are Margaret Guthrie, Union Hill, president; Bess Hollingsworth, Wake Forest, vice-president; Johnsie Liner, Knollwood, secretary/treasurer/historian with Ruth Lawrence, Ardmore, as associate; Cornelia Grigg, Colfax, and ENan Baldwin, Quaker Gap, devotions; Frances Daniel, Union Cross, and Beverly Hamblen, Winston-Salem First, programs.

The Dan River Mission is progressing well since the financial and decision making process was relinquished to them by the committee in March of this year. The Sunday School attenance is slowly increasing with several new members. Their average attendance is between 25 and 30.

They have recently installed a new furnace and air conditioner. In the March meeting the Mission Center Committee approved the request by the mission to begin the procedure to constitute into a church. They are presently in the process of writing a constitution and bylaws for the church.

The Dan River Mission is to be presented to the association at its October 1985 meeting for watchcare status and for acceptance into the association at the October 1986 meeting.

Music Ministry

We were saddened at the death of our friend and associate PMBA music director. Don Bearden was an indispensable source of strength and help during his short tenure as PMBA music associate. We miss him but will benefit for years to come from his hard work and dedication.

The PMBA Music Conference began the 1984-85 year with an associational Youth Choir Christmas Concert at Hanes Auditorium, Salem College, on December 8, 1984. Approximately 75 young people participated in the program, which was led by Fred Kelley of the BSSB, Nashville.

April 28, the date of PMBA's Spring Meeting, brought together a choir of 135 singers and instrumentalists as the associational adult choir presented choral selections at the meeting.

As part of our Centennial Celebration at Sandy Creek Baptist Church, Don Bearden and Brent Helton led in gospel singing and a Sacred Harp sing. Don Bearden also related to the group during the outdoor Sacred Harp sing some of the circumstances which brought about the Sacred Harp singing style.

The associational Music Council commissioned John Purifoy, a composer from Nashville, Tennessee, to write an anthem for our 100th anniversary meeting. The arrangement of "God of Grace and God of Glory" which you will hear this evening is the result of that effort. Upon learning of the death of Don Bearden, Mr. Purifoy dedicated the anthem to Don's memory.

Another associational Youth Choir Festival will be held on December 7 of this year. All youth from our churches are encouraged to participate.

Ordination Committee

The Ordination Committee has had two requests from churches to examine candidates before ordination. In each case the candidate has shown a knowledge of and a dedication to Baptist polity, as well as an effective grasp of the Christian doctrine.

Each candidate, after a satisfactory examination, was recommended to his church or ordination and the respective churches proceeded with ordaining the candidates.

The candidates were: Mr. Timothy Wilkins, Northwest Baptist and Mr. Charles Martin, Antioch Baptist.

Personnel Committee

Planning for future staff, rewriting job descriptions, conducting job evaluations, have been the key words and key responsibilities of the Personnel Committee this year. We have planned four scheduled meetings to give support and enablement to our staff.

During the year job descriptions for all the staff have been rewritten. Our Executive Director has carefully projected future personnel needs in consultation with the committee. We have conducted what may be the most extensive job evaluations in the history of the association. More importantly, we have sought to bridge the gap between the associational staff and associational constituency by maintaining positive, open, and supportive relationships with our staff.

During the year, we employed Beverly Hamblen as Special Projects Secretary to assist with the increased office load generated by planning for the Resource Center, the Centennial Celebration, the long-range planning process, and Good News America Simultaneous Revival preparation. She is serving on a part-time basis and brings excellent skills to this job.

At the end of September, Nancy Sebastian left her employ as bookkeeper/receptionist due to her need for reduced hours. We are deeply appreciative of the dedicated service she has rendered in this important task. On September 16, we welcomed Sheree Smith to the staff for that position. We look forward to a long and mutually satisfactory relationship with her.

Your Personnel Committee continues to be impressed with the devotion and dedication brought to the associational task by Peggy Hall, the administrative assistant, and James Hamblen, our executive director of missions. Peggy's constant, positive spirit, her servant's heart, her willingness to be helpful and the many ways she gives assistance to our executive director, make her an invaluable part of our associational team.

Your committee holds in highest regards the skills, devotion and dedication which Jim Hamblen brings to the task to which God has called him. He has given himself without reservation to the task of getting into the churches, getting to know our pastors and people, at the same time he gives leadership to the association. We are grateful to God for his leadership and the presence of his family among us.

As a committee we encourage all of the association to find ways of encouraging and ministering back to our executive director and his family. Pray much for them as they continue to lead us through some of the most exciting days that the Pilot Mountain Association has ever experienced. Your committee pledges itself to be facilitators and encouragers of the staff so that they will be free to carry on to the fullest the extensive ministry God has given them. Thank you for the privilege of serving our Lord and the churches of the association this year in this capacity.

Resource Center Fund-Raising Committee

The Resource Center Fund-Raising Committee has been working on a continuous basis (about every two weeks) since February 7 of this year. We feel that the association in general is excited, along with us, about the prospects of our new Resource Center finally becoming a reality.

During the month of May we conducted two information and discussion luncheons for pastors (at Union Cross and King First). On August 26 we conducted, at Ardmore Baptist Church, a dinner meeting for associational church leaders and pastors, at which time more up-to-date information (including a slide presentation) was given. At this meeting the churches were challenged to take action and report their pledges no later than October 11 in order that a full report would be in hand for our centennial Annual Meeting at Wait Chapel on the 17th. In the meantime, informational literature, including posters, was designed and produced to promote church awareness of the Resource Center needs.

At the writing of this report, September 30, 1985, we were already receiving donations and pledges from many of the churches. An up-to-date financial report will be available on the 17th. In addition to these gifts and pledges from churches, it has also been interesting to note that there have been a number of unsolicited gifts from individuals.

At our last Executive Committee meeting the group approved the committee's motion that the Resource Center be named "The Lewis Ludlum Resource Center." The same Executive Committee also passed a motion that all proceeds from our newly published associational history be directed to the Resource Center Fund. An earlier Executive Committee had instructed that the associational-owned properties on Hastings Hill Road, Romara Drive and Chestnut Trails be sold and that the proceeds therefrom go to the Resource Center. This is being worked on and we are happy to report that the Hastings Hill property has indeed been sold.

We continue to be excited about the added dimensions of mission service to the churches and to the communities involved, that this Resource Center will provide.

Seminary Extension Workgroup

The Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical Studies is only one and one-half years old but is fully alive and well!

The purpose of Pilot Mountain Association is to "glorify God through interchurch fellowship and through assisting . . . churches in realizing their purpose . . . ." What church in the association does not, in turn, have as one of its objectives to train, teach, or educate its people to be more effective servants of the Lord Jesus Christ? Seminary Extension has as its goal to help churches, and individuals within those churches, meet their objective in the area of education.

College-level courses are being taught by some of the highest caliber instructors and the courses are designed to assist all who sense a need for increased preparation in their Christian service.

Some of the courses which are upcoming in the near future are:

"New Testament Theology"; Teacher - Dr. Frank Wood; Nov. 4-Dec. 16, 1985
"Old Testament Survey" (Part 2); Dr. Joe Coltrane; Jan. 6-Feb. 17, 1986
"Evangelism"; Dr. Mark Corts; March 10-April 28, 1986
"Clinical Pastoral Training"; Paul Mullen; May 5-June 16, 1986
"Old Testament Survey" (Part 3); Dr. Joe Coltrane; Sep. 8-Oct. 20, 1986
"Dynamics of Teaching"; Arnett Harris; Nov. 3-Dec. 15, 1986
"Revelation"; Dr. David Morrow; Jan. 5-Feb. 16, 1987
"Old Testament Survey" (Part 1) is presently being taught.

The courses are offered to all who are interested and are offered on Monday evenings for 2½ hours for seven weeks at the Pilot Mountain Association Office. The cost is $15.00 per course, plus the cost of the textbook.

So, as was said at the beginning of the report, "The Pilot Mountain Institute for Biblical Studies is 'fully alive and well' "!

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship Committee has been primarily concerned with the Planned Growth in Giving program of the Southern Baptist Convention during the past year. Several of our churches have committed themselves fully to this program and others have chosen to take part in various aspects of PPG. Most of the promotional work has been done through the offices of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Proposed changes in the constitution of the association will lead to clarification of the responsibilities of the Stewardship Committee.

Submitted by:
Carlton Mitchell, Chairman

Although the Stewardship Committee has been out of the public's "eye," its aims have been actively pursued. In place of the annual banquet the emphasis has been on the major convention-wide thrust of Planned Growth in Giving. It is of the utmost importance that our churches participate in the program in their local setting. In the spring of 1985 John Boyles was elected to serve as stewardship chairman of the association to begin October 18. He was sent to Ridgecrest for Key Leadership Conference and participated in the Planned Growth in Giving seminars at Caraway. As the committee is being changed to a Council (pending associational approval) a large amount of time has been spent in setting up the structure on which to build an effective council. This council will encourage greater stewardship of all resources of the individual, churches, and association in order to accomplish significant endeavors for the sake of the Kingdom in the most efficient manner.

The work of the committee has on the associational calendar three area stewardship seminars, three Planned Growth in Giving seminars (led by the state stewardship department) that are convenient for lay stewardship directors, and the annual stewardship banquet--all during the calendar year 1986.

Strategy Planning Committee

The Strategy Planning Committee has been faithful to the long range planning process which it designed and presented to the Executive Committee for approval.

The committee began the process by selecting Lawrence Childs, director of missions of the Mecklenburg Baptist Association, as consultant. The consultant is a resource person who is helping us design and implement a "custom-fitted" long range plan for the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Also, to help us get started, I attended a Strategy Planning Training Conference at the Home Mission Board. Jim Hamblen and I attended an Urban Awareness Training Event in Charlotte. Both events were helpful and challenging.

Data gathering teams were formed as listed below:

a. Other Religious Groups Study
b. Population (Demographic) Study
c. Social Systems Study
d. Church Study
e. Associational Organization Study

The teams were oriented and trained by Lawrence Childs. Also, he conducted interviews of associational representatives which served as the prime source of the data collected by the Organization Study team.

A summary (packet) of the information which was gathered by each team is being furnished at the Annual Meeting to each congregation and to each associational "program" leader. Each associational program leader will write implications of the data from his/her program perspective. Hopefully, the leaders in the local congregations will use the data for their planning processes and for responding at the Church Council Retreat as to "How can the association best serve the churches."

Master Mime Mark McMasters was one of the highlights of this year's schedule of events sponsored by the Student and Youth Committee. Mark performed at College Park Baptist Church on March 2, and 215 youth, representing eight churches, enjoyed his unique brand of presenting the gospel.

In an effort to emphasize the plight of millions suffering from starvation and malnutrition, a 200 foot banana split was constructed and eaten by youth from our association on May 18 at Becks Baptist. Donations were taken up to be given to world hunger relief, and world hunger games were played under the direction of Ben Vogler.

Sunday School

This past year it has been my privilege to work with an enthusiastic and committed Sunday School Council and ASSISTeam. The Sunday School Council meets monthly and is composed of the age group division directors on the ASSISTeam. Our ASSISTeam is composed of 16 persons who specialize in general officers, adults, youth, children, and preschool Sunday School methods and ministry. Many of these skilled leaders are state-approved special consultants and church staff personnel. During the past year several led state conferences and were invited to serve as specialists in Metro Clinics.

Following the Bold Missions theme of outreach for the past year, we have sought to lead churches to participate in the "Reach Five in '85" goals for the year. On "Celebration Sunday," September 29, churches reported 21,287 enrolled in Sunday School in our association. The total increase in our Sunday School membership this year, according to churches reporting, was 1,208 net gain (a 5% increase).

During this year each team member has been assigned five or six churches to "shepherd" in giving care, guidance, and information. We held a Pastor/Director Dinner, an association Leadership Training Conference at Mount Olive and Knollwood, a cluster conference for three churches, individual conferences for three churches, outreach conference for one church, a People Search training conference, two Vacation Bible School clinics, and held several individual consultations for Sunday School evaluation.

We look forward to our Bold Mission emphasis on evangelism in the coming year and in preparation will hold a training conference on evangelistic Sunday School teaching--"So Send I You - Teaching to Reach" on October 7 at Walnut Cove and on October 8 at Ardmore. Our goal will be to train teachers to teach to win the lost and develop the saved. Our greatest prayer is that having been taught, class members will go out of their classrooms to seek the lost and unchurched, create a strong outreach organization within the Sunday School leadership, and commit themselves to outreach activities; such as, people search and prospect cultivation. May we experience a tremendous Sunday School revival in our association!

The Associational Church Media Library Organization

TACMO (The Associational Church Media Library Organization) emphasized three special events this year. In October 1985, we sponsored a pot luck supper at Ardmore Baptist. This was an informal time of getting to know one another. We also shared ideas as well as problems and possible solutions. We had excellent attendance for this event.

In April many attended our annual spring workshop at Caraway. This was an intensive 1½ days of learning experience led by several personnel from the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

Media Library week at Ridgecrest was held in July. TACMO encouraged local people to attend this in-depth study of all phases of media library work. Many specific requests from individual churches were directed to TACMO leaders during the year.

Our association has demonstrated once again during the course of this year its basic strength. Like a "tree beside streams of living water," it has brought forth fruit.

Working together with capable leadership and effective administration, we have been led to see just what can and should be done in Forsyth and Stokes counties among our Baptist churches who believe in the Christian value found in working together under God for the good of all and the progress of the Gospel.

Our past strengthens us. Mr. M.M. Goss has worked long, hard hours to produce a record of the one hundred years of history we celebrate this year.

Sandy Creek, Red Bank and Mineral Springs churches have provided a place for the meeting of minds to know as best we can the mind of Christ. The Executive Committee appreciates this hospitality.

Committees meeting in the office of the association, in centrally located restaurants, and in the churches of the association for work and fellowship have spent long hours together thinking, talking, praying, planning and seeing results.

The goal before us to build a centrally located Resource Center on Long Drive is already proving its ability to unite us in a common task. As we build, we will grow. The results seen in bricks and mortar will demonstrate our united purpose.

I thank God for Jim Hamblen, Velma McGee, Peggy Hall and the staff in the office and the larger circle of fellow workers who have shared their lives, their vision and their faith in our common task.

Christian fellowship may be God's greatest gift. As we work together with the total world need in our thoughts, our lives have found new strength. This is, perhaps, what the association is all about.

Woman's Missionary Union

During this centennial year, Woman's Missionary Union emphasis has been "By Love Compelled." The Associational Council's philosophy is that we exist "to assist churches to do WMU work."

To be better trained, eight members of the WMU Council went to Ridgecrest, and all council members attended state training at Caraway. At the September 1984 Leadership Conference, 187 leaders from 46 churches were trained to be more effective leaders in their church.

Realizing the importance of Pastor-Staff/WMU Partnership, a dinner was held at Northwest Baptist with special emphasis on foreign missions on November 26. Jack and Ruby Gentry, missionaries to Taiwan, were our special guests. Ninety-four leaders from 24 churches saw slides on "What Is WMU." Martha Curlee, Enlargement Director, coordinated this event.

The 94th Annual Session of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union met at Benton Convention Center March 15-16, 1985 with a registration of 1,961. WMU members from 36 churches in our association were involved in local arrangements.

One of the highlights of the year was Annual Meeting April 15, 1985 at Southside. Two hundred persons from 38 churches sang "Happy Birthday, PMBA" and blew out candles on a beautiful birthday cake donated by Union Cross Baptist Church.

Acteens (grades 7-12), under the leadership of Frances McDaniel and Associational Acteens Council, participated in Annual Meeting, learned how to have better meetings at a "Menagerie," and had an "Over the Rainbow Picnic." Four new organizations have been started this year.

Girls in Action (grades 1-6) had a "Mission Adventure Roundup," Father/Daughter Cookout, and camp at Merriwood. Clayron Webb, director, assisted by Lou Nations helped organize four new organizations.

"At Home by the Phone Day" has given Mission Friends leaders an opportunity to talk with Connie Dickens, director, and assistant, Tha Park. Southside Baptist invited leaders to a workshop on "How to Have a Mission Friends Meeting." We have five new Mission Friends organizations.

Baptist Young Women had a Fellowship Dinner June 3, 1985 at Knollwood featuring Miriam Ann Glover, School of Pastoral Care. Nancy Sebastian, director, reports one new organization.

Baptist Young Women and Baptist Women coordinated World Day of Prayer in six area churches with 234 persons from 38 churches participating. Theme was "We Are the Church--Called to be One for God's Mission."

Three hundred seventy-two ladies from 47 churches selected and honored a Baptist Woman from their organization at a Fellowship Dinner at Oaklawn in April. Under the leadership of Georgie Kitchen, director; Sue Tesh, assistant director; and Joyce Love, council member; four new organizations have been started.

Next year will be the 100th anniversary of North Carolina WMU. Under the leadership of Peggy Neal, centennial chairman, church WMU leaders are preparing for a birthday party January 8, 1986, and 100 days of prayer January 8 to April 17.

Mission Action projects have included Christmas Prison Ministry, Goodwill Birthday Parties, Crisis supplies at Forsyth Hospital, Hawley House, Battered Women, Migrant, and Crisis Control Ministry.

Contact has been made with every church and mission this year. At associational events, we have had a total of 1,315 in attendance from 65 churches. We have again earned "Distinguished" on the Achievement Guide.

Youth Ministers Support Group

The Youth Ministers Support Group made great progress this year. In addition to our usual agenda of sharing in each other's ministry difficulties and joys, we had several informative meetings on such areas as taxes, retreat materials, and world hunger.
